Beaver, John Wright, 2009-05-07 Over the past two centuries many aspects of criminal behavior have been investigated Finding this information and making sense of it all is difficult when many studies would appear to offer contradictory findings The Handbook of Crime Correlates collects in one source the summary analysis of crime research worldwide It provides over 400 tables that divide crime research into nine broad categories Pervasiveness and intra offending relationships Demographic factors Ecological and macroeconomic factors Family and peer factors Institutional factors Behavioral and personality factors Cognitive factors Biological factors Crime victimization and fear of crime Within these broad categories tables identify regions of the world and how separate variables are or are not positively or negatively associated with criminal behavior Criminal behavior is broken down into separate offending categories of violent crime property crime drug

Criminology Jayne Mooney,2019-12-06 To confront the challenges criminologists face today and to satisfactorily critique the theories on which criminology is founded we need to learn from the past To do this we must give context to both theorist and theory Written from a critical perspective this book brings criminological theory to life It presents the core theories of criminology as historical and cultural products and theorists as producers of culture located in particular places writing in specific historical periods and situated in precise intellectual networks and philosophical controversies This book illustrates that theory does not arise out of the blue and highlights the importance of understanding how and why ideas emerge at certain points in time why they gained currency and the influence that they have had It follows the trajectory of criminology from pre Enlightenment society through to the present day and the proliferation of criminological thinking It explores Setting the Stage for the Emergence of Criminology Classicist Criminology The Search for Justice Equality and the Rational Man The Positivist Revolution Physiognomy Phrenology and the Science of Othering Chicago School of Sociology An Explosion of Ideas volume Women Criminals An Encyclopedia of People and Issues addresses both key topics and key figures in women's crime. The first volume provides topical essays about areas critical to the understanding of female criminals such as the definition of women's crime, explanations of women's criminality, ethnic and age diversity in female criminals and responses of the criminal justice system. The second volume comprises biographical entries profiling women who are obviously criminals such as Aileen Wuornos and Myra Hindley and also women who were victims of circumstance, unjust laws or narrowly applied definitions of crime such as Rosa Parks, Harriet Tubman and Sophie Scholl. In addition to highlighting the breadth of women's criminality, these portraits provide a holistic, multifaceted understanding of the dynamics of women's crime and why it occurs, connecting the individual stories to the larger social scientific perspectives. Care has been taken to include the women's own voices and perspectives where possible and to address the intentions and reasoning of the system that responded to their criminality.
