The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel Juan E. De Castro, Ignacio López-Calvo, 2023 The Latin American novel burst onto the international literary scene with the Boom era led by Julio Cortázar Gabriel García Márquez Carlos Fuentes and Mario Vargas Llosa and has influenced writers throughout the world ever since García Márquez and Vargas Llosa each received the Nobel Prize in literature and many of the best known contemporary novelists are inspired by the region's fiction Indeed magical realism the style associated with García Márquez has left a profound imprint on African American African Asian Anglophone Caribbean and Latinx writers Furthermore post Boom literature continues to garner interest from the novels of Roberto Bolaño to the works of César Aira and Chico Buarque to those of younger novelists such as Juan Gabriel Vásquez Alejandro Zambra and Valeria Luiselli Yet for many readers the Latin American novel is often read in a piecemeal manner delinked from the traditions authors and social contexts that help explain its evolution The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel draws literary historical and social connections so that readers will come away understanding this literature as a rich and compelling canon In forty-five chapters by leading and innovative scholars the Handbook provides a comprehensive introduction helping readers to see the region's intrinsic heterogeneity for only with a broader view can one fully appreciate García Márquez or Bolaño. This volume charts the literary tradition of the Latin American novel from its beginnings during colonial times its development during the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century and its flourishing from the 1960s onward. Coming of Age in the Afro-Latin American Novel Bonnie S. Wasserman, 2022 This book is the first study of recent coming of age novels from Brazil and the Spanish speaking Caribbean. I investigate the divide in Afro Latin American research that usually favors either Hispanic America or Brazil but not both. I argue that contemporary novelists have adapted the coming of age novel to explore central themes in the Afro Latin American experience such as Blackness African religions and folkloric traditions and immigration. While there is no firm consensus on the term Blackness scholars typically use the term to describe the social cultural and historical experience of Afro descendants in the diaspora. The Afro Latin American bildungsromans examined in this study include a number of religions such as Catholicism Spiritism and syncretic folk religions as well as Santería and Umbanda reflecting the variety of beliefs in Latin America. I have found that young people turn to religions and spiritual traditions in time of need. Going on a journey as part of one's personal development is one of the central themes of many bildungsroman and this pertains too in Afro Latin American novels. Caribbean characters are depicted as immigrating to the United States whereas few Brazilians have enough resources to travel to North America and instead move to larger cities within their own country.

Cultural Identity and Postmodern Writing, 2006-01-01 Cultural Identity and Postmodern Writing seeks to ascertain the relationship obtaining between the specific form postmodernism assumes in a given culture and the national narrative in which that culture traditionally recognizes itself Theo D haen provides a general introduction to the issue of cultural identity and postmodern writing Jos Joosten and Thomas Vaessens take a look at Dutch literature and particular Dutch poetry in relation to postmodernism Robert Haak and Andrea Kunne do the same with regard to respectively German and Austrian literature while Roel Daamen turns to Scottish literature Patricia Krus discusses postmodernism in relation to Caribbean literature and Kristian van Haesendonck and Nanne Timmer turn their attention to Puerto Rican and Cuban literature while Adriana Churampi deals with Peruvian literature Finally Markha Valenta investigates the roots of the postmodernism debate in the United States This volume is of interest to all students and scholars of modern and contemporary literature and to anyone interested in issues of identity as linked to matters of culture Out of Bounds Dara E. Goldman, 2008 Out of Bounds teases out the intricacies of a territorial conception of nationhood in the context of a global reorganization that ostensibly renders historical boundaries irrelevant Hispanic Caribbean writers have traditionally pointed toward the supposed perfect equivalence of island and nation and have explained local culture as a direct consequence of that equation The major social political and demographic shifts of the twentieth century increasingly call this equation into question yet authors continue to assert its existence and its centrality in the evolution of Caribbean identity The author contends that traditional forms of identification have not been eviscerated by globalization instead they have persisted and in some cases have been intensified by recent geopolitical shifts Out of Bounds underscores the ongoing role of the nation as the site of identity formation In this manner the book presents Hispanic Caribbean cultural production as a case study that acutely dramatizes the paradoxical status of traditional demarcations of self definition in an increasingly globalized context

Into the Mainstream Jorge Febles, 2009-03-26 Into the Mainstream Essays on Spanish American and Latino Literature and Culture is a direct outgrowth of Jorge Febles's involvement with the annual conference of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association In that sense the compilation expands on a project initiated in 1993 by Helen Ryan Ransom with her book Imagination Emblems and Expressions Essays on Latin American Caribbean and Continental Culture and Identity Bowling Green Ohio Bowling Green State University Popular Press 1993 David William Foster who penned a lengthy preface to that collection justified its intent by underscoring The very fact that our approach to culture is dominated by categories based on high academic institutionalized phenomena poses from the very outset the question of how to deal with all those other cultural manifestations that do not comfortably assimilate to the accepted canon Ryan Ransom 3 The past fourteen years however have witnessed a radical transformation of that so called canon due to the widespread acceptance of ideas espoused by cultural theorists like Garcia Canclini Homi Bhabha Said Stuart Hall Benhabib Bourdieu and countless others Therefore the ambivalence regarding what constitutes culture identified by Foster is inoperative nowadays to a substantial degree In fact a fundamental component of the postmodern outlook resides in the ability to blend comfortably the high and the low the elitist and the popular realms of production in a multiplicity of textual artifacts creative as well as critical in nature Hence the essays that conform Into the Mainstream do not question barriers anymore nor do they expound on the need to assign a discursive intellectual space to matters pertaining to popular culture Thus this collection espouses an inclusive approach in which a variety of analytical approaches coalesce to reflect on an equally kaleidoscopic textuality Pursuant to its comprehensive nature Into the Mainstream airs established as well as developing critical voices so as to reflect both ideological continuity and evolving viewpoints Scholars who have compiled strong academic records like

Hortensia Morell Raquel Rivas Rojas Elsa Gilmore David Petreman and Benjamin Torres Caballero share a venue with younger critics like Corey Shouse Tourino Roberto Vela Córdova Stacy Hoult Eduardo del Río Bruce Campbell Laura Redruello Dinora Cardoso and April Marshall as well as with two graduate students about to complete their academic preparation Nuria Ibáñez Quintana and María Teresa Vera Rojas The result is an eclectic compilation meant to elicit discussion on the basis of its variety Into the Mainstream's primordial objective is to place these provocative essays which are expanded versions of papers presented during the annual gathering of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association in the period 2002-2005 along with the numerous subjects they treat in the academic mainstream where they rightfully belong
