Rogers, 2007-04-30 The most dangerous arms in the world are those of horse and lance because there is no means of stopping them wrote a 15th century commander Jean de Bueil From the fall of the Roman Empire to the end of the 15th century the men and a few women in disguise who reported for military service or who led other men scouted and skirmished plundered and burned If they did not slaughter the peasants they met they took them prisoner to be sold as slaves or ransomed at heavy cost It was a brutal time Rogers illuminates the history of medieval soldiers in wartime and in peacetime describing the lives of those who attacked and those who defended the fortified castles towns and lands of Europe and beyond in the Middle Age United States Naval Institute Proceedings ,1987 History of Kershaw's Brigade D. Augustus Dickert, 2016-06-30 The name of Kershaw's Brigade of South Carolinians is familiar to all who wore the gray and saw hard fighting on the fields of Virginia in the swamps of Carolina and the mountains of Tennessee This was the First Brigade of the First Division of the First Corps of the Army of Northern Virginia and many of its members volunteered for service before the first gun was fired at the Star of the West while its ragged regimental remnants laid down their arms at Greensboro not till the 2d of May 1865 nearly a month after the fateful day of Appomattox Its history is a history of the war for as will be seen there were few pitched battles in the East that did not call forth its valor The chief merit of Captain Dickert's book is that it presents the gay and bright as well as the grave side of the Confederate soldier's experience It is full of anecdote and incident and repartee Such quips and jests kept the heart light and the blood warm beneath many a tattered coat The Photographic History of the Civil War ...: Soldier life, secret service Francis Trevelyan Miller, 1911 The Photographic History of the Civil War in Ten Volumes: Soldier life, secret service Francis Trevelyan
