Socioreligious Factors in Fertility Decline Leon F. Bouvier, Sethuramaiah Lakshminarayana N. Rao, 1975 The Economics Of Religion Robert M Sauer, 2023-04-25 Adam Smith one of the founding fathers of contemporary economics observed that religiosity is influenced by the extent of regulation in the market for religion In countries where there is a state sponsored religion one can expect less overall religiosity than if the market were competitive and religions had to compete to increase their membership Religion he claims is like other goods and services supplied in a market economy Max Weber one of the founding fathers of contemporary sociology similarly proposed that religiosity and economic principles are strongly interconnected phenomena Weber famously thought that Protestant religious beliefs about the importance of work savings and trustworthiness played an important role in sparking the Industrial Revolution and accelerating economic growth in the Western World This edited volume contains original contributions by eminent scholars in the new and emerging field of the economics of religion The contributions expand upon the ground breaking ideas of Adam Smith and Max Weber The chapters also illuminate new directions for research in this relatively young intellectually exciting and rapidly growing multidisciplinary field of scientific inquiry The Family in America Robert McC. Adams, 2017-07-12 The Family in America offers a fresh interpretation of American social history emphasizing the vital role of the family and household autonomy and threats to both imposed by industrial organization and the state Allan Carlson shows that the United States rather than being born modern as a progressive consumerist society was in fact founded as an agrarian society composed of independent households rooted in land lineage and hierarchy Carlson argues that family survival continues to be of paramount importance today He critically examines five distinct strategies to restore a foundation for family life in industrial society drawing on the insights of Frederic LePlay Carle Zimmerman and G K Chesterton Carlson shows that family survival depends on the creation of meaningful pre modern household economies This new edition includes an introduction by Allan Carlson detailing the continued press of the industrial process onto the American family structure since initial publication of the book in 1993 Religion and Mental Health , 1980 References to 1836 journal articles dissertations and books published since 1970 Also contains foreign language titles Focuses on literature dealing with the theoretical and practical relationships between religion and mental health Classified arrangement Each entry gives bibliographical information and abstract Author subject indexes Catholicism: A Global History from the French Revolution to Pope Francis John T. McGreevy, 2022-09-06 A magisterial history of the centuries long conflict between progress and tradition in the world s largest international institution The story of Roman Catholicism has never followed a singular path In no time period has this been more true than over the last two centuries Beginning with the French Revolution extending to the Second Vatican Council in the 1960s and concluding with present day crises John T McGreevy chronicles the dramatic upheavals and internal divisions shaping the most multicultural multilingual and global institution in the world Through powerful individual stories and sweeping birds

eye views Catholicism provides a mesmerizing assessment of the Church's complex role in modern history both shaper and follower of the politics of nation states both conservator of hierarchies and evangelizer of egalitarianism McGreevy documents the hopes and ambitions of European missionaries building churches and schools in all corners of the world African Catholics fighting for political and religious independence Latin American Catholics attracted to a theology of liberation and Polish and South Korean Catholics demanding democratic governments He includes a vast cast of riveting characters known and unknown including the Mexican revolutionary Fr Servando Teresa de Mier Daniel O Connell hero of Irish emancipation Sr Josephine Bakhita a formerly enslaved Sudanese nun Chinese statesman Ma Xiaobang French philosopher and reformer Jacques Maritain German Jewish philosopher and convert Edith Stein John Paul II Polish pope and opponent of communism Gustavo Guti rrez Peruvian founder of liberation theology and French American patron of modern art Dominique de Menil Throughout this essential volume McGreevy details currents of reform within the Church as well as movements protective of traditional customs and beliefs Conflicts with political leaders and a devotional revival in the nineteenth century the experiences of decolonization after World War II and the Second Vatican Council in the twentieth century and the trauma of clerical sexual abuse in the twenty first all demonstrate how religion shapes our modern world Finally McGreevy addresses the challenges faced by Pope Francis as he struggles to unite the over one billion members of the world's largest religious community

Power/Gender H. Lorraine Radtke, Henderikus J. Stam, Professor Henderikus J Stam, 1994-01-01 This book investigates the complex strands that inextricably link gender and power relations demonstrating how gender is constructed through the practices of power The contributors argue that female and male are shaped not only at the micro level of everyday social interaction but also at the macro level where social institutions control and regulate the practice of gender Power Gender explores how theorizing on power is affected when gender is taken into account post Foucauldian theory of gender and power whether it is possible to separate gender and power the connections between gender and the practice of power in political contexts and how these connections work in the specific contexts of women's lives and whether the construction of sex or gender is an expression of power relations

The New Agrarian Mind Allan Carlson, The self sufficiency and regional outlook of farm life characterized the United States until the Civil War period With the triumph of the industrial North over the rural South the expansion of urbanism and the closing of the frontier the agrarian sector became an economic and cultural minority The social benefits of rural life a sense of independence commitment to democracy an abundance of children stable community life were threatened This volume examines the rise of a distinctive agrarian intellectual movement to combat these trends The New Agrarian Mind now in paperback synthesizes the thought of twentieth century agrarian writers It weaves together discussions of major representative figures such as Liberty Hyde Bailey Carle Zimmerman and Wendell Berry with myth shattering analyses of the movement s cultural diversity intellectual influence and ideological complexity Collectively labeled the New Agrarians to distinguish them from the simpler Jeffersonianism of the nineteenth century they shared a coherent set of goals that were at once socially conservative and economically radical Health planning reports subject index United States.
