Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 Black Gay Man Robert Reid-Pharr, 2001-04 In nine essays on Afrocentrism anti-Semitism and other aspects of identity and intellect Reid Pharr English Johns Hopkins U seeks to expose the essentially impermeable and thus impure nature of all American identities Moreover he writes even as I demonstrate repeatedly the excessive lengths to which many have gone to reproduce the boundaries of various articulations of the self I continue to emphasize my belief that the great joy of living in the modern world is the recognition that all processes of naming all names black gay man are ultimately monuments to the impossibility of ever fully distinguishing self from other We always find the universal With a thoughtful foreword by science fiction author Samuel R Delany Princeton U c Book News Inc Voices of a People's History of the United States, 10th Anniversary Edition Howard Zinn, Anthony Arnove, 2014-12-23 Selected testimonies to living history speeches letters poems songs offered by the people who make history happen but are often left out of history books women workers nonwhites Featuring introductions to the original texts by Howard Zinn New voices featured in this 10th Anniversary Edition include Chelsea Manning speaking after her 35 year prison sentence Naomi Klein speaking from the Occupy Wall Street encampment in Liberty Square a member of Dream Defenders a youth organization that confronts systemic racial inequality members of the Undocumented Youth movement who occupied marched and demonstrated in support of the DREAM Act a member of the Day Laborers movement Chicago Teachers Union strikers and several critics of the Obama administration including Glenn Greenwald on governmental secrecy National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965-70 Adrienne Rich's Later Poetry Alec Marsh, 2024-12-12 Reorienting understandings of Adrienne Rich's later work through her interest in Marx and Marxist politics this book engages with this overlooked part of her oeuvre through considerations of issues such as race nationhood and gender From

1983 onward after she visited revolutionary Nicaragua until the end of her life Rich's political vision can best be described as Marxist Humanist Until recently very little attention has been paid to Rich's interest in Marx there is no in depth treatment of the effect of Marx's humanistic philosophy on Rich's later work or even on her unwavering but altered dedication to Women's Liberation This book fills this gap showing how Rich's discovery of Marx's humanism affected her poetry In doing so it makes a significant intervention into debates about the direction of American poetics and argues powerfully for a greater consciousness of political engagement through poetry

Subculture Dick Hebdige, 2013-10-08 First Published in 2002 It is easy to see that we are living in a time of rapid and radical social change It is much less easy to grasp the fact that such change will inevitably affect the nature of those disciplines that both reflect our society and help to shape it Yet this is nowhere more apparent than in the central field of what may in general terms be called literary studies New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change To stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study

Whirlwind Bill Kurtis, 2025-09-16 From his beginnings as a kid from Kansas working at local radio and television stations to pay for college and law school Bill Kurtis had a hunger for telling stories and finding the truth With passion skill and just the right amount of luck Kurtis's reporting of the infamous Topeka Tornado of 1966 launched him into a whirlwind career in broadcast journalism Only four years later after passing the Kansas bar exam Kurtis had already reported four of the largest trials of the twentieth century Richard Speck the Chicago Seven Charles Manson and Angela Davis During his career as a West Coast correspondent for Cronkite's CBS Evening News anchorman and foreign correspondent at the revolutionary local newsroom at WBBM TV Chicago co anchor with Diane Sawyer at CBS Morning News and beyond Kurtis brought history to the American people in real time Recounting moments in his remarkable career as a television journalist Kurtis brings us into some of the most iconic moments of the 60s 70s and 80s He was in the streets during the riots at the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago he uncovered the truth about the deadly effects of Agent Orange during the Vietnam War he was the first US television journalist to return to Chernobyl after the infamous nuclear disaster and much more Kurtis also offers an insider look at how television evolved from an emerging news source to the dominating force in American media A natural storyteller Kurtis remembers his career with honesty and insight and gives a rare picture of American history and broadcast journalism

Caging Borders and Carceral States Robert T. Chase, 2019-04-09 This volume considers the interconnection of racial oppression in the U S South and West presenting thirteen case studies that explore the ways in which citizens and migrants alike have been caged detained deported and incarcerated and what these practices tell us about state building converging and coercive legal powers and national sovereignty As these studies depict the institutional development and state scaffolding of overlapping carceral regimes they also consider how prisoners and immigrants resisted such oppression and violence by drawing on the transnational politics of human rights and liberation transcending the isolation of incarceration detention deportation and the boundaries of domestic law Contributors Dan Berger Ethan Blue George T D az David Hernandez Kelly Lytle Hern ndez Pippa Holloway Volker Janssen Talitha L LeFlouria Heather McCarty Douglas K Miller Vivien Miller Donna Murch and Keramet Ann Reiter

Black Rage Confronts the Law Paul Harris, 1999-05 Traces the origins of the black rage defense in criminal court history In 1971 Paul Harris pioneered the modern version of the black rage defense when he successfully defended a young black man charged with armed bank robbery Dubbed one of the most novel criminal defenses in American history by Vanity Fair the black rage defense is enormously controversial frequently dismissed as irresponsible nothing less than a harbinger of anarchy Consider the firestorm of protest that resulted when the defense for Colin Ferguson the gunman who murdered numerous passengers on a New York commuter train claimed it was considering a black rage defense In this thought provoking book Harris traces the origins of the black rage defense back through American history recreating numerous dramatic trials along the way For example he recounts in vivid detail how Clarence Darrow defense attorney in the famous Scopes Monkey trial first introduced the notion of an environmental hardship defense in 1925 while defending a black family who shot into a drunken white mob that had encircled their home Emphasizing that the black rage defense must be enlisted responsibly and selectively Harris skillfully distinguishes between applying an environmental defense and simply blaming society in the abstract for individual crimes If Ferguson had invoked such a defense in Harris s words it would have sent a superficial wrong headed blame everything on racism message Careful not to succumb to easy generalizations Harris also addresses the possibilities of a white rage defense and the more recent phenomenon of cultural defenses He illustrates how a person s environment can and does affect his or her life and actions how even the most rational person can become criminally deranged when bludgeoned into hopelessness by exploitation racism and relentless poverty
