Building a Writing Community Marcia Sheehan Freeman,1995 Explains how to create the philosophical and physical environment needed to develop successful writing communities in which students learn practice and apply writing craft skills

The Talmud of the Land of Israel, Volume 6 ,1988 Edited by the acclaimed scholar Jacob Neusner this thirty five volume English translation of the Talmud Yerushalmi has been hailed by the Jewish Spectator as a project of immense benefit to students of rabbinic Judaism      The ^AEssential Child Susan A. Gelman,2005-04-21 Numerous fields stake claims about essentialism but this is the first book to address the issues surrounding essentialism from the perspective of developmental psychology Gelman synthesizes 15 years of empirical research on essentialism into a coherent framework examining children's thinking and ways in which language influences thought. She argues that young children's use of concepts such as dog, man, or intelligence reflects their deep commitment to the presence of these categories, properties that extends beyond the observable information about objects. The presence of this commitment in children also means that they do not come into the world as passive recipients of data but rather have an organizational scheme that supports categories. This volume will be of interest to developmental cognitive and social psychologists as well as to scholars in cognitive science and philosophy.
