Solos The Sea Dog:

Sailing Solo Alone J. J. James, 2011-03-01 Sailing Solo Alone is a true story about a man who is a little bored with his life and seeking some kind of excitement buys a yacht Three weeks later he's been up and down the river on a couple of trips raised the sail a few times and read a manual or two then our hero for want of a better word decides to take his 18ft overgrown dingy for a 40 mile trip around the coast The Sea has one attempt at killing him The boat manages to stay upright more by luck than anything else He even finds a safe haven for the night Does he stay there No He actually sets out to sea at three o'clock in the morning If you felt the need to be charitable you may have said it was quite a nice night for a bit of a sail And it was at first but this was the North Sea The North Sea in October Leaving the pier heads and the safety of the harbour Looking to seaward it was as dark as doomsday out there And It was only going to get darker It wouldn't be long before he realised buying a yacht called Solo may not have been one of his better ideas All a little late by then Solo Vicki McAuley, 2010-09-01 On January 11th 2007 Andrew McCauley set off from Tasmania in a sea kayak aiming to be the first person to paddle the 1600 kilometres to New Zealand A month later New Zealand authorities received a garbled distress call from him His kayak was spotted drifting and waterlogged just 80 kilometres from the New Zealand coast His body was never found Vicki McAuley Andrew's wife and the mother of his young child has written an extraordinary book about her husband and his final voyage It is a love story an adventure story and a meditation on what it is to feel most alive even when so brazenly tempting death Not since Into Thin Air have we come closer to understanding the adrenaline rush of high adventure and its tragic consequences The Chronicles of America Series: Elizabethan sea dogs, 1918 Solo & First Time Travellers' Handbook (eBook PDF) Deborah Brown, 2019-12-31 A confidence builder for those who want to travel the world Travel Safe Travel Smart Travel Healthy All the know how from a travel expert who brings comprehensive practical information from the decision to go planning travelling and returning home and everything in between Let's Travel You Happy Super informative topics include Decide where to go when and for how long Savings strategies budgeting and planning Packing to perfection Passports Visas Working holiday Expert Tips throughout Inspirational stories and images Prepare for a happy healthy safe journey The ultimate guide to to your destiny of discovering the world By Going Travelling Travel You Happy Pulp Classics John Betancourt, 2005-04-28 The March 1930 issue of the rare pulp magazine SUBMARINE STORIES which lasted for thirteen issues and so must count as one of the more successful of the hyper specialized pulps Long prized by collectors as a curiosity too scarce and valuable to be actually read it turns out to be quite an entertaining magazine containing stories by such pulp stalwarts as George Fielding Eliot author of the grisly WEIRD TALES classic The Copper Bowl and Alan R Bosworth a prolific pulp writer who appeared in everything from ARGOSY to UNKNOWN WORLDS Here too is a vivid first hand account of undersea warfare by a genuine German U boat captain Elizabethan Sea-dogs William Wood, 1918 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1883 edition Excerpt CHAPTER XXXV In my youth and through the prime of manhood I never entered London without feelings of hope and pleasure It was to me the grand theatre of intellectual activity the field for every species of enterprise and exertion the metropolis of the world of business thought and action There I was sure to find friends and companions to hear the voice of encouragement and praise There society of the most refined sort offered daily its banquets to the mind and new objects of interest and ambition were constantly exciting attention either in politics literature or science THESE feelings so well described by a man of genius have probably been felt more or less by most young men who have within them any consciousness of talent or any of that enthusiasm that eager desire to have or to give sympathy which especially in youth characterises noble natures But after even one or two seasons in a great metropolis these feelings often change long before they are altered by age Granville Beauclerc had already persuaded himself that he now detested as much as he had at first been delighted with a London life From his metaphysical habits of mind and from the sensibility of his temper he had been too soon disgusted by that sort of general politeness which as he said takes up the time and place of real friendship and as for the intellectual pleasures they were he said too superficial for him and his notions of independence too were at this time quite incompatible with the conventional life of a great capital His present wish was to live all the year round in the country with the woman he loved and in the society of a few chosen friends Helen quite agreed with him in his taste for the country she had scarcely

King,2024-05-21 2024 National Outdoor Book Award Silver Medal Winner A masterfully curated collection You don t have to be a sailor to be blown away by this fascinating bighearted book Nathaniel Philbrick author of In the Heart of the Sea Travels with George and Second Wind A story as vast and exhilarating as the open ocean itself SAILING ALONE chronicles the daring disastrous and often absurd history of those who chose to sail across the ocean in very small boats alone Sailing by yourself out of sight of land can be invigorating and terrifying compelling and tedious and sometimes all of the above in one morning But it is also a wide expanse of time in which to think Sailing Alone tells the story of some of the remarkable people who over the last four centuries have spent weeks and months moving slowly over the world s largest laboratory a capricious and startling place in which to observe oneself the weather the stars and countless sea creatures from the tiniest to the most massive and threatening Richard J King profiles characters famous diverse international and obscure from Joshua Slocum of 1898 to modern teenagers daring to take the challenge They see strange hallucinations lie to us and themselves on their travel logs encounter sharks befriend birds and experience ESP all part of the unnerving reality of extended isolation And some disappear altogether Sailing Alone also recounts the author s own nearly catastrophic solo crossing of the Atlantic and the mystery of his inexplicable survival one sunny afternoon An enormously engaging new book for skippers and armchair voyagers alike A List of All the Songs & Passages in Shakspeare which Have Been Set to Music William Shakespeare,1884 Merchant Vessels of the United States ... (including Yachts) ,1952 The First Indian Dilip Donde,2016-04-05 An engrossing narrative of one man s struggle to achieve his dream against all odds this is both a fast paced adventure and a telling commentary on how heroes are often made despite the system they operate in by dint of sheer perseverance and commitment to a chosen path Above all it s a paean to the power of self belief that serves to inspire motivate and exhilarate On 19 May 2010 as he sailed INSV Mhadei into Mumbai harbour Commander Dilip Donde earned his place in India s maritime history by becoming the first Indian to complete a solo circumnavigation under sail south of the 3 Great Capes The feat successfully completed by just over 200 people in the world had never been attempted in his country before In his own words the book chronicles his progress over four years from building a suitable boat with an Indian boat builder weaving his way through the sea blind and often quixotic bureaucracy and training himself with no precedent or knowledge base in the country to finally sailing solo around the world During this gruelling task he was mentored by Sir Robin Knox Johnston the first man to sail solo non stop around the world
