Smyth,2015-10-08 This book brings together the work of eleven leading international scholars to map the contribution of teaching Sisters who provided schooling to hundreds of thousands of children globally from 1800 to 1950 The volume represents research that draws on several theoretical approaches and methodologies It engages with feminist discourses social history oral history visual culture post colonial studies and the concept of transnationalism to provide new insights into the work of Sisters in education Making a unique contribution to the field chapters offer an interrogation of historical sources as well as fresh interpretations of findings challenging assumptions Compelling narratives from the USA Canada New Zealand Africa Australia South East Asia France the UK Italy and Ireland contribute to what is a most important exploration of the contribution of the women religious by mapping and contextualizing their work Education Identity and Women Religious 1800 1950 Convents classrooms and colleges will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of social history women s history the history of education Catholic education gender studies and international education The Ku Klux Klan in Minnesota Elizabeth Dorsey Hatle,2013-09-17 Minnesota might not seem like an obvious place to look for traces of Ku Klux Klan parade grounds but this northern state was once home to fifty one chapters of the KKK Elizabeth Hatle tracks down the history of the Klan in Minnesota beginning with the racially charged atmosphere that produced the tragic 1920 Duluth lynchings She measures the influence the organization wielded at the peak of its prominence within state politics and tenaciously follows the careers of the Klansmen who continued life in the public sphere after the Hooded Order lost its foothold in the Land of Ten Thousand Lakes Every Catholic An Apostle William L. Portier,2017-11-17 Born in Boston of immigrant parents Thomas A Judge CM 1868 1933 preached up and down the east coast on the Vincentian mission band between 1903 and 1915 Disturbed by the leakage of the immigrant poor from the church he enlisted and organized lay women he met on the missions to work for the preservation of the faith his watchword His work grew apace with and in some ways anticipated the growing body of papal teaching on the lay apostolate When he became superior of the godforsaken Vincentian Alabama mission in 1915 he invited the lay apostles to come south to help This is the layman s hour he wrote in 1919 By then however many of his lay apostles had evolved in the direction of vowed communal life This pioneer of the lay apostle founded two religious communities one of women and one of men With the indispensable help of his co founder Mother Boniface Keasey he spent the last decade of his life trying to gain canonical approval for these groups organizing them and helping them learn to train the work a day man and woman into an apostle to cause each to be alert to the interests of the Church to be the Church The roaring twenties saw the work expanded beyond the Alabama missions as far as Puerto Rico which Judge viewed as a gateway to Latin America The Great Depression ended this expansive mood and time and put agonizing pressure on Judge his disciples and their work In 1932 the year before Judge s death the apostolic delegate upon being appraised of Judge s financial straits described his work as the only organized movement of its kind in the Church today that so completely meets the wishes of the Holy Father with reference to the Lay Apostolate

Religion, Religious Ethics and Nursing

Marsha Fowler, Sheryl Reimer Kirkham, Rick Sawatzky, Elizabeth Johnston Taylor, 2011-11-14 This is a book that challenges you to step back and broaden your thinking about religion in general and religion in nursing Nurses at all levels will appreciate the applications to nursing practice theory and research Journal of Christian Nursing The Reverend Dr Marsha Fowler and her colleagues have written a landmark book that will change and enlighten the discourse on religion and spirituality in nursing The authors address the awkward silence on religion in nursing theory and education and with insightful scholarship move beyond the current level of knowledge and limited discourse on religion in nursing theory education and practice This book is path breaking in that it gives many new ways to think about the relationships between ethics health caregiving moral imagination religion and spirituality From the Foreword by Patricia Benner PhD RN FAAN Professor Emerita of Nursing Department of Social and Behavioral Sciences and Nursing University of California San Francisco The past 25 years have witnessed an escalating discussion on the role of spirituality within health care This scholarly volume is rooted in the belief that not only is religion integral to nursing care but the religious beliefs of both nurse and patient can significantly influence care and its outcome It offers an in depth analysis of the ways in which religion influences the discipline of nursing its practitioners and treatment outcomes Through the contributions of an international cadre of nurse scholars representing the world s major religious traditions the book explores how theories history and theologies shape the discipline bioethical decision making and the perspective of the nurse or patient who embraces a particular religion It examines the commonalities between the values and thinking of nursing and religion and identifies basic domains in which additional research is necessary The authors believe that ultimately scholarly dialogue on the relationship between religion and nursing will foster and enhance nursing practice that is ethical and respectful of personal values Key Features Offers in depth analysis of how religion influences the discipline of nursing its practitioners and treatment outcomes Uses critical theories to explore the intersections of religion ethics culture health gender power and health policy Includes an overview of all major world religions Focuses on the implications of religion for nursing practice rather than nursing interventions Designed for graduate and upper level undergraduate students nurse academicians and clinicians
