Social Forces In The Middle East:

Social Forces in the Middle East Sydney Nettleton Fisher, 1965 Social Forces in the Middle East Sydney Nettleton Fisher, 1977 Social Forces in the Middle East Social Science Research Council (U.S.). Committee on the Near and Middle East, 1968 Social Forces in the Middle East. Edited by Sydney Nettleton Fisher. [Papers Presented at a Conference Held at Princeton, New Jersey, on October 24-25, 1952. With Maps.] Social Science Research Council (U.S.). Committee on the Near and Middle East, 1955 Social Forces in the Middle East Social Science Research Council (United States), 1968 Regional Security in the Middle East , State Power and Social Forces Joel Samuel Migdal, Atul Kohli, Vivienne Shue, 1994-08-26 This eminently readable 1994 collection of high quality country specific essays on Third World politics provides through a variety of well integrated themes and approaches an examination of state theory as it has been practised in the past and how it must be refined for the future The contributors go beyond the previously articulated bringing the state back in model to offer their own state in society approach They argue that states which should be disaggregated for meaningful comparative study are best analysed as parts of societies States may help mould but are also continually moulded by the societies within which they are embedded States capacities further will vary depending on their ties to other social forces And other social forces will be capable of being mobilised into political contention only under certain conditions Political contention pitting states against other social forces may sometimes be mutually enfeebling but at other times mutually empowering Ethnicity, Pluralism, and the State in the Middle East Milton J. Esman, Itamar Rabinovich, 2019-05-15 A timely and innovative discussion of the role that ethnicity plays in contemporary Middle Eastern affairs Ethnicity Pluralism and the State in the Middle East is the first systematic exploration of this important dimension in the social life statecraft politics and international relations in the region Regional Security in the Middle East Pinar Bilgin, 2004-09-09 This is an accessible yet critical analysis of regional security in the Middle East Using a non realist approach Bilgin provides a comprehensive study of the past present and future of security in the region She also considers the question of identity formation explaining how and why various regional representations came into being and explor

Social Forces and the Revolution in Military Affairs J. Rochlin, 2007-12-25 This book applies Revolution in Military Affairs theories to explain the various strategic victories and losses for assorted social forces in Colombia and Mexico These countries form the ideal comparative case study of RMA both from above by the state and below by civil society

Routledge Handbook of Minorities in the Middle East Paul S Rowe, 2018-09-20 The Routledge Handbook of Minorities in the Middle East gathers a diverse team of international scholars each of whom provides unique expertise into the status and prospects of minority populations in the region The dramatic events of the past decade from the Arab Spring protests to the rise of the Islamic state have brought the status of these populations onto centre stage The overturn of various long term autocratic governments in states such as Tunisia Egypt Libya and Yemen and the ongoing threat to government stability in

Syria Iraq and Lebanon have all contributed to a new assertion of majoritarian politics amid demands for democratization and regime change In the midst of the dramatic changes and latent armed conflict minority populations have been targeted marginalized and victimized Calls for social and political change have led many to contemplate the ways in which citizenship and governance may be changed to accommodate minorities or indeed if such change is possible At a time when the survival of minority populations and the utility of the label minority has been challenged this handbook answers the following set of research questions What are the unique challenges of minority populations in the Middle East How do minority populations integrate into their host societies both as a function of their own internal choices and as a response to majoritarian consensus on their status Finally given their inherent challenges and the vast sweeping changes that have taken place in the region over the past decade what is the future of these minority populations What impact have minority populations had on their societies and to what extent will they remain prominent actors in their respective settings This handbook presents leading edge research on a wide variety of religious ethnic and other minority populations By reclaiming the notion of minorities in Middle Eastern settings we seek to highlight the agency of minority communities in defining their past present and future

Social stratification and the Middle East C. A. O. van Nieuwenhuijze, 2023-11-27 Social Forces in the Middle East Sydney N. Fisher, 1955 The Sources of Social Power: Volume 4, Globalizations, 1945-2011 Michael Mann, 2012-12-28 Distinguishing four sources of power ideological economic military and political this series traces their interrelations throughout human history This fourth volume covers the period from 1945 to the present focusing on the three major pillars of post war global order capitalism the nation state system and the sole remaining empire of the world the United States In the course of this period capitalism nation states and empires interacted with one another and were transformed Mann s key argument is that globalization is not just a single process because there are globalizations of all four sources of social power each of which has a different rhythm of development Topics include the rise and beginnings of decline of the American Empire the fall or transformation of communism respectively the Soviet Union and China the shift from neo Keynesianism to neoliberalism and the three great crises emerging in this period nuclear weapons the great recession and climate change The Sources of Social Power: Volume 1, A History of Power from the Beginning to AD 1760 Michael Mann, 2012-09-17 Volume 1 examines interrelations between sources of power from neolithic times up to just before the Industrial Revolution in England Social Power in International Politics Peter van Ham, 2010-04-05 This text introduces and defines the concept of social power and examines how it works in international politics Including perspectives from the EU the US Middle East and China it features a range of case studies on culture and pop culture media public diplomacy and branding The New Authoritarianism in the Middle East and North Africa Stephen J. King, 2009-10-28 Stephen J King considers the reasons that international and domestic efforts toward democratization have failed to take hold in the Arab world Focusing on Egypt Tunisia Syria and Algeria he suggests that a complex set of variables characterizes authoritarian rule and helps to explain both its dynamism and its persistence King addresses but moves beyond how religion and the strongly patriarchal culture influence state structure policy configuration ruling coalitions and legitimization and privatization strategies He shows how the transformation of authoritarianism has taken place amid shifting social relations and political institutions and how these changes have affected the lives of millions Ultimately King s forward thinking analysis offers a way to enhance the prospects for democracy in the Middle East and North Africa

Social Power and the Turkish State Tim Jacoby, 2004-08-02 This book focuses on the historical sociology of the Turkish state seeking to compare the development of the Ottoman Turkish state with similar processes of large scale historical change in Europe identified by Michael Mann in The Sources of Social Power Jacoby traces the contours of Turkey s modernisation with the intention of formulating a fresh way to approach state development in countries on the global economic periphery particularly those attempting to effect closer ties with northern markets It also highlights matters of social change pertinent to states grappling with issues relating to political Islam minority identity and irredentist dissent

Social Policy in the Middle East and North Africa Rana Jawad, Nicola Jones, Mahmood Messkoub, 2019 This book presents a state of the art in the developing field of social policy in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region It offers an up to date conceptual analysis of social policy programmes and discourses in the MENA region by critically reviewing the range of social insurance and social assistance schemes that are currently in existence there It also analyses and offers suggestions on which of these policies can positively impact the region s advancement in terms of human development and in addressing social and economic inequalities and exclusion

South Korea's Middle Power Diplomacy in the Middle East Hae Won Jeong, 2022-02-24 This book examines theoretical and empirical approaches to the study of middle powers with reference to South Korea s bilateral relations with Iran Saudi Arabia United Arab Emirates and Iraq It maps the development political and diplomatic trajectories between South Korea and Iran Saudi Arabia United Arab Emirates and Iraq against the historical backdrop of ROK US alliance and the rise of China Jeong provides a nuanced analysis of the intersectionality of political economy and foreign policy analysis contextualizing state building processes in ROK and the Middle Eastern countries This accessible book is intended for students and scholars in area studies and international affairs career diplomats and South Korean businesses in the Middle East It should also prove of practical value for journalists and policy makers who are interested in studying the nexus of domestic regional and international factors that have configured South Korea s Middle East policy
