Schmid, 2015-02-06 An examination of how the technical choices social hierarchies economic structures and political dynamics shaped the Soviet nuclear industry leading up to Chernobyl The Chernobyl disaster has been variously ascribed to human error reactor design flaws and industry mismanagement Six former Chernobyl employees were convicted of criminal negligence they defended themselves by pointing to reactor design issues Other observers blamed the Soviet style of ideologically driven economic and industrial management In Producing Power Sonja Schmid draws on interviews with veterans of the Soviet nuclear industry and extensive research in Russian archives as she examines these alternate accounts Rather than pursue one definitive explanation she investigates how each of these narratives makes sense in its own way and demonstrates that each implies adherence to a particular set of ideas about high risk technologies human machine interactions organizational methods for ensuring safety and productivity and even about the legitimacy of the Soviet state She also shows how these attitudes shaped and were shaped by the Soviet nuclear industry from its very beginnings Schmid explains that Soviet experts established nuclear power as a driving force of social not just technical progress She examines the Soviet nuclear industry's dual origins in weapons and electrification programs and she traces the emergence of nuclear power experts as a professional community Schmid also fundamentally reassesses the design choices for nuclear power reactors in the shadow of the Cold War's arms race Schmid's account helps us understand how and why a complex sociotechnical system broke down Chernobyl while unique and specific to the Soviet experience can also provide valuable lessons for contemporary nuclear projects Cosmos a Sketch of a Physical Description of the Universe by Alexander Von Humboldt, 1851 Les merveilles célestes Camille Flammarion, 1913 The Early Avant-Garde in Twentieth-Century Literature and Art Willard Bohn, 2018-05-11 This book focuses on avant garde literature and art in Europe and America during the first quarter of the twentieth century It examines five movements that shaped our response to the demands of the modern age and contributed to the creation of a modern sensibility Cubism Futurism the Metaphysical School Dada and Surrealism Each of these arose in response to recent scientific technological and or philosophical developments that drastically affected modern civilization In turn each was responsible for a major paradigm shift that altered the way in which we view and respond to the world around us The final chapter is comparative in nature and studies the role of the mannequin in literature and art during the same period The stadium century Robert W. Lewis, 2016-12-08 The stadium century traces the history of stadia and mass spectatorship in modern France from the v lodromes of the late nineteenth century to the construction of the Stade de France before the 1998 soccer World Cup As the book demonstrates the stadium was at the centre of debates over public health and urban development and proved to be a key space for mobilising the urban crowd for political rallies and spectator sporting events alike After 1945 the transformed French stadium constituted part of the process of postwar modernisation but also was increasingly connected to global transformations to the spaces and practices of sport Drawing from a wide range of sources the stadium century links the histories of French urbanism mass politics and sport through the stadium in an innovative work that will appeal to historians students of French history and the history of sport and general readers alike Shaping the Novel Constantina Thalia Mitchell, Paul Raymond Côté, 1996-10-01 The dialogue between form and message is intrinsic to the novel as genre Yet the strength of that discourse has been shaken in the twentieth century by an increasing doubt about affirmations of any kind and a growing awareness of the relativity of knowledge and perception The novel reflects this intellectual current by turning its glance inward to mediate on the creative act as a form of self contained assertion of its own particular significance The three writers on whom this study focuses all major twentieth century authors were chosen because they can be considered as important representatives of this novelistic self consciousness Building on Andr Malraux's vision of the colloquium as an open ended verbal interchange this study calls upon the voices of Anne H rbert and Patrick Modiano to enter into a dialogue on novelistic form Rouge Mona Awad, 2025-02-18T15:05:00-05:00 Mirabelle quitte Montr al pour la Californie afin d y clarifier les circonstances du d c s de sa m re Son enqu te la m ne aux portes de la tr s s lecte Maison de M duse un spa somptueux aux apparences de secte auquel sa m re accordait toute sa confiance Note sur certaines colorations de la lune et du soleil J. Fournet, 1858 Surrealist Poetry Willard Bohn, 2017-01-01 Surrealist Poetry presents new English translations of nearly 150 poems alongside their original French and Spanish versions Founded by Andr Breton in 1924 Surrealism sought to examine the unconscious realm by means of the written or spoken word Seeking to expand the ability of language to evoke irrational states and improbable events it consistently strove to transcend the linguistic status quo By stretching language to its limits and beyond the Surrealists transformed it into an instrument for exploring the human psyche The twenty three poets in this collection come not only from France where Surrealism was invented but also from Spain Belgium Martinique Mauritius Catalonia Mexico Chile and Peru Three of them were awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature Vicente Aleixandre Pablo Neruda and Octavio Paz Equipped with a critical introduction and a brief bibliography this anthology will appeal to anyone interested in modern literature Contemporary French Women Poets, Volume II Michael Bishop, 2023-04-24 Contemporary French Women Poets offers the first full length study divided into two volumes of a wide range of women's poetry in France written over the past forty years Volume I provides a broad Introduction eight chapters devoted to individual critical assessments of the work of Andr e Chedid Heather Dohollau Denise Le Dantec Janine Mitaud Jacqueline Risset Anne Teyssi ras Esther Tellermann and Marie Claire Bancquart followed by a provisional Conclusion and Bibliography Volume II recentres the overall analysis via a brief Introduction then proceeds to offer eight more individual critical evaluations of the work of Jeanne Hyvrard Jeannine Baude Fran oise H n C line Zins V nus

Levine, Jared Stark, 2022-01-01 The 141st volume of Yale French Studies examines the life and work of Claude Lanzmann following his masterpiece Shoah This volume of Yale French Studies charts the different paths the filmmaker Claude Lanzmann 1925-2018 took after the release of Shoah in 1985 These paths are explored through a consideration of his late films Tsahal 1994 A Visitor from the Living 1997 Sobibor October 14 1943 4 p m 2001 Light and Shadows 2008 The Karski Report 2010 The Last of the Unjust 2013 Napalm 2017 and Four Sisters 2018 and of his memoir The Patagonian Hare The volume also includes an English translation of his last major interview Self Portrait at Ninety The original essays collected here show that Lanzmann's late films and writing stand as something more than mere footnotes to his 1985 masterpiece Continuing to wrestle with questions of cinematic transmission and the relationship among film history and testimony they confront anew and in a variety of approaches the challenge of
