Haunted Lady Mary Roberts Rinehart, 2022-08-16 In Haunted Lady, Mary Roberts Rinehart masterfully weaves a tale of suspense and intrigue set against the backdrop of an enigmatic mansion steeped in mystery. The novel is characterized by Rinehart's sharp wit and her ability to blend elements of the Gothic and the detective genre, creating a riveting narrative that immerses readers in a world of hidden secrets and psychological tension. With her adept use of atmospheric descriptions and her knack for crafting complex characters, Rinehart invites readers to explore the fine line between reality and illusion, making them question what truly haunts the titular lady. Mary Roberts Rinehart, a pioneer in American mystery literature, found her inspiration in the early 20th century, a time marked by rapid changes in societal norms and gender roles. Her background as a nurse and her experiences during World War I lent her a unique perspective on human nature and the complexities of the human psyche. Rinehart's keen observations and understanding of her contemporary society are reflected in her work, paving the way for future female authors in the genre. Haunted Lady is essential reading for fans of mystery and psychological drama alike. The Atheist's Guide to Heaven & Hell-- Charlie Marx, 2007 Charlie Marx, like many of us, enjoys a good moan from time to time. This particular series of moans and groans resulted in a two and a half week period of him writing this novel until he got it all out of his system. The result is this collection of hilarious views on life, the universe, and charity shop charges. Helped by some characters in his head, we travel into the mind of this disturbed individual and see the world as it just might be. Along with famous and infamous people in situations you will certainly not have imagined them in, before you will find characters like an educationally deprived scarecrow, an ambitious but ultimately disappointed 5-note, and a series of improbable and improper pensioners. Within this novel, you will find out God's real name, what the difference is between a hill and a mountain, as well as why Charlie went all the way to Turkey to end up in Amsterdam.

Short Story Index: 1959-1963, 1965 Complete Works of Joseph Conrad. Novels, Short stories, Essays (Illustrated) Joseph Conrad, 2022-07-11 Writing near the peak of the British Empire, Conrad drew on the national experiences of his native Poland during nearly all his life, parceled out among three occupying empires and on his own experiences in the French and British merchant navies to create short stories and novels that reflect aspects of a European-dominated world, including imperialism and colonialism, and that profoundly explore the human psyche. Robert van Gulik and His Chinese Sherlock Holmes Sabrina Yuan Hao, 2023-09-20 In the post-war mid-century, Robert van Gulik produced a series of stories set in Imperial China and featuring a Chinese Judge, Judge Dee. This book examines the author's unprecedented effort in hybridising two heterogeneous crime writing traditions: traditional Chinese gong'an court case fiction and its Anglo-American counterpart, bringing to light how his fiction draws elements from these two traditions for plots, narrative features, visual images, and gender representation. Relying on research on various sources and literary traditions, it provides illumination of the historical contexts centring on the cultural interaction and connectedness that occurred during the multidirectional global flows of the Judge Dee texts in both western and Chinese markets. This study contributes to current scholarship on crime fiction by questioning its predominantly Eurocentric focus and the divisive post-colonial approach often adopted in accessing works concerning foreign peoples and cultures.
