The Soho Leopard Ruth Padel, 2011-06-08 Beautiful disturbing and a pleasure to read Ruth Padel's new poems are her most ambitious yet adding animal legend and zoological science to her glitteringly imaginative canvas With her gift for bringing together experiences and tones of voice that normally stay far apart she sweeps us from Dulwich Pizza Hut to ancient Siberia King's Cross to nineteenth century Burma We meet Socrates urban foxes Louisiana alligators and the endangered Amur leopard in poems resonating with sensuous delight in nature but also with history and loss Finally a Chinese painter searches for tigers in a forest doomed to the sawmill while the minister who sold it scoffs an aphrodisiac bowl of tiger penis soup Hallucinatory and lyrical passionately musical seething with life The Soho Leopard explores our human need for wildness and also for stories wherever we find them A wonderfully ferocious new collection from one of our most exciting poets

Emerald Ruth Padel, 2018-07-12 An elegy to a lost mother Emerald is the moving new collection from prize winning poet Ruth Padel Here in deep earth the black blossom of mourning still sifting within me I remembered that emerald was my birthstone Prize winning poet Ruth Padel's heartfelt new collection is a grief observed an elegy for her mother on her death at the age of ninety seven Exploring the riches of emerald lore Padel follows the glint of green green for awakening for bringing life back from the dead from memories of her mother a naturalist to the black honeycomb of a Colombian emerald mine and sunset pink of the Emerald City Jaipur Beneath everything shines the jewel itself the only stone in which the flaws are prized Beautifully carved and cadenced Emerald is a moving chronicle of value and loss and a celebration of all that is precious in the life that remains

Routledge Handbook of Human-Animal Studies Garry Marvin, Susan McHugh, 2014-04-16 Human animal studies is an academic field that has grown exponentially over the past decade It explores the whys hows and whats of human animal relations why animals are represented and configured in different ways in human cultures and societies around the world how they are imagined experienced and given significance what these relationships might signify about being human and what about these relationships might be improved for the sake of the individuals as well as the communities concerned The Routledge Handbook of Human Animal Studies presents a collection of original essays from artists and scholars who have established themselves internationally on the basis of specific and significant new contributions to human animal studies This international interdisciplinary handbook will be of interest to students and scholars of human animal studies sociology anthropology biology environmental studies geography cultural studies history philosophy media studies gender studies literature psychology ethology and visual studies

Beethoven Variations Ruth Padel, 2021-02-02 Padel's imagery and imagination took me deeper into Beethoven than many biographies I've read Anthony Tommasini The New York Times A fascinating poetic journey into the mind and heart of a musical genius from the author of the celebrated Darwin A Life in Poems Ruth Padel's new sequence of poems in four movements is a personal voyage through the life and legend of one of the world's greatest composers She uncovers the man behind the music charting his private thoughts and feelings through letters diaries sketchbooks and the conversation books he used as his hearing declined She gives us Beethoven as a battered four year old weeping at the clavier the young virtuoso pianist agonized by his encroaching deafness the passionate heartbroken lover the clumsy eccentric making coffee with exactly sixty beans Padel's quest takes her into the heart of Europe and back to her own musical childhood Her great grandfather who studied in Leipzig with a pupil of Beethoven's became a concert pianist before migrating to Britain her parents met making music and Padel grew up playing the viola Beethoven's instrument as a child Her book is a poet and string player's intimate connection across the centuries with an artist who though increasingly isolated ended even his most harrowing works on a note of hope

The Mara Crossing Ruth Padel, 2012-01-05 First published as The Mara Crossing now with new and updated material Home is where you start from but where is a swallow's real home And what does native mean if the English oak is an immigrant from Spain In ninety richly varied poems and illuminating prose interludes Ruth Padel weaves science myth wild nature and human history to conjure a world created and sustained by migration We're all from somewhere else she begins tracing the millennia old journeys of cells trees birds and beasts Geese battle raging winds over Mount Everest lemurs skim precipices in Madagascar and wildebeest at the climax of their epic trek from Tanzania brave a river filled with the largest hungriest crocodiles in Africa Human migration has shaped civilisation but today is one of the greatest challenges the world faces In a series of incisive portraits Padel turns to the struggles of human displacement the Flight into Egypt John James Audubon emigrating to America feeding migrant birds en route migrant workers in Mumbai and refugees labouring over a drastically changing planet to show how the purpose of migration for both humans and animals is survival Poignant thought provoking and utterly compelling here is a magnificent tapestry of life on the move from the acclaimed author of Darwin A Life in Poems

On Migration Ruth Padel, 2014-09-09 Life began with migration In a magnificent tapestry of life on the move Ruth Padel weaves poems and prose science and religion wild nature and human history to conjure a world created and sustained by migration We're all from somewhere else she begins Migration builds civilization but also causes displacement From the Holy Family's Flight into Egypt the Lost Colony on Roanoke and the famous photograph Migrant Mother Padel turns to John James Audubon's journey from Haiti and France heirlooms carried through Ellis Island Kennedy's society of immigrants and Casa del Migrante on the Mexican border But she reaches the human story through the millennia old journeys of cells in our bodies trees in the Ice Age Monarch butterflies travelling from Alaska to Mexico As warblers battle hurricanes over the Caribbean and wildebeest brave a river filled with the largest crocodiles in Africa she shows that the truest purpose of migration for both humans and animals is survival

Hyphen Cliff Yates, Anne Stevenson, Jean Sprackland, Joe Sheerin, Shenagh Pugh, Ruth Padel, Sean O'Brien, Sinéad Morrissey, Ian McMillan, Roddy Lumsden, Grevel Lindop, Joanne Limburg, John Latham, Sophie Hannah, Matthew Francis, David Constantine, Polly Clark, Helen Clare, Steven Blythe, 2013-12-03 Too often the short story is regarded as merely a poor cousin of the novel a weekend break for novelists an

assumption that demeans the short and neglects the fact that it has an anatomy all of its own This anthology is a one off experiment to show how much the short has in common with a very different literary form the poem Established and award winning poets from around Britain and the UK have been asked to interlope into the unknown territory of the short most of them for the first time and each bringing with them a new poetic perspective as well as an intuitive feel for the snapshot s hidden narratives We Are All From Somewhere Else Ruth Padel,2020-09-15 First published as The Mara Crossing now with new and updated material A prodigy a book of wonders Wonder pity and terror the searing section of voices in transit coercing compassion and beyond that empathy Independent Home is where you start from but where is a swallow s real home And what does native mean if the English oak is an immigrant from Spain In ninety richly varied poems and illuminating prose interludes Ruth Padel weaves science myth wild nature and human history to conjure a world created and sustained by migration from the millennia old journeys of cells trees birds and beasts to Geese battle raging winds over Mount Everest lemurs skim precipices in Madagascar and wildebeest at the climax of their epic trek from Tanzania braving a river filled with the largest crocodiles in Africa Human migration has shaped civilisation but today is one of the greatest challenges the world faces In a series of incisive portraits Padel turns to the struggles of human displacement the Flight into Egypt John James Audubon emigrating to America feeding migrant birds en route migrant workers in Mumbai and refugees labouring over a drastically changing planet to show how the purpose of migration for both humans and animals is survival

Darwin Ruth Padel,2011-11-23 This remarkable book brings us an intimate and moving interpretation of the life and work of Charles Darwin by Ruth Padel an acclaimed British poet and a direct descendant of the famous scientist Charles Darwin born in 1809 lost his mother at the age of eight repressed all memory of her and poured his passion into solitary walks newt collecting and shooting His five year voyage on H M S Beagle when he was in his twenties changed his life Afterward he began publishing his findings and working privately on groundbreaking theories about the development of animal species including human beings and he made a nervous proposal to his cousin Emma Padel s poems sparkle with nuance and feeling as she shows us the marriage that ensued and the rich creative atmosphere the Darwins provided for their ten children Charles and Emma were happy in each other but both were painfully aware of the gulf between her deep Christian faith and his increasing religious doubt The death of three of their children accentuated this gulf For Darwin death and extinction were nature s way of developing new species the survival of the fittest for Emma death was a prelude to the afterlife These marvelous poems enriched by helpful marginal notes and by Padel s ability to move among multiple viewpoints always keeping Darwin at the center bring to life the great scientist as well as the private man and tender father This is a biography in rare form with an unquantifiable depth of family intimacy and warmth Beyond the Lyric Fiona Sampson,2012-09-06 British poetry is enjoying a period of exceptional richness and variety This is exciting but it s also confusing and throws up the need for an enthusiastic guide that can explain and celebrate the many parallel poetry projects now underway Beyond the

Lyric does just that This is a book of enthusiasms an intelligent and witty map of contemporary British poetry and a radical accessible guide to living British poets grouped for the first time according to the kind of poetry they write In a series of groundbreaking new classifications beginning with the bread and butter diction of the Plain Dealers and ending on the capacious generosity of the Exploded Lyric it examines the broad range of contemporary tendencies from the baroque swagger of the Dandies to the restrained elegance of the Oxford Elegists from the layered haunting verse of Mythopoesis to the inventive explorations of the New Formalists By probing the cultural context from which these groups emerge and shifting the critical focus back to the work itself Sampson's astute analysis illuminates and demystifies each of these terms and asks the big questions about what makes a poem The result is a celebration of poetry as a connected responsive and above all communitarian form Lively engaging and inviting this is the indispensable and authoritative guide for anyone who's ever wondered what's going on in British poetry today

The Annals of London John Richardson, 2000 Year by year from 1065 to the present disasters innovations and everyday events are revealed to display the wide spectrum of London life The sweep of the book is vast and its details magnificent Richardson's informative text is supported by an extraordinary and eclectic collection of 200 historical illustrations 7 color maps

Tigers In Red Weather Ruth Padel, 2009-05-26 Poet writer and descendant of Charles Darwin Ruth Padel set out to visit a tropical jungle and wildlife sanctuary in India and her visit turned into a remarkable two year journey through eleven countries in search of that most elusive and most beautiful animal the tiger Armed with her grandmother's opera glasses and Tunisian running shoes she set off across Asia to ask the question can the tiger be saved from extinction in the wild Tigers are an umbrella species they need everything in the forest to work in tandem they eat deer the deer need vegetation the vegetation has to be pollinated by birds mammals rodents and butterflies If you save the tiger you save everything else Today the 5 000 tigers that still survive in the wild live only in Asia and are scattered throughout 14 countries Padel says that while tigers will never become extinct they are too popular for that they may disappear from the wild There are as many tigers in cages in the US as there are surviving tigers in the wild As she travels she meets the defenders of the wild the heroic scientists forest guards and conservationists at the frontline fighting to save tigers and their forests from destruction in the places where poverty threatens to wipe out all wildlife She also examines her fascination both as a poet and as the great great granddaughter of Charles Darwin with nature wildness and survival and in the end becomes a knowledgeable advocate for the tiger The result is a beautiful blend of natural history travel literature and memoir and a searing intimate portrait of an animal we have loved and feared almost to extinction

A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches, Michael Cox, 2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer's nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication

Tidings Ruth Padel, 2016-11-03 Beautifully illustrated and exquisitely musical Tidings is a poem to be read out loud and cherished Come with me to St Pancras Old Church on a little London hill It's Christmas Eve and on this enchanted night Charoum the Angel of Silence can speak As night turns to day he unfolds a resonant story of a little girl a homeless man and a fox In the tradition of Charles Dickens and Dylan Thomas Tidings takes us on a journey into the heart of Christmas showing us celebrations down the ages and across the globe as dawn sweeps from East Australia to Bethlehem from London to the Statue of Liberty in New York This is Christmas in all its magic reminding us that it is a time not only of good tidings but of loneliness and longing compassion and connection

The Wounds of Possibility Ricardo Gil Soeiro, 2013-01-04 Bringing together writers translators poets and leading scholars of cultural theory literary theory comparative literature philosophy history political science music studies and education The Wounds of Possibility aims to offer an in depth and wide ranging study of George Steiner's imposing body of work This book is a timely volume of important essays on one of the most provocative thinkers critics and philosophers now writing During an era in which the question of the ethical and of the status of the work of art and its relation to the theological dimension has returned with renewed urgency Steiner's work provides rich resources for reflection and it is hoped that the volume will stand on its own as a rich nuanced accompaniment to the reading of Steiner's work With their broad range of thematic foci theoretical approaches and stunning constellations of quoted material from different backgrounds all the essays in the book try to reflect upon the relation between human identity and language ethics and literature philosophy and art and they all offer what we regard as being the most comprehensive engagement with Steiner's work to date

The Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch, 2009-09-24 Written by a team of more than 150 contributors working under the direction of Dinah Birch and ranging in influence from Homer to the Mahabharata this guide provides the reader with a comprehensive coverage of all aspects of English literature

Forms of Enchantment: Writings on Art and Artists Marina Warner, 2018-10-23 An anthology of enlightening writing by an award winning critic that engages with art in its social political and aesthetic contexts Art writing at its most useful should share the dynamism fluidity and passions of the objects of its enquiry argues author Marina Warner in this new anthology Here some of Warner's most compelling writing captures the visual experience of the work of a diverse group of artists with a notable focus on the inner lives of women through an exploration of the range of stories and symbols to which they allude in their work Warner vividly describes this imagery covering the connection with animals in the work of Louise Bourgeois the Catholicism of Damien Hirst performance as a medium of memory in the installations of Joan Jonas and more Rather than drawing on connoisseurship Warner's approach grows principally out of anthropology and mythology Accompanied by illustrations of the works being described Marina

Warner's writing unites the imagination of artist, writer and reader creating a reading experience that parallels the intrinsic pleasure of looking at art. This book will appeal to any student of art history, those interested in philosophy, feminism and more generally in the humanities. The Concise Oxford Companion to English Literature Dinah Birch, Katy Hooper, 2013-05-30. Based on the bestselling Oxford Companion to English Literature, this is an indispensable compact guide to all aspects of English literature. Over 5,500 new and revised A to Z entries give unrivalled coverage of writers, works, historical context, literary theory, allusions, characters and plot summaries. Discursive feature entries supply a wealth of information about important genres in literature. For this fourth edition, the dictionary has been fully revised and updated to include expanded coverage of postcolonial, African, black British and children's literature, as well as improved representation in the areas of science fiction, biography, travel literature, women's writing, gay and lesbian writing and American literature. The appendices listing literary prize winners, including the Nobel, Man Booker and Pulitzer prizes, have all been updated and there is also a timeline chronicling the development of English literature from c. 1000 to the present day. Many entries feature recommended web links which are listed and regularly updated on a dedicated companion website. Written originally by a team of more than 140 distinguished authors and extensively updated for this new edition, this book provides an essential point of reference for English students, teachers and all other readers of literature in English. Ars Interpres: An International Journal of Poetry, Translation and Art: No. 3 Alexander Deriev, 2004. The Rialto, 2004-11.
