China and Globalization Doug Guthrie, 2009 An accessible introductory text on contemporary China this book covers the social economic and political factors responsible for China's revolutionary changes and interweaves this structural analysis with a consideration of social changes at the micro and macro levels

Manager Empowerment in China Ray Yep, 2003-12-08 Institutional changes in rural China caused by the economic reforms of the post Mao era have led to a new pattern of state society interaction in the rural polity Central to this is the spectacular rise of a group of managerial elites Contrary to economic predictors this has been accompanied by the development of an interdependence between these managers and the state This book provides an analysis of the new state society relationship and demonstrates the complexity and fluidity involved in institutional development and market transformation

Health Care Transformation in Contemporary China Jiong Tu, 2018-06-12 This multifaceted book examines the free market reform of the Chinese healthcare system in the 1980s and the more collectivist or socialist counter reforms that have been implemented since 2009 to remedy some of the problems introduced by marketization The book is based on an ethnographical study in a Chinese county from 2011 to 2012 which investigated local people's experience of healthcare reforms and the various ways in which they have adapted their own behavior to the constraints and opportunities introduced by these reforms It provides a vivid depiction of the morality and emotionality of people's experiences of the Chinese healthcare system and the myriad frustrations and sometimes desperation it induces not only among patients with significant health problems and their families but also healthcare practitioners caught between their desire to do right by their patients and the penalties they personally incur if they do not adhere to institutionalized cost saving measures The people's experiences within China's health sector presented reflect many similar experiences in the wider Chinese society The book is thus a valuable resource for researchers and graduate students interested in China's healthcare reforms and scholars concerned with issues of contemporary Chinese society

The State and Life Chances in Urban China

Xueguang Zhou, 2004-11-29 This book presents a systematic study of social stratification processes in urban China from 1949 to 1994 Based on the life histories of a sample of urban residents from 20 Chinese cities this book addresses two themes 1 the interplay between redistribution and social stratification under state socialism in urban China especially the impact of the state and state policies on individual life chances in such areas as education labor force participation promotion in organizations and the distribution of manifest and latent economic benefits 2 an assessment of sources and extent of China's economic transformation since the 1980s The author blends sociological analysis and sensitivity to the historical context in interpreting changes and continuity in the 45 year history of state socialist China This is a comprehensive and rigorous study of social stratification in China
