Charming very funny indeed Angela Thirkell is perhaps the most Pym like of any twentieth century author after Pym herself Alexander McCall Smith Edgewood Rectory may be set in an ancient landscape but the Grantly family are very much of their time Caught up in the uncertain world that has emerged since the outbreak of peace the Rector and Mrs Grantly are bewildered by the challenges facing their eldest children Eleanor longing for more excitement than can be found in the Red Cross Library and Tom struggling to readjust to student life at Oxford after his military service When their elderly neighbour Miss Sowerby sells her beloved Old Bank House to self made MP Sam Adams the one time outsider finds himself at the heart of Barsetshire society And while Sam may dismiss her advice that the house needs a mistress even a contented widower can be surprised by love The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,David Remnick,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,1987-04 Womanspeak ,1986 The Last of the Wine Mary Renault,2015-08-06 All my sense of the ancient world its values its style the scent of its wars and passions comes from Mary Renault Her Theseus novels are perhaps the most exciting of her Greek fictions and The Last of the Wine the most moving I turned to writing historical fiction because of something I learned from Renault that it lets you shake off the mental shackles of your own era all the categories and labels and write freely about what really matters to you EMMA DONOGHUE Mary Renault's portraits of the ancient world are fierce complex and eloquent infused at every turn with her life long passion for the Classics Her characters live vividly both in their own time and in ours MADELINE MILLER Combining the scholarship of a historian with the imagination of a novelist Mary Renault masterfully brings the ancient world to life in this page turning drama of the Peloponnesian War Alexias a young Athenian of good family comes of age during the last phases of the Peloponnesian War The adult world he enters is one in which the power and influence of his class have been undermined by the forces of war Alexias finds himself drawn to the controversial teachings of Socrates following him even though it at times endangers both his own life and his family's place in society Among the great teacher's followers Alexias meets Lysis and the two youths become inseparable together they wrestle in the palaestra journey to the Olympic Games and fight in the wars against Sparta As their relationship develops against the background of famine siege and civil conflict Mary Renault expertly conveys the intricacies of classical Greek culture Mary Renault is a shining light to both historical novelists and their readers She does not pretend the past is like the present or that the people of ancient Greece were just like us She shows us their strangeness discerning sure footed challenging our values piquing our curiosity she leads us through an alien landscape that moves and delights us HILARY MANTEL The most vivid and convincing reconstruction of ancient Greek life that I have ever seen Sunday Times The Brandons Angela Thirkell,2014-05-01 Lavinia Brandon is quite the loveliest widow in Barsetshire blessed with beauty and grace as well as two handsome grown up children Delia and Francis So thinks their cousin Hilary Grant when he comes to stay and like many before him promptly falls for his fragrant hostess Meanwhile the

Brandons ill tempered dowager aunt is stirring up controversy over her legacy and Lavinia s attention is further occupied by the challenges of making a match between the vicar and gifted village helpmeet Miss Morris and elegantly deterring her love struck suitors Angela Thirkell s 1930s comedy is bright witty and winning Edith Wharton Stephen Garrison,1990
Although she is mainly remembered today for her major works The House of Mirth 1905 The Custom of the Country 1913 Ethan Frome 1911 and The Age of Innocence 1920 Edith Wharton was the writer of many other novels short stories and travel books as well as a perceptive judge of contemporary art and literature Recent years have seen a renewal of critical attention to her oeuvre The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002
