Situating the Subject in Film Theory Veijo Hietala,1990      Situating the Subject in Film Theory ,1990      Situating Mallarmé David P. Kinloch,Gordon Millan,2000 Since his death just over a century ago Stéphane Mallarmé has become a major figure in world literature Over this period Mallarmé criticism has tended to concentrate on two aspects of his work Firstly on textual analysis in order to tackle the difficulty of his writing and secondly thanks to the interest shown in him by figures such as Barthes Derrida Kristeva and Lacan on his theoretical writings Indeed this particular part of his oeuvre has somewhat dominated Mallarmé studies in the last thirty years This book adopts a new approach by attempting to contextualise Mallarmé's creative writing in terms of his relationships with other art forms other writers and indeed other cultures At the same time one of his own key obsessions with death is also reassessed as is his relationship to the society of his time Mallarmé's ambitious project was to exploit the potential of dance music and painting as well as poetry in order to produce an artistic monument for the modern post industrial age Experts from all of these fields have therefore combined with literary specialists in order to adopt an interdisciplinary and comparative approach to Mallarmé's work which marks a bold and exciting new departure in Mallarmé studies

Sonic Interventions Sylvia Mieszkowski,Joy Smith,Marijke de Valck,2015-07-14 Sonic Interventions makes a compelling case for the importance of sound in theorizing literature subjectivity and culture Sound is usually understood as our second sense and as our belief in a visually dominated culture prevails remains of secondary interest Western cultures are considered to be predominantly visual while other societies are thought to place more importance on the acoustic dimension This volume questions these assumptions by examining how sound differs from and acts in relationship to the visual It moves beyond theoretical dichotomies between the visual and the sonic the oral and literature and instead investigates sonic interventions in their often multi faceted forms The case studies deal with political appropriations of music and sounds they explore the poetic use of the sonic in novels and plays they develop theoretical concepts out of sonic phenomena and pertain to identity formation and the practice of mixing in hip hop opera and dancehall sessions Ultimately the book brings to the fore what roles sound may play for the formation of gendered identity for the stabilization or questioning of race as a social category and the conception of place Their intricate interventions beckon critical attention and offer rich material for cultural analysis

The Consolation of Boethius as Poetic Liturgy Stephen Blackwood, 2015 Throughout Antiquity and the Middle Ages literature was read with the ear as much as with the eye silent reading was the exception audible reading the norm This highly original book shows that Boethius's Consolation of Philosophy one of the most widely read texts in Western history aims to affect the listener through the designs of its rhythmic sound Stephen Blackwood argues that the Consolation's metres are arranged in patterns that have a therapeutic and liturgical purpose as a bodily mediation of the text's consolation these rhythmic patterns enable the listener to discern the eternal in the motion of time The Consolation of Boethius as Poetic Liturgy vividly explores how in this acoustic encounter with the text philosophy becomes a lived reality and reading a kind of prayer
