Socioeconomic Status Living Arrangements Of Older Persons In Latvia:

Socio-economic Status and Living Arrangements of Older Persons in Latvia Pēteris Zvidriņš, 2003 This is one of a series of UNECE country studies which examines the living arrangements and the socio economic status of older persons in Latvia Chapters look at the general demographic and socio economic context living arrangements of older people and characteristics of social care institutions employment and retirement issues including pensions policy housing conditions and sources of income

Socio-economic Status and Living Arrangements of Older Persons in Switzerland Myriam Bongard, Claudine Sauvain-Dugerdil, 2002 Population ageing is now widely recognised as a major feature of demographic trends in the countries of Europe and North America This report begins with a broad presentation of the demographic trends and socio economic context in Switzerland Of a population of 7.1 million in 1997 nearly a million are over 65 An examination of family demography as shown by living arrangements finds a great increase in the number of small households illustrating decreased family size increased life expectancy and a growing divorce rate Trends in age at retirement economic activity after 60 and the prospects for the pension scheme are considered The well being of older people and the challenge for the health system in dealing with the growing number of the elderly complete this survey

Index to International Statistics, 2007

Promoting Healthy Aging Across the Lifespan Elena Carrillo-Alvarez, Miriam Rodriguez-Monforte, Jordi Vilaró, Katherine Simone McGilton, 2024-12-26 Worldwide there is a generalized trend toward aged societies Between 2015 and 2050 the proportion of the world's population over 60 years will nearly double from 12% to 22% As life expectancy continues to increase and natality rates lower not only the composition of countries will change but also its health landscape However an increased life expectancy does not necessarily mean a healthy life In most high income countries more than 20% of those years are lived in ill health due to chronic conditions caused by non communicable diseases which compromises functional ability and well being key components of healthy aging In this way not only people's lives but also societal structures are being affected Based on the life course approach to healthy aging aging starts from conception In this regard the promotion of healthy aging requires preventive strategies that enhance capacities during growth and development maintain them for as long as possible after maturity and slow down their rate of decline Moreover considering healthy aging across the lifespan entails focusing on different factors life opportunities and choices that might significantly influence health status lifestyle as well as health and social inequalities in older age and challenges the focus of most research on the topic which exclusively investigates the effect of influences operating in the later stages of life

Old Age In Europe Kathrin Komp, Marja Aartsen, 2013-01-24 Europe currently is the oldest continent in the world and its population is still ageing This demographic shift affects society economy and welfare states Scholars from various disciplines and the public noted this development and wonder what effects it may have but lack adequate information They call for explanations that are concise and easily accessible The book at hand fills this lacuna It introduces readers to the most important developments theories concepts and discussions in ageing studies always keeping an eye on the current situation in Europe Each chapter adopts the perspective of a different discipline e g public health sociology economics or technology To make the explanations easy to understand the book includes learning tools such as learning objectives multiple choice questions and a glossary Living Arrangements of Older Persons in Canada Jacques Légaré, United Nations.
