Transition Ferdinand J.M. Feldbrugge, 2021-10-25 The states of Central and Eastern Europe have to different extents and with varying levels of success engaged in the transition from authoritarian rule. The reconstruction of democratic law-based governance has turned out to be a lengthy and at times frustrating process. The agenda for post-communist reform contains many entries yet a transition blue print is not available. The papers collected in this volume explore the implications of the transition process in various areas. While not all aspects of post-communist law are covered, several crucial issues receive an in-depth treatment. These are the development of supra-governmental systems, the procuracy, minority rights, contract law, land ownership and industrial property rights.
