practice the maritime industry can avoid policies which it dislikes by trading nations off against one another while enjoying the freedoms and benefits of a globalized economy A Post modern interpretation of this globalized society prompts suggestions for change in maritime policy making so that the governance of the sector better matches more closely the environment in which shipping and ports operate Maritime Governance and Policy Making is a controversial commentary on the record of policy making in the maritime sector and assesses whether the reason for continued policy failure rests with the inadequate governance of the sector Maritime Governance and Policy Making addresses fundamental questions of governance jurisdiction and policy and applies them to the maritime sector This makes it of much more interest to a much wider audience including students researchers government officials and those with industrial and commercial interests in the shipping and ports areas and also of more value as it places the specific maritime issues into their wider context Maritime Governance and Policy Making addresses fundamental questions of governance jurisdiction and policy and applies them to the maritime sector This makes it of much more interest to a much wider audience including students researchers government officials and those with industrial and commercial interests in the shipping and ports areas and also of more value as it places the specific maritime issues into their wider context Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1984 A Strategic Understanding of UN Economic Sanctions Golnoosh Hakimdavar,2013-10-08 Economic Sanctions are increasingly used as a legal non military technique of combating abusers of international peace However it remains unclear how the success or failure of these sanctions is measured This book examines the seldom explored United Nations economic sanctions deliberation process and exposes systematic problems in the measurement of the success or failure of these sanctions Centering on the key concepts of peace and security the author brings the reader s attention to the discrepancies that exist in the process of decision making implementation and evaluation of UN imposed economic sanctions She engages international law and development methods to provide proof for the lack of consensus in measures of success and failure which in turn suggests that sanction implementation on a uniform domestic front are unattainable This thorough analysis concludes with suggestions for improving the sanctions process only to clear the path for negating them as a whole and suggest alternative non coercive measures for mitigating conflict situations and threats to peace and security
