If only he'd remembered his parents' lesson: Always look before you leap. If only he'd paid more attention to the mouse family that had lost two children to a nearby snake. If only the rattler had given some warning before it struck. Miraculously, the young roadrunner survives the attack but not without damage. With their son's feet swollen to such an enormous size, his parents have no choice but to give him the humiliating name of Thunderfoot. It's enough to make a roadrunner wallow in self-pity and give up. But the only thing bigger than Thunderfoot's feet is his heart, and with some not-always-gentle goading from a wise old gopher tortoise named Berland, he finds the courage to go forward and seek his destiny and to become the stuff of legends.
