Soldiers, 1991 Charxeen Adolph Hassenfeather, 2025-05-12 This is about a fourteen year old guy who has taken a little adventure from one planet to another This is a story of a love affair between himself and a girl from that other planet how they met and conquered the language barrier the cultural differences and other obstacles thrown up by technical glitches their own sun and politics It is about two races of people who discover each other by accident It doesn t involve huge gleaming starships that can only in one s imagination penetrate the speed of light but by the invention and development of the transporter Radio waves can be tuned to hyper luminescent frequencies thus enabling the creation of the transporter Just step through the door However with the excuse that there is a war happening and other economic and political reasons politicians have to put little Berlin Walls in If you cross international and interplanetary borders you still have to go through customs and immigration This is their story My Beautiful President Nan TianXing, 2019-11-16 The employees that were working hard south were like fish in water as they moved between the three beautiful women s chairmen Mothers of the Military Wendy M. Christensen, 2018-08-09 Mothers of the Military examines the distinctive kinds of support required during an increasingly privatized war specifically material moral and healthcare support Mothers are a particularly key part of the current support system for service members and Wendy Christensen follows the mothers of U S service members in the War on Terrorism through the stages of recruitment deployment and post deployment Bringing to light the experiences and stories of women who are largely invisible during war the mothers of service members Over 2 5 million members of the U S military have deployed to Iraq or Afghanistan during the now 16 year long war Each service member has loved ones spouses parents and children who provide necessary emotional and physical support during deployment This book has three goals The first is to make mothers experiences during wartime visible The second is to interrogate what support means during war Finally it examines the impact of war support on mothers political participation Ideally civilians provide moral approval of war patriotism and extend understanding and appreciation of the sacrifice enlistees and their families are making But in these long wars public and political approval has plummeted It is not surprising this narrow slice of Americans dealing with the daily realities of war feels increasingly separate from civilians Military families are isolated from those Americans who are able to ignore the war or offer superficial expressions of patriotic gratitude Mothers occupy a complex gendered location during wartime Even though women are now serving in combat positions women have historically held down the home front where family labor is still assigned disproportionately to women However the military does not treat mothers and fathers equally The military assumes fathers will be supportive of service and calls on them to be proud of the courageous decision their child has made They consider mothers on the other hand potential impediments to service not wanting their child in harm s way Through each stage of service mothers take on different kinds of support for their child for the military and for war policy At each stage of war mothers are prescribed a gendered support position In recruitment material the military assumes mothers will be emotional and worried about enlistment so they appeal to mother s love and need for their child to be safe During deployment mothers provide supplies and moral support Declining enlistment numbers and a long war have led to multiple deployments and unprecedented burdens on military families These mothers step in to help with childcare and finances Furthermore mothers are overwhelmingly according to military studies the ones providing mental and physical healthcare when veterans need it As providers of critical systems of war support mothers bear much of the burden of the current wars War provides mothers a way to participate in the national project but the uneven burden of being a constant supporter further marginalizes their citizenship The gendered support role the military designs for mothers is not designed to facilitate active democratic citizenship but rather to make it seem natural that they too fall in line with the chain of command Mothers of the Military as a whole asks how the acts of supplying material moral and medical support end up so often marginalizing mothers as citizens from the political process and under what conditions do mothers resist Space Ends Book Three Odette C. A Less Than Perfect Beginning Diane L. Huffman, 2014-03 During Beth Stedman's formative years in the late 1940s and early 1950s she wonders if the families depicted on the weekly television shows Leave It to Beaver Father Knows Best The Donna Reed Show existed in real life The fathers in the sitcoms had good paying jobs The mothers stayed home and vacuumed in dresses and high heels The brothers and sisters were respectful and obedient They lived in perfect harmony in perfect houses in perfect suburbs Once she was old enough to visit friends she realized that other families do in fact resemble those blissful television portrayals But hers certainly doesn't Growing up in her deranged East Coast household Beth feels like an outsider but a grateful outsider because her family is riddled with alcoholism poverty and an abundance of insanity Beth has her defenses though her faith a positive attitude and a penchant for putting a comedic spin on life She also harbors a secret escape plan and eventually the knowledge as to why she has always been the black sheep of the family Beth survives a deadbeat dad a defeated mom an overindulged sister and a villainous brother to demonstrate that the School of Hard Knocks doesn't have to ruin you for life If fact it can almost guarantee success
