Evangelising the Nation John Thomas, 2015-10-05 Northeast India has witnessed several nationality movements during the 20th century The oldest and one of the most formidable has been that of the Nagas inhabiting the hill tracts between the Brahmaputra river in India and the Chindwin river in Burma now Myanmar Rallying behind the slogan Nagaland for Christ this movement has been the site of an ambiguous relation between a particular understanding of Christianity and nation making This book based on meticulous archival research traces the making of this relation and offers fresh perspectives on the workings of religion in the formation of political and cultural identities among the Nagas It tracks the transmutations of Protestantism from the United States to the hill tracts of Northeast India and its impact on the form and content of the nation that was imagined and longed for by the Nagas The volume also examines the role of missionaries local church leaders and colonial and post colonial states in facilitating this process Lucidly written and rigorous in its analyses this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of South Asian history religion political science sociology and social anthropology and particularly those concerned with Northeast India Class Formation, Social Inequality and the Nagas in North-East India

Andreas Küchle, 2019-03-15 This book examines the question of class formation and social inequality within tribal groups in North East India Focussing on the Nagas it analyses and challenges common perceptions about them as a class less society with a uniform culture It looks at the previously neglected themes of class formation and structure division of work emerging social milieus and cultural differentiation among the Naga youth and presents fresh arguments about notions of modernity Providing a theoretical understanding of inequality this volume will be useful for scholars and researchers of North East India tribal studies exclusion studies sociology social anthropology political studies development studies cultural studies and South Asian studies Social Dynamics in the Highlands of Southeast Asia François Robinne, Mandy Sadan, 2007-09-30

This reappraisal of Political Systems of Highland Burma the seminal work by E R Leach presents much new material on the highlands of Southeast Asia and its borders from writers with long term research experience in these areas The Introduction establishes in detail both the theoretical and regional ethnographic significance of Leach s work and the chapters to follow Part One discusses issues relating to Leach s fieldwork including the background to his research and issues arising from his fieldwork practice Part Two presents a variety of engagements with Leach s theoretical approach particularly his ideas of socio political oscillation This theory is considered in relation to the historical experience of culture contact in Assam and Laos particularly between Tai and non Tai groups Part Three considers once more Leach s ideas with respect to communities that are or could be considered Kachin sub groups in Burma Tibet and Yunnan this time focusing on interpretations of exchange and the notion of ritual language A discussion of approaches towards the study of transethnicity concludes the work The book is a significant contribution to the development of a new regional anthropology of Southeast Asia incorporating material from areas that were until recently closed to researchers
