This book presents an interdisciplinary approach to the study of affectivity and human learning by bridging the gap between neuroscience cultural and cognitive psychology It brings together studies that go beyond the focus on cognitive intellectual variables involved in learning processes and incorporate the study of the role played by affectivity and emotions in learning not only at educational settings but in all processes of transformation and human development thus presenting affectivity as a catalyst and mediator of all daily learning processes Chapters brought together in this contributed volume present both theoretical contributions and results of empirical research from different disciplines such as neuroscience cognitive psychology cultural psychology educational psychology developmental psychology and philosophy and are grouped into five thematic sections The first part of the book brings together chapters discussing different aspects of the role played by affectivity in learning processes from the perspectives of cultural educational and developmental psychology The second part is dedicated to the role of affectivity for teachers during their training as educators and during their pedagogical practice in diverse contexts The third part focuses on the relationship between affectivity and learning from a neuroscientific point of view The fourth part discusses affectivity and learning in therapeutic and clinical contexts Finally the fifth part brings together chapters about affectivity and learning in everyday life By bringing together this rich interdisciplinary collection of studies Affectivity and Learning Bridging the Gap Between Neurosciences Cultural and Cognitive Psychology will be a valuable resource for researchers in the fields of psychology neuroscience and education as well as for educators and teachers interested in knowing more about the relationship between affectivity and human learning Infrastructure

Provision and the Negotiating Process Frank Ennis,2017-03-02 The provision of infrastructure for urban developments is increasingly becoming a highly contentious and important issue in planning negotiations By drawing together a range of case studies from North America Australia and Europe this book compares how a number of planning systems deal with this issue There is a general trend by planning agencies towards the securing of infrastructure from the private sector This necessitates a negotiation process between planning agencies developers and infrastructure providers and this volume shows how this process varies according to the political context the nature of the planning system and the existence of other frameworks such as Environmental Impact Assessment By doing so the collection presents an original perspective on both the negotiation process in planning and on how infrastructure should be provided African Democracy Thompson, Gardner,2016-04-17 The concepts of democracy and good governance have been at the centre of criticism of governments all over the world What democracy entails however has never been agreed most notably on the African continent African politicians who have been criticised for reigning over undemocratic regimes have insisted that the West judges them by criteria that don't apply to African circumstances Is there such a thing as African democracy Informed and intrigued by two events that happened in different eras in different countries Gardner Thompson has written an in depth historical examination of the nature of imported democracy as practised in the East African countries of Uganda where he worked as a young History teacher in the 70s Kenya and Tanzania The events were the 1971 Amin capture of power from Milton Obote in Uganda and the post election violence that rocked Kenya in 2007 2008 pitting then incumbent Mwai Kibaki against his erstwhile colleague Raila Odinga along what many read to be tribal lines Dividing the book into three sections Thompson treats democracy in the three former colonies from the perspectives of pre independence colonialism the transition to independence and governance since independence Reflecting indigenous history the colonial past and evolving culture flawed but functioning forms of government have emerged in the three states

Crashed Adam Tooze,2018-08-07 WINNER OF THE LIONEL GELBER PRIZE A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK OF 2018 ONE OF THE ECONOMIST S BOOKS OF THE YEAR A NEW YORK TIMES CRITICS TOP BOOK An intelligent explanation of the mechanisms that produced the crisis and the response to it One of the great strengths of Tooze s book is to demonstrate the deeply intertwined nature of the European and American financial systems The New York Times Book Review From the prizewinning economic historian and author of Shutdown and The Deluge an eye opening reinterpretation of the 2008 economic crisis and its ten year aftermath as a global event that directly led to the shockwaves being felt around the world today We live in a world where dramatic shifts in the domestic and global economy command the headlines from rollbacks in US banking regulations to tariffs that may ignite international trade wars But current events have deep roots and the key to navigating today s roiling policies lies in the events that started it all the 2008 economic crisis and its aftermath Despite initial attempts to downplay the crisis as a local incident what happened on Wall Street beginning in 2008 was in fact a dramatic caesura of global significance that spiraled around the world from the financial markets of the UK and Europe to the factories and dockyards of Asia the Middle East and Latin America forcing a rearrangement of global governance With a historian s eye for detail connection and consequence Adam Tooze brings the story right up to today s negotiations actions and threats a much needed perspective on a global catastrophe and its long term consequences
