Social Suffering in the Neoliberal Age Karen Soldatic,Louise St Guillaume,2022-04-27 This book provides a rich synthesis of research and theory of nascent and emergent critically engaged work examining changing welfare structures regimes and technologies and the social suffering that is generated in everyday lives By rigorously examining social security restructuring with the turn to austerity governance and its daily practices of managing regulating and subordinating individuals peoples and communities this collection delineates the machinery of state power and logics designed to manage contain and control the lives of some of the most poorest and marginalised citizens who are reliant on social welfare income payments A core strength of the book is first its unpacking of austerity governance across diverse communities and second the elevation of community resistance and mobilisation against the very measures of austerity Combined the work maps out the logics of state power and everyday practices of embedded contestation and confrontation Using the case study of Australia to discuss sociolegal recategorisations automation of welfare governance technologies of policy design and delivery conditionality and systems of penalisation this book will be of interest to all scholars and students of sociology critical theory social policy social work and disability studies Indigenous studies and settler colonialism Aging A-Z Carroll L. Estes, with Nicholas B. DiCarlo, 2019-04-10 This provocative intellectually charged treatise serves as a concise introduction to emancipatory gerontology examining multiple dimensions of persistent and hotly debated topics around aging the life course the roles of power politics and partisanship culture economics and communications Critical perspectives are presented as definitions for reader understanding with links to concepts of identity knowledge construction social networks social movements and inequalities With today's intensifying concentration of wealth and corporatization precarity is the fate for growing numbers of the world's population Intersectionality as an analytic concept offers a new appreciation of how social advantage and disadvantage accumulate and how constructions of race ethnicity class ability and gender influence aging The book's entries offer a bibliographic compendium crediting the salience of early pioneering theorists and locating these within the cutting edge of research social behavioral policy and gene environment sciences that currently advances our understandings of human development trauma and resilience Accompanying these foundations are theories of resistance for advancing human rights and the dignity of marginalized populations Late-Life Homelessness Amanda Grenier, 2022-01-15 Around the world and across a range of contexts homelessness among older people is on the rise In spite of growing media attention and new academic research on the issue older people often remain unrecognized as a subpopulation in public policy programs and homeless strategies As such they occupy a paradoxical position of being hypervisible while remaining overlooked Late Life Homelessness is the first Canadian book to address this often neglected issue Basing her analysis on a four year ethnographic study of late life homelessness in Montreal Canada Amanda Grenier uses a critical gerontological perspective to explore life at the intersection of aging and homelessness She draws attention to disadvantage over time and how the condition of being unhoused disrupts a person's ability to age in place resulting in experiences of unequal aging Weaving together findings from policy documents stakeholder insights and observations and interviews with older people this book demonstrates how structures organizational practices and relationships related to homelessness and aging come to shape late life Situated in the context of an aging population rising inequality and declining social commitments Late Life Homelessness stresses the moral imperative of responding justly to the needs of older people as a means of mitigating the unequal aging of unhoused elders Environmental Gerontology Graham D. Rowles, PhD, Miriam Bernard, PhD, 2013 This book addresses issues on both sides of the Atlantic examines the theoretical underpinnings of environmental gerontology and provides useful practical applications and guiding principles Recommended Choice Current Reviews for Academic Libraries The environments in which people live out their later lives have a strong
