

SOLDIERS AT THE DOORSTEP

CIVIL WAR LORE

The Civil War era was a heartbreaking and emotional time for those living in the South and in the North. The vignettes in this collection show not only the fear, but also the courage, the defiance, and the ingenuity the people at home showed under extremely difficult circumstances.

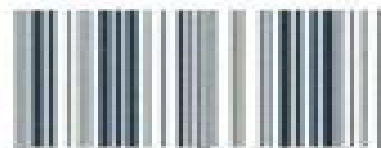

While these particular tales are southern, it is likely that the same sort of narrative could have come from people in any state where soldiers roamed. Some of the stories even involve northerners living in the South: for example, Mrs. Kelly, the wife of a Union soldier, who convinced the Yankees to give back her cow and some hens taken from her neighbors, then shared the milk and eggs with those neighbors throughout the war.

The homespun quality of these accounts makes them uncommonly affecting to the reader. It is history "as told to," an especially effective way to learn about the challenges faced by earlier generations.
