Solidarity and Difference David G. Horrell, 2015-11-19 David G Horrell presents a study of Pauline ethics examining how Paul s moral discourse envisages and constructs communities in which there is a strong sense of solidarity but also legitimate difference in various aspects of ethical practice Horrell reads New Testament texts with an explicit awareness of contemporary ethical theory and assesses Paul s contribution as a moral thinker in the context of modern debate Using a framework indebted to the social sciences as well as to contemporary ethical theory Horrell examines the construction of community in Paul s letters the notions of purity boundaries and identity Paul s attempts to deal with diversity in his churches the role of imitating Christ in Paul s ethics and the ethic Paul develops for interaction with outsiders Finally the pattern of Paul s moral thinking is considered in relation to the liberal communitarian debate with explicit consideration given to the central moral norms of Pauline thought and the prospects for and problems with appropriating these in the contemporary world This Cornerstones edition includes an extended reflective introduction and a substantial foreword from N T Wright

Migration, Cosmopolitanism and Civil Society Feyzi Baban, Kim Rygjel, 2024-09-23 This book discusses the ways civil society initiatives open communities to newcomers and why how and under what circumstances some are more welcoming than others exploring the importance of transgressive cosmopolitanism as a basis for creating more inclusive and pluralistic societies The question of how to live together in increasingly multicultural multi ethnic and multireligious societies is a pressing political and policy issue particularly as we witness a rise in right wing populism and anti immigrant sentiments This book addresses the limitations of approaches that seek to secure borders preventing the arrival of newcomers altogether or that vacillate between assimilation and multiculturalism The authors explore the concept of cosmopolitanism and its utility by theorizing from real world examples including Germany's Welcome Culture and Denmark's Kind Citizens movements and other smaller scale initiatives such as arts and museum projects kitchen hubs and shared living accommodation

Interdisciplinary in nature and bringing conceptual discussions together with everyday examples this book focuses on forms of activity generally left out of wider debates around protest and social movement literature It emphasizes different types of activities undertaken by civil society groups who do not necessarily self identify as political but whose activities can counter right wing populism This dialogue between concepts and everyday politics makes the volume a very useful companion to classroom discussion and will facilitate its own exchange between scholars activists and practitioners Weaving Solidarity

Sebastian Garbe, 2022-02-03 In the Global South Indigenous and Native people continue to live under colonial relations within formally independent nation states Sebastian Garbe offers a critical perspective on contemporary expressions of international solidarity and transnational advocacy He combines approaches from critical race and decolonial studies with an activist ethnography on networked spaces of encounters created through solidarity activism by Mapuche and non Mapuche actors Departing from those experiences this book not only presents potential pitfalls of transnational advocacy but suggests new ways of understanding and practicing solidarity Beyond Comparison

Timothy Macklem, 2003-06-02 In Beyond Comparison Sex and Discrimination Timothy Macklem addresses foundational issues in the long running debate in legal political and social theory about the nature of gender discrimination He takes the highly original and controversial view that the heart of discrimination lies not in the unfavorable comparisons with the treatment and opportunities that men enjoy but rather in a denial of resources and opportunities that women need to lead successful and meaningful lives as women Therefore to understand what women need we must first understand what it is to be a woman By displaying an impressive command of the feminist literature as well as intellectual rigor this work promises to be a milestone in the debate about gender equality and will interest students and professionals in the areas of legal theory and gender studies Culture and

Researching Metaphors Michele Prandi, Micaela Rossi, 2022-09-07 This collection advocates for a more holistic picture of metaphor extending the field's focus beyond the cognitive paradigm and conventional metaphorical concepts to illustrate the possibilities afforded by the study of living metaphors The volume brings together a diverse range of researchers in the discipline towards critically examining the presuppositions of the cognitive approach The book shines a light on living metaphors creative interpretations of conflictual meaning specific to a text or communicative act with their own unique functions to throw into relief long held tenets in existing metaphor research Chapters reflect on the notion that creative metaphors spring from independent sources not merely from metaphorical concepts and the subsequent implications for our understanding of the relationship between linguistic forms and conceptual structures and the role of creative metaphors in organizing thought and action Taken together the book offers a complementary vision of languages and figures which integrates disparate lines of study within the cognitive paradigm with alternative perspectives for a more comprehensive portrait of metaphors This book will be of interest to students and scholars interested in the study of metaphor including such disciplines as theoretical linguistics cognitive linguistics semantics literary studies and philosophy of language Aso Ebi Okechukwu Charles Nwafor,2021-05-24 The Nigerian and West African practice of aso ebi fashion invokes notions of wealth and group dynamics in social gatherings Okechukwu Nwafor s volume Aso ebi investigates the practice in the cosmopolitan urban setting of Lagos and argues that the visual and consumerist hype typical of the late capitalist system feeds this unique fashion practice The book suggests that dress fashion aso ebi and photography engender a new visual culture that largely reflects the economics of mundane living Nwafor examines the practice s societal dilemma whereby the solidarity of aso ebi is dismissed by many as an ephemeral transaction A circuitous transaction among photographers fashion magazine producers textile merchants tailors and individual fashionistas reinvents aso ebi as a product of cosmopolitan urban modernity The results are a fetishization of various forms of commodity culture personality cults through mass followership the negotiation of symbolic power through mass produced images exchange value in human relationships through gifts and a form of exclusion achieved through digital photo editing Aso ebi has become an essential part of Lagos cosmopolitanism as a rising form of a unique visual culture it is central to the unprecedented spread of a unique West African fashion style that revels in excessive textile overflow This extreme dress style is what an individual requires to transcend the lack imposed by the chaos of the postcolonial city Media Solidarities Kaarina Nikunen,2018-12-10 What does it mean when images of refugees plight are shared on social media Or when we respond to emotive NGO fundraising campaigns or are heartened by do good reality TV shows Do these narratives offer incentives for genuine social change or only momentary feelings of individual satisfaction Drawing on social theory political economy and cultural studies Media Solidarities explores the way in which media can both enable and obstruct meaningful bonds of solidarity and positive social change Written in a highly approachable style it ties theory to contemporary world events and media discourses through a series of examples and case studies The book offers an analytical toolkit to critically understand media narratives of representation participation and production and to challenge our perceptions of our selves and society It will be fascinating reading for students in media and communications politics sociology human geography and cultural studies The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet Gerald Roche,2024-11-15 In The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet Gerald Roche sheds light on a global crisis of linguistic diversity that will see at least half of the world s languages disappear this century Roche explores the erosion of linguistic diversity through a study of a community on the northeastern Tibetan Plateau in the People s Republic of China Manegacha is but one of the sixty minority languages in Tibet and is spoken by about 8 000 people who are otherwise mostly indistinguishable from the Tibetan communities surrounding them Recently many in these communities have switched to speaking Tibetan and Manegacha faces an uncertain future The author uses the Manegacha case to show how linguistic diversity across Tibet is collapsing under assimilatory state policies He looks at how global advocacy networks inadequately acknowledge this issue highlighting the complex politics of language in an inter connected world The Politics of Language Oppression in Tibet broadens our understanding of Tibet and China the crisis of global linguistic diversity and the radical changes needed to address this crisis

Recognized Women: Carolina Esser,2025-01-29 Axel Honneth s theory of recognition comes from a theoretical paradigm attached to Western deliberative democracy Honneth does not interpret recognition from the perspective of gender equality and how a woman may be recognized in non democratic and non Western societies If one interprets the theory of recognition with a focus on the situation of women it is possible to identify that legal recognition plays a fundamental role It is relevant then to propose forms of struggling for the recognition of these women It is adopted the methodology of Critical Theory and recognition is illustrated from the perspectives of case studies for instance regarding women in China and Morocco In these countries there are different forms of disrespect Nevertheless despite restrictions imposed by government and culture both countries still have forms of struggling for recognition that should be perceived Several forms of struggling for recognition to turn recognition into a universal institute which can be applied in different contexts There are always forms of struggling for better conditions of women s recognition in every community through the support of law
