Solomons House The Lost Children Of Nicaragua:

Solomon's House ,2000 Despite widespread poverty and tensions of warfare present during Saxgren s first visits to Nicaragua in the 1980s basic standards of decency and family unity prevailed Upon his return to the country in the mid 1990s Saxgren found vast numbers of children living on the streets and trapped in a downward spiral of dependency

House of Given Bill Collopy,2006 With a sparkling lyricism House of Given reflects on the gentle insistence of love Despite the strains and impositions people place upon it especially within the close confines of family despite secrets guilt sorrow and silence Collopy s novel illustrates a belief that love s essential nature beckons revelation And sometimes revelations emerge through the very notion that Families have a way of scratching each other s sores Lineage and living collide offering sacrifice reconciliation and truth as an answer to the question of identity within family The characters of House of Given reveal a story of family as we all know it to one extent or another and of life the fragile kind in which we all sooner or later find ourselves IP Picks 2006 Judges Report Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Armed Services United States.
