Sino Soviet Relations 1964 1965:

Sino-Soviet Relations, 1964-1965 William E. Griffith, 1983-01 Beginning with a detailed analysis of all aspects of Sino Soviet relations from November 1963 through November 1965 this summary takes up where the author's The Sino Soviet Rift left off and like it includes the text of or key excerpts from the main documents of the period This book first deals with Khrushchev's unsuccessful attempt to reactivate the collective expulsion or condemnation of the Chinese by an overwhelming majority of the world Communist movement the Chinese gains arising from his failure and the resultant growth of pluralistic tendencies among his supporters After Khrushchev's fall the book turns to the more indirect and therefore more successful policies of Brezhnev and Kosygin against the Chinese Beginning with the seventh Chinese Comment the documentation includes Togliatti's Testament and the April 1964 Romanian Central Committee Statement and concludes with the October 27 1965 Pravda restatement of post Khrushchev foreign policy and the November 11 1965 Chinese attack on Moscow's united front policy on the Vietnam crisis

Chinese Policy Toward Indonesia, 1949-1967 David Mozingo, 2007 China's alliance with Indonesia in the mid sixties appeared to be a spectacular achievement of diplomatic strategy yet it became a major foreign policy disaster for China To explore this turn about Professor Mozingo offers a persuasive analysis of the competing forces that shaped Beijing's policy towards Jakarta and the factors that ultimately led to its downfall He explains how and why Chinese policy in Indonesia shifted dramatically from hostility to peaceful coexistence and back again to hostility Although considerations of global strategy predominantly influenced the design and execution of that policy he writes the decisive factor affecting the outcome of the Sino Indonesian relationship consistently proved to be the domestic political processes in Indonesia over which Beijing had little or no control In the end China was unable to resolve the contradiction between considerations of realpolitik and of its own revolutionary ethos He argues that this same contradiction is responsible for the highly ambivalent attitude that Beijing has displayed in its relations with other non communist Afro Asian countries since 1949 Through this informed analysis of the Sino Indonesian relationship now brought back to life as a member of Equinox Publishing's Classic Indonesia series Professor Mozingo has clarified the
