Historical Dictionary of Kosovo Robert Elsie,2010-11-15 As the seventh and probably last state to arise from the ruins of the former Yugoslavia Kosovo is the newest country in Europe For centuries Kosovo also known as Kosova was part of the Ottoman Empire and for most of the 20th century it was a province of what was once Yugoslavia After the military conflict in 1998 1999 and a period of administration by the United Nations Kosovo declared its independence from Serbia on February 17 2008 Focusing not only on Kosovo's turbulent recent years the second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Kosovo also relates the country's rich culture and long history This is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Kosovo Ghost-haunted land Declan Long,2017-08-21 Since the signing of the Good Friday Agreement in 1998 the formal end point of the thirty year modern Troubles contemporary visual artists have offered diverse responses to post conflict circumstances in Northern Ireland In Ghost Haunted Land the first book length examination of post Troubles contemporary art Declan Long highlights artists who have reflected on the ongoing anxieties of aftermath This wide ranging study addresses developments in video photography painting sculpture performance and more offering detailed analyses of key works by artists based in Ireland and beyond including 2014 Turner Prize winner Duncan Campbell and internationally acclaimed filmmaker and photographer Willie Doherty Post Troubles contemporary art is discussed in the context of both local transformations and global operations and many of the main points of reference in the book come from broader debates about the place and purpose of contemporary art in today's world Hardcore,

Artificial Hells Claire Bishop, 2012-07-24 The award winning highly acclaimed Artificial Hells is the first historical and theoretical overview of socially engaged participatory art known in the US as social practice In recent decades the art gallery and the museum have become a place for participatory art where an audience is encouraged to take part in the artwork This has been heralded as a revolutionary practise that can promote new emancipatory social relations What was it is really In this fully updated edition Claire Bishop follows the trajectory of twentieth century art and examines key moments in the development of a participatory aesthetic This itinerary takes in Futurism and Dada the Situationist International Happenings in Eastern Europe Argentina and Paris the 1970s Community Arts Movement and the Artists Placement Group It concludes with a discussion of long term educational projects by contemporary artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tania Bruguera Pawel Althamer and Paul Chan Bishop challenges the political and aesthetic ambitions of participatory art this practise She not only scrutinizes the emancipatory claims but also provides an alternative to the ethical rather than artistic criteria invited by such artworks In response Artificial Hells calls for a less prescriptive approach to art and politics and for more compelling troubling and bolder forms of participatory art and criticism

Performance art in Eastern Europe since 1960 Amy Bryzgel, 2017-03-17 This volume presents the first comprehensive academic study of the history and development of performance art in the former communist countries of Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe since the 1960s Covering 21 countries and more than 250 artists this text demonstrates the manner in which performance art in the region developed concurrently with the genre in the West highlighting the unique contributions of Eastern European artists The discussions are based on primary source material interviews with the artists themselves It offers a comparative study of the genre of performance art in countries and cities across the region examining the manner in which artists addressed issues such as the body gender politics and identity and institutional critique

Europe Thomas M. Wilson, 2023-11-30 This two volume encyclopedia profiles the contemporary culture and society of every country in Europe Each country receives a chapter encompassing such topics as religion lifestyle and leisure standard of living cuisine gender roles relationships dress music visual arts and architecture This authoritative and comprehensive encyclopedia provides readers with richly detailed entries on the 45 nations that comprise modern Europe Each country profile looks at elements of contemporary life related to family and work including popular pastimes customs beliefs and attitudes Students can make cross cultural comparisons for instance a student could compare social customs in Denmark with those in Norway compare Greece s cuisine with that of Italy and contrast the architecture of Paris with Amsterdam and Barcelona Culture and society are changing in each region and nation of Europe due to many political and economic forces both inside and outside of each nation s borders This encyclopedia considers many of the transformations connected to globalization as well as traditions that still hold strong to provide a complete assessment of the processes that make European societies and cultures distinctive

Expanding

Boundaries: Systems Thinking in the Built Environment Guillaume Habert, Arno Schlueter, 2016-08-15 Consuming over 40% of total primary energy the built environment is in the centre of worldwide strategies and measures towards a more sustainable future To provide resilient solutions a simple optimisation of individual technologies will not be sufficient In contrast whole system thinking reveals and exploits connections between parts Each system interacts with others on different scales materials components buildings cities and domains ecology economy and social Whole system designers optimize the performance of such systems by understanding interconnections and identifying synergies The more complete the design integration the better the result In this book the reader will find the proceedings of the 2016 Sustainable Built Environment SBE Regional Conference in Zurich Papers have been written by academics and practitioners from all continents to bring forth the latest understanding on systems thinking in the built environment Globalizing East

European Art Histories Beáta Hock, Anu Allas, 2018-05-30 This edited collection reassesses East Central European art by offering transnational perspectives on its regional or national histories while also inserting the region into contemporary discussions of global issues Both in popular imagination and to some degree scholarly literature East Central Europe is persistently imagined as a hermetically isolated cultural landscape This book restores the diverse ways in which East Central European art has always been entangled with actors and institutions in the wider world The contributors engage with empirically anchored and theoretically argued case studies from historical periods representing notable junctures of globalization the early modern period the age of Empires the time of socialist rule and the global Cold War and the most recent decades of postsocialism understood as a global condition Just another exhibition Federica Martini, Vittoria Martini, 2011

Uncanny Networks Geert Lovink, 2002 For Geert Lovink interviews are imaginative texts that help create global networked discourses not only among different professions but also among different cultures and social groups Conducting interviews online over a period of weeks or months allows the participants to compose documents of depth and breadth rather than simply snapshots of timely references The interviews collected in this book are with artists critics and theorists who are intimately involved in building the content interfaces and architectures of new media The topics discussed include digital aesthetics sound art navigating deep audio space European media philosophy the internet in Eastern Europe the mixing of old and new in India critical media studies in the Asia Pacific Japanese techno tribes hybrid identities the storage of social movements theory of the virtual class virtual and urban spaces corporate takeover of the internet and cyberspace and the rise of nongovernmental organizations Teachable Monuments Sierra Rooney, Jennifer
