U.S.A. ,1943 The Unspeakable Amy L. Hubbell, Névine El Nossery, 2013-10-03 The Unspeakable Represents of Trauma in Francophone Literature and Art is situated at the crossroads of language culture and genre. It contends that suffering transcends time space and cultural specificity. Even when extreme trauma is silenced, it often still emerges in surprising and painful ways. This volume draws together examples from throughout the Francophone world including countries such as Algeria, Morocco, Lebanon, Rwanda, Cameroon, Congo, Côte d'Ivoire, Haiti, New Caledonia, Quebec, and France, and across genres such as autobiography, poetry, theater, film, fiction, and visual art to provide a cohesive analysis of the representation of trauma. In addition to the survivors' expression of trauma, the witnesses and receivers are also taken into account. By gathering studies that explore diverse bodily and psychological traumas through tropes such as repetition, silence, and working through it, it tackles ethical responsibility and interrogates how expressive forms evoke a terrible reality through the use of imagination. The aim of this volume is not to question if suffering is representable, but rather to examine to what extent art surpasses its own limitations and goes straight to its essence. The Unspeakable hopes to provide models for the cultural translation of trauma because when represented and released from silence and isolation, trauma can give way to the arduous process of healing.
