Catalogue ... Montgomery Ward, 1929 The Connoisseur, 1914 On, Off Colleen McCullough, 2013-12-03 A searing scientific murder mystery packed with heartpounding twists It is 1965 and in Holloman Connecticut someone is preying on the innocent At a prestigious research centre for the neurosciences fondly known by its staff as the Hug parts of a mutilated body are discovered Very soon Lieutenant Carmine Delmonico of the Holloman Police learns that a string of horrifying murders each fitting the same modus operandi as the body found at the Hug has been occurring throughout the state Then another body is found and the medical staff become prime suspects With the Center s hierarchies of power in turmoil and every member of its staff hiding something Delmonico delves into the lives and pasts of each and every employee It is the case of his career and he is determined to solve it But how do you find a monster who leaves no clues and is always two steps ahead Colleen McCullough artfully maintains the suspense and holds back the truth until the last page where she presents the reader with one final terrifying and unexpected twist On Off is a classic murder mystery written with all the flair and skill that have made Colleen McCullough one of the most popular novelists of her time Scientific American, 1913 Monthly magazine devoted to topics of general scientific interest American Illustrated Magazine, 1924 The Furniture of Our Forefathers Esther Singleton, 1901 Micro-geographies of the Western City, c.1750-1900 Alida Clemente, Dag Lindström, Jon Stobart, 2020-12-29 This book examines the overlapping spaces in modern Western cities to explore the small scale processes that shaped these cities between c 1750 and 1900 It highlights the ways in which time and space matter framing individual actions and practices and their impact on larger urban processes It draws on the original and detailed studies of cities in Europe and North America through a micro geographical approach to unravel urban practices experiences and representations at three different scales the dwelling the street and the neighbourhood Part I explores the changing spatiality of housing examining the complex and contingent relationship between public and private and commercial and domestic as well as the relationship between representations and lived experiences Part II delves into the street as a thoroughfare connecting the city but also as a site of contestation over the control and character of urban spaces Part III draws attention to the neighbourhood as a residential grouping and as a series of spaces connecting flows of people integrating the urban space Drawing on a range of methodologies from space syntax and axial analysis to detailed descriptions of individual buildings this book blends spatial theory and ideas of place with micro history With its fresh perspectives on the Western city created through the built environment and the everyday actions of city dwellers the book will interest historical geographers urban historians and architects involved in planning of cities across Europe and North America The Last Refuge Peter Townsend, 2023-07-14 First published in 1964 The Last Refuge originated from the author s visit to a Victorian workhouse which had become an Institution for old people A visit that was to show frightful overcrowding in sparsely furnished dormitories Day rooms bleak and uninviting in which sat watery eyed and feeble men their spirit and pride drained away by the hopelessness of the surroundings The many unexpected conditions Professor Townsend found led him to undertake this major enquiry into the question Are communal homes for the aged necessary in our community and if so what form should they take Visits were paid to a random sample of 173 residential institutions and homes and welfare officers matrons and elderly residents were interviewed The general conclusion was that communal homes of the kind that existed in England and Wales did not adequately meet the physical psychological and social needs of the old people living in them and required immediate alternative services and living arrangements This book will be of interest to students of sociology social care public policy and gerontology Golden Jubilee Edition of The Paradise of Childhood Edward Wiebé,1910 Good Furniture ,1920 Chemistry and Physics in Connection with Agriculture Chemistry,Practical farmer,1849 House & Garden ,1909 In Re Bradtke ,1939 The Saturday Evening Post ,1913 Electric Railway Journal ,1909 Railway Signal ,1903 1897 Sears, Roebuck & Co. Catalogue Sears, Roebuck and Company,2007-09-17 A dazzling trove for students of Americana Time Culture and Comfort Katherine Grier,2013-09-03 In Culture and Comfort Katherine C Grier shows how the design and furnishings of the mid nineteenth century parlor reflected the self image of the Victorian middle class Parlors provided public facades for formal occasions and represented an attempt to resolve the often opposing ideals of gentility and sincerity to which American culture aspired The book traces the fortunes of the parlor and its upholstery from its early incarnations in palace hotels railroad cars steamships and photographers studios through its mid century heyday when even remote frontier homes could boast suites of red plush sofas and chairs to its slow uneven metamorphosis into the more versatile living room The author argues that even as the home increasingly was seen as a haven from industrialization and commercialization its ties to industry and commerce in the form of more affordable machine made furniture and drapery became stronger By the 1920s the parlor s decline signaled both a blurring of the Victorian distinctions between public and private manners and the transfer of middle class identity from the home to the automobile Describing the deportment a parlor required the activities it sheltered and the marketing and manufacturing breakthroughs that made it available to all Culture and Comfort reveals the full range of cultural messages conveyed by nineteenth century parlor materials
