Social Discredit:

A Company's Right to Damages for Non-Pecuniary Loss Vanessa Wilcox, 2016-09 This detailed examination explores the extent to which non pecuniary damages can properly be awarded to companies Social Discredit Janine Stingel, 2000-02-24 By examining Social Credit s anti Semitic propaganda and the reaction of the Canadian Jewish Congress Stingel details their mutual antagonism and explores why Congress was unable to stop Social Credit s blatant defamation She argues that Congress s ineffective response was part of a broader problem in which passivity and a belief in quiet diplomacy undermined many of its efforts to combat intolerance Stingel shows that both Social Credit and Congress changed considerably in the post war period as Social Credit abandoned its anti Semitic trappings and Congress gradually adopted an assertive and pugnacious public relations philosophy that made it a champion of human rights in Canada Social Discredit offers a fresh perspective on both the Social Credit movement and the Canadian Jewish Congress substantively revising Social Credit historiography and providing a valuable addition to Canadian Jewish studies The Making of a Left-Behind Class Fred Powell, Margaret Scanlon, Pat Leahy, Hilary Jenkinson, Olive Byrne, 2024-03-04 Despite the high aspirations of young people from disadvantaged communities they face barriers that are frustrating the realisation of their educational ambitions This book analyses the left behind phenomenon and explains how denied educational equality undermines social cohesion and what we can do about it Canadian Multiculturalism and the Far Right Bàrbara Molas, 2022-08-22 Canadian Multiculturalism and the Far Right examines a neglected aspect of the history of 20th century Canadian multiculturalism and the far right to illuminate the ideological foundations of the concept of third force Focusing on the particular thought of ultra conservative Ukrainian Canadian Walter J Bossy during his time in Montreal 1931 1970s this book demonstrates that the idea that Canada was composed of three equally important groups emerged from a context defined by reactionary ideas on ethnic diversity and integration Two broad questions shape this research first what the meaning originally attached to the idea of a third force was and what the intentions behind the conceptualization of a trichotomic Canada were and second whether Bossy s understanding of the third force precedes or is related in any way to postwar debates on liberal multiculturalism at the core of which was the existence of a third force This book will be of interest to students and researchers of multiculturalism radical right ideology and the far right and Canadian history and politics The North-Western Provinces of India William Crooke, 1897 A History of Antisemitism in Canada Ira Robinson, 2015-10-16 This state of the art account gives readers the tools to understand why antisemitism is such a controversial subject It acquaints readers with the ambiguities inherent in the historical relationship between Jews and Christians and shows these ambiguities in play in the unfolding relationship between Jews and Canadians of other religions and ethnicities It examines present relationships in light of history and considers particularly the influence of antisemitism on the social religious and political history of the Canadian Jewish community A History of Antisemitism in Canada builds on the foundation of numerous studies on antisemitism in general and on antisemitism in Canada in particular as well as on the growing body of scholarship in Canadian Jewish studies It attempts to understand the impact of antisemitism on Canada as a whole and is the first comprehensive account of antisemitism and its effect on the Jewish community of Canada The book will be valuable to students and scholars not only of Canadian Jewish studies and Canadian ethnic studies but of Canadian history

Alberta Premiers of the Twentieth Century University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center,2004 From the optimism associated with provincial status in 1905 through the trials of Depression and war the boom times of the post war period and the economic vagaries of the 1980s and the 1990s the twentieth century was a time of growth and hardship development and change for Alberta and its people And during the century twelve men from a variety of political parties and from very different backgrounds led the government of this province The names of some like William Aberhart Ernest Manning and Peter Lougheed are still household names while others like Arthur Sifton Herbert Greenfield and Richard Reid have been all but forgotten Yet each in his unique way for better or for worse helped to mould and steer the destiny of the province he governed These are their stories

The Regulation of Sex Robots Carlotta

Rigotti,2025-06-13 This book proposes a framework for regulating sex robots human like machines designed to engage emotionally and sexually with users through customisable often AI powered features Although they occupy a niche in the adult entertainment and technology industries sex robots raise complex issues that extend beyond current debates To date sex robots are frequently portrayed either as tools for societal liberalisation and remedies for sexual inequalities or as mediums for sexual commodification and personal degradation These conflicting perspectives echo longstanding feminist debates which often lead to polarisation and normative deadlock overlooking the lived experiences of individuals beyond binary and heteronormative frameworks The evolving legal landscape further complicates these issues Regulatory bodies such as the European Union struggle to keep pace with emerging technologies and human machine interactions Their tendency to evaluate innovations as products with hypothetical risks through a detached top down approach fails to address the intersectional dynamics of privilege and oppression This book enriches the conversation by moving beyond binary narratives of emancipation and oppression It challenges the socio legal construction of gender and sexuality critiques regulatory inertia and morality policing and advocates for nuanced context aware regulation of sex robots It will appeal to researchers in socio legal studies law and technology gender and law as well as those in sociology and gender studies offering critical insights into the regulation of gendered and sexualised technologies and their broader societal implications

The Prairie Agrarian Movement Revisited Kenneth Murray Knuttila, 2007 The formation of the Territorial Grain Growers Association in 1901 was not the only important event in the early history of what has come to be known broadly as the agrarian movement in the Canadian prairies but it was a defining moment in some respects Arguably it signalled the formation of an agrarian class but at least it was an indicator of an awakening of a democratic consciousness among family farmers Ultimately the Association provided a venue for analysis and critique the development of strategies and tactics and of course the nurturing of leadership and organizational forms that would have a profound influence upon politics and the state in the three prairie provinces and the Dominion as well as the creation of co operatives and other forms of direct action These eighteen essays honouring the 100th anniversary in 2001 of the formation of the TGGGA explore important aspects of the historical legacy of the agrarian movement and contemplate their relevance to the current setting for the rural prairies
