inspired by the turn toward narrative He shows how the human sciences especially in his own areas of interpersonal family and communication theory have evolved from sciences directed toward prediction and control to interpretive ones focused on the search for meaning through qualitative narrative and ethnographic modes of inquiry He outlines the theoretical contributions of such luminaries as Bateson Laing Goffman Henry Gergen and Richardson in this transformation Using diverse forms of narration Bochner seamlessly layers theory and story interweaving his professional and personal life with the social and historical contexts in which they developed
