Queer Transexions of Race, Nation, and Gender. By positing queer as a point of departure for a broad critique that is calibrated to account for the social antagonisms of nationality, race, gender, and class, as well as sexuality, this special issue, edited by Phillip Brian Harper, Anne McIntock, José Esteban Muñoz, and Trish Rosen, constitutes an intervention in what is still the early formative stage of queer-theoretical engagement. Contributors to this issue include Phillip Brian Harper, David L. Eng, Rosalind C. Morris, José Esteban Muñoz, Judith Halberstam, Don Kulick, Rachel Holmes, Priscilla Wald, David Valentine and Riki Anne Wilchins, C. Social Text 52 53 Fall Winter 1997 Queer Transexions Of Race Nation Gender:

Queer Times, Queer Becomings E. L. McCallum, Mikko Tuhkanen, 2011-11-01 If queer theorists have agreed on anything it is that for queer thought to have any specificity at all it must be characterized by becoming the constant breaking of habits Queer Times Queer Becomings explores queer articulations of time and becoming in literature philosophy film and performance Whether in the contexts of psychoanalysis the nineteenth century discourses of evolution and racial sciences or the daily rhythms of contemporary familially oriented communities queerness has always been marked by a peculiar untimeliness by a lack of proper orientation in terms of time as much as social norms Yet it is the skewed relation to the temporal norm that also gives queerness its singular hope This is demonstrated by the essays collected here as they consider the ways in which queer theory has acknowledged resisted appropriated or refused divergent models of temporality

Queer Transexions of Race, Nation, and Gender Jacqueline Brian Woodson, José Esteban Muñoz, Anne McClintock, Trish Rosen, 1997 Until now queer theory has largely been silent about questions of race especially when considered in an international context Much postcolonial theory has been silent about questions regarding gender and sexuality This special issue of Social Text explores the relations between race and queer sexuality by focusing on the politics of transgression in a transnational world In the first section of this issue Race and Queer Sexuality international authors address topics ranging from Asian American queer identity and its relation to transnational and diasporic concerns to homophobia and its relationship to black nationalism in South Africa Other subjects include sexuality race and public space lesbian pedagogy and the nation in Latin America and an analysis of cross race and cross gender drag in the work of L A drag queen Vaginal Creme Davis In the second section The Politics of Transgression contributors focus on transgression and its relationship to power and history One essay explores Irish immigration in the U S and the Irish female body as a figure of transnational contagion and blood panic while another focuses on Oscar Wilde race and queer sexuality Other pieces include a meditation on British filmmaker and writer Derek Jarman s film Blue Race and Queer Sexuality confronts the limitations of prior work in queer theory while providing a starting point for discussion of race queer sexuality and the politics of transgression that will be part of queer theory of the future Contributors Judith Butler David Eng Licia Fiol Mata Judith Halberstam Phillip Brian Harper Neville Hoad Rachel Holmes Don Kulick Tim Lawrence Rosalind Morris Jos Esteban Muñoz Ben Singer David Valentine Priscilla Wald Riki Anne Wilchins

Situating Sexualities Fran Martin, 2003-05-01 This is the first book in English to analyse the stunning rise to prominence of cultures of dissident sexuality in Taiwan during the 1990s Positioned at the crossroads of queer theory and postcolonial cultural studies this book intervenes in current debates on sexuality and globalization to argue that the current emergence of public dissident sexualities in non Western locations like Taiwan cannot be reduced to the effects of homogenizing Westernization Instead Situating Sexualities approaches the queer sexualities represented in recent Taiwanese fiction film and public culture as dynamic formations that combine local knowledge with globalizing discourses on gay and lesbian identity to produce sexualities that are multiple shifting and inherently hybrid Equally the book pushes out the limits of queer to challenge the Eurocentrism of much queer theory to date Consistently critical of essentializing accounts of Chinese culture the book nevertheless highlights some of the important ways in which Taiwanese formations of dissident sexuality differ from the familiar Euro American formations Artists, Performers, and Black Masculinity in the Haitian Diaspora Jana Evans Braziel, 2008-06-27 Jana Evans Braziel examines how Haitian diaspora writers performance artists and musicians address black masculinity through the Haitian Creole concept of gwo n g s or big men She focuses on six artists and their work writer Dany Laferrière director Raoul Peck rap artist Wyclef Jean artist Jean Michel Basquiat drag queen performer and poet Assotto Saint and queer drag king performer Dr d a k a Mildr d Gerestant For Braziel these individuals confront the gendered sexualized and racialized boundaries of America s diaspora communities and openly resist domestic imperialism that targets immigrants minorities women gays and queers This is a groundbreaking study at the intersections of gender and sexuality with race ethnicity nationality and diaspora
