Social Movements Social Change The Politics And Practice Of Organizing:

Social Movements/social Change Frank Cunningham, Society for Socialist Studies, 1988 Praxis and Politics Janet M. Conway, 2013-10-14 Praxis and Politics explores the knowledge arising from activist praxis and its significance for reimagining radical and democratic politics It is based on five years of direct involvement in the Toronto based Metro Network for Social Justice and their work in coalition building campaign organizing and economic and political literacy work in the aftermath of the signing of the Canada US Free Trade Agreement The book breaks new theoretical and methodological ground in social movement studies in drawing on a wide range of traditions including cultural studies urban studies political economy and feminism Race, Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond Genevieve Fuji Johnson, Randy Enomoto, 2007-06-23 This multidisciplinary volume brings together scholars and activists to examine expressions of racism in contemporary policy areas including education labour immigration media and urban planning While anti racist struggles during the twentieth century were largely pitched against overt forms of racism e g pogroms genocide segregation apartheid and ethnic cleansing it has become increasingly apparent that there are other less visible forms of racism These subtler incarnations are of special interest to the contributors The intent of Race Racialization and Antiracism in Canada and Beyond is to probe systemic forms of racism as well as to suggest strategies for addressing them The collection is organized by themes pertinent to political and social expressions of racism in Canada and the wider world such as the state and its mediation of race education and the perpetuation of racist marginalization and the role of the media The contributors argue that in order to effectively combat racism various methodological approaches are required approaches that are reflective of the diversity of the world we seek to understand Identity Politics in the Women's Movement Barbara Ryan, 2001-08 An essential collection that constructs the arguments of similarity and difference dividing and uniting women In recent years identity has come to be seen as a process rather than a fact or deterministic force Yet recognizable identity traits continue to draw people together and provide them with a sense of empowering commonality Although the plasticity afforded identity has freed up rigid definitions and guidelines for affiliation some believe that nebulous demarcations of identity may deprive women of a solid position from which to effectively contest centers of power Bringing together articles by well known authors and theorists such as Audre Lourde June Jordan Daphne Patai Barbara Smith Marilyn Frye Shane Phelan Leila J Rupp Hazel Carby and Adrienne Rich with lesser known writers and scholars this broad based anthology ranges widely from personal narratives to empirical research The book unpacks issues of race class gender ethnicity sexuality disability and age contributing a m lange of sharp lively perspectives to current debate In a postmodern era of feminism how do women come to identify organize and mobilize themselves within a complex global network of relationships Identity Politics in the Women s Movement offers critical examination of the inescapable role of identity in academic and activist feminism and the opportunities challenges and conflicts identity politics pose The Oxford Handbook of Organizational Change and

Innovation Marshall Scott Poole, Andrew H. Van de Ven, 2021 Why and what organizations change is generally well known how organizations change is therefore the central focus of this Handbook Leading scholars focus on processes of change and the factors that influence these processes with the organization as the central unit of analysis A Theology of Community Organizing Chris Shannahan, 2013-11-12 The rising importance of community organizing in the US and more recently in Britain has coincided with the developing significance of social movements and identity politics debates about citizenship social capital civil society and religion in the public sphere At a time when participation in formal political process and membership of faith groups have both declined dramatically community organizing has provided a new opportunity for small community groups marginalized urban communities and people of faith to engage in effective political action through the developments of inter faith and cross cultural coalitions of groups In spite of its renewed popularity little critical attention has been paid to community organizing This book places community organizing within debates about the role of religion in the public sphere and the rise of public theology in recent years The book explores the history methodology and achievements of community organizing engaging in a series of conversations with key community organizers in the US and Britain This volume breaks new ground by beginning to articulate a cross cultural and inter faith Theology for Community Organizing that arises from fresh readings of Liberation Theology Handbook of Social Movements Across Disciplines Conny Roggeband, Bert Klandermans, 2017-07-31 This book aims to revisit the interdisciplinary roots of social movement studies Each discipline raises its own questions and approaches the subject from a different angle or perspective The chapters of this handbook are written by internationally renowned scholars representing the various disciplines involved They each review the approach their sector has developed and discuss their disciplines contributions and insights to the knowledge of social movements Furthermore each chapter addresses the unanswered questions and discusses the overlaps with other fields as well as reviewing the interdisciplinary advances so far Social Work in the 21st Century Michael Reisch, Eileen Gambrill, 1997-02-05 I am enthusiastic about this publication it is an excellent manuscript well conceived well written and the contributors all appear to be very well qualified Philip Popple Western Michigan University This book will be helpful to you in teaching policy practice or introductory social work courses at the BSW or MSW level if you want to Generate stimulating discussion and debate among your students on how social work's roles are changing now and may change further in the future Expose your students to the thoughts and opinions of many of today's leaders in social work education in essays specially written for this volume Making Democracy Matter Karen Brodtkin, 2007 What makes a social movement a movement Where do the contagious energy vision and sense of infinite possibility come from And what are the visions and practices of democracy that foster such transformations This book seeks to answer these questions through conversations and interviews with a generation of activists who came of political age in Los Angeles during the 1990s Combining analytical depth engaging oral history and rich description this absorbing and accessible book will appeal to all
