Peruvian revival brought the forgotten music and dances of Peru's African musical heritage to Lima's theatrical stages. The revival conjured newly imagined links to the past in order to celebrate and to some extent recreate Black culture in Peru. In this groundbreaking study of the Afro-Peruvian revival and its aftermath, Heidi Carolyn Feldman reveals how Afro-Peruvian artists remapped blackness from the perspective of the Black Pacific, a marginalized group of African diasporic communities along Latin America's Pacific coast. Feldman's ethnography of remembering traces the memory projects of charismatic Afro-Peruvian revival artists and companies, including Jos Durand Nicomedes and Victoria Santa Cruz and Per Negro, culminating with Susana Baca's entry onto the global world music stage in the 1990s. Readers will learn how Afro-Peruvian music and dance genres, although recreated in the revival to symbolize the ancient and forgotten past, express competing modern beliefs regarding what constitutes Black Rhythms of Peru.

Phenomenology, New Materialism, and Advances In the Pulsatile Imaginary Nicoletta Isar, 2024-03-12

Phenomenology, New Materialism, and Advances In the Pulsatile Imaginary Rites Of Disimagination brings together scholars from art history and image theory, literary studies, and philosophy. Chapters of this volume engage with the overarching theme of imagination as a pulsatile force embedded in words, images, and all imaginative modes of instantiation of the work of art in their elemental aspects expressed in visual arts and literature, as well as bodily schemata of choreographic and musical performances. The papers employ contrasting and complementing methods from literary studies and image theory, especially phenomenology and new materialism, such as G. Bachelard and M. Merleau-Ponty, G. Bataille, J. Kristeva, P. Lacoue-Labarthe, and J. Sallis, G. Didi-Huberman, H. Belting, and A. Warburg, J. Bennett, and Jason M. Wirth, as well as performance studies. Chapters in this volume inquire into the imaginative forces that disrupt and disinherit the traditional habits of imagination to create pulsatile imaginaries, i.e., a dynamic process of emergence, resurgence of image manifested in the act of creation and in perception. This process does not properly imply a destruction of image but rather a withdrawal of image from the realm of representation to give way to new images and new imaginative experiences. The newly coined term rite of disimagination points out to this operation, consecutively implying imagining and disimagining that both denies as well as validates image; it valorizes matter. The affirmation of the materiality of image is the re-incarnation of image.

Musical Style and Social Meaning Derek B. Scott, 2017-07-05

Why do we feel justified in using adjectives such as romantic, erotic, heroic, melancholic, and a hundred others when speaking about music? How do we locate these meanings within particular musical styles? These are questions that have occupied Derek Scott's thoughts and driven his critical musicological research for many years. In this selection of essays dating from 1995 to 2010, he returns time and again to examining how conventions of representation arise and how they become established. Among the themes of the collection are social class, ideology, national identity, imperialism, Orientalism, race, the sacred and profane, modernity, and postmodernity and the vexed relationship of art and entertainment A wide variety of musical styles is discussed ranging from jazz and popular song to the symphonic repertoire and opera
