Sociology And Human Destiny Essays On Sociology Religion And Society:

Sociology and Human Destiny Gregory Baum, 1980 A Crossroad book Includes bibliographical references Catholic Moral Theology and Social Ethics Christina Astorga, 2013-12-01 Proposing a new method for moral theology Christina Astorga seeks to recast our understanding of the discipline by drawing from the faith vision of the entire theological enterprise including scripture dogmatic theology social ethics and spirituality Ernst Krenek and the Politics of Musical Style Peter Tregear, 2013-07-05 Ernst Krenek has been described as a one man history of twentieth century music His vast compositional output encompasses many of its extremes and expresses many of its contradictions Few have attempted however to contextualize Krenek's compositional output because our understanding of classical music in the first half of the twentieth century still largely remains focused on the music of a few canonical figures Responding to renewed interest from performers in Krenek's work particularly his operas Peter Tregear's Ernst Krenek and the Politics of Musical Style addresses this gap in the scholarly literature and makes an important contribution to our comprehension of the ways in which his music reflected and informed broader social and political debates in Austria and Germany at the time Focusing on Krenek's compositional path from the eclectic musical language of Jonny spielt auf to the austere twelve tone technique of Karl V Tregear provides an historical and critical context to this most historically significant period of Krenek's creative life His study also enriches our understanding of many of Krenek's contemporaries such as Alban Berg and Arnold Schoenberg This book should interest students scholars and practitioners with an interest in modern opera and contemporary classical music as well as early 20th century German history more generally "Education Has Nothing to Do with Theology" Edward J. Newell, 2006-08-01 Does education have any relation to theology How do the educator's worldview commitments speak to his or her practice of education James Michael Lee brought a definite answer to these questions a firm no to the relations question and an advocacy for empirical findings over and against any speculative or theoretical positions in reply to the commitments question Lee claimed to have a universal neutral metatheory for all religious education a theory that would apply to all religious educators in any and every religion But in proposing his theory he overlooked the way that empirical facts express worldviews This book is a detective story tracing commitments that lay underneath empirical neutrality In the process the reader will see avenues that unmistakably link education to theology Education turns out to be a thoroughly worldview conditioned process This new work is essential reading for professors and students in both religious and general education Philosophy, Social Theory, and the Thought of George Herbert Mead Mitchell Aboulafia, 1991-01-22 This book brings together some of the finest recent critical and expository work on Mead written by American and European thinkers from diverse traditions For English speaking audiences it provides an introduction to recent European work on Mead The essays reveal the richness of Mead's thought and will stimulate those who have thought about him from very specific vantage points behaviorism symbolic interactionism pragmatism etc to consider him in new ways The Lure of Transcendence and the Audacity of Prayer Samuel E. Balentine, 2022-06-24 The discourse of prayer responds to the abiding lure of transcendence From Gilgamesh to the primordial human beings in Eden to Odysseus the quest for ultimate truths has summoned forth all manner of human effort courageous desperate pious impious successful failed invited forbidden and like all such lures one can never be certain whether the glimmer of transcendence is that of a bright and shining star that illuminates the shadows or only a shiny object that seduces one into an inescapable darkness a fishing lure for example In this study Samuel E Balentine demonstrates how prayer's invocation of God transgresses the limits of human beings The author shows how inviting let alone commanding God to speak may be the acme of bardic pretention but in the ancient world such transgression characterizes the audacity of prayer

Altruism and Christian Ethics Colin Grant, 2000-11-16 Separated from its anchorage in religion ethics has followed the social sciences in seeing human beings as fundamentally characterised by self interest so that altruism is either naively idealistic or arrogantly self sufficient Colin Grant contends that as a modern secular concept altruism is a parody on the self giving love of Christianity so that its dismissal represents a social levelling that loses the depths that theology makes intelligible and religion makes possible The Christian affirmation is that God is characterised by self giving love agape then expected of Christians Lacking this theological background the focus on self interest in sociobiology and economics and on human realism in the political focus of John Rawls or the feminist sociability of Carol Gilligan finds altruism naive or a dangerous distraction from real possibilities of mutual support This book argues that to dispense with altruism is to dispense with God and with the divine transformation of human possibilities

The Political Theory of Liberation Theology John R. Pottenger, 1989-09-14 This is the first in depth look at the political theoretical structure of liberation theology Pottenger shows how liberation theologians writing from the perspective of the poor and oppressed denounce modernity and especially capitalism for having caused poverty and military dictatorships He evaluates the liberation theologians methodological approach to political theory and the crucial role of Marxism He also analyzes liberation theologians assessment of Latin American political economy and their moral arguments for political activism in response to these assessments Pottenger addresses the general question of to what extent liberation theology has achieved its ultimate objective of a just society of the convergence of traditional social values and modern political science

African Catholicism and Hermeneutics of Culture Joseph Ogbonnaya, 2014-08-05 The study of Christianity in the non Western world reveals a demographic shift in the center of Christianity from the Northern Hemisphere to the South But the contradictory aspect of the massive African conversion to Christian faith is the grinding poverty level in Africa This condition raises important theological and ecclesiological questions that demand urgent answers Therefore the research objectives of this book are to examine African Catholicism's involvement in human promotion and to seek a new way of theologizing Christianity that moves sub Saharan African peoples to action against the massive injustices that keep them poor Drawing on Africae Munus the Post Synodal Apostolic Exhortation of the Second African Synod 2011 and Bernard Lonergan's notion of culture African Catholicism and Hermeneutics of Culture argues that to truly be the spiritual lung of humanity African Catholicism must appropriate the Christian message to transform African attitudes and personhood and so foster a self-reliant commitment to integral African development Binding the Strong Man Myers, Ched ,2019-02-20 This is the first commentary on the Gospel of Mark to systematically apply a multidisciplinary approach called socio literary method Myers integrates literary criticism socio historical exegesis and political hermeneutics in his investigation of Mark the oldest story of Jesus as manifesto of radical discipleship Sociology and Religion Albert E. Hurd,1988 An American Strategic Theology John A. Coleman,2005-01-25 This book represents a major new initiative in the contemporary dialogue between theology and sociology within the specifics of the North American context Relying on a renewed confidence in the power of biblical and Christian prophetic symbolism John Coleman proposes an American theology Far from being an easy accommodation to the American style with its strong tendencies toward the privatization of religion this is a forceful and comprehensive argument for the public possibilities of the Christian gospel in contemporary American culture
