

A wide-angle landscape photograph of a savanna. In the foreground, there is a vast, flat, greenish-brown plain. In the middle ground, a range of dark, jagged mountains stretches across the horizon. The sky is a pale blue with a bright, hazy area on the right side, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The title "ANIMAL KINGDOM" is overlaid in large, bold, orange-yellow capital letters.

The Inner Kalacakratantra Vesna Wallace, 2001-08-16 The Kalacakratantra the latest and most comprehensive Buddhist Tantra available in its original Sanskrit has never been the topic of a full scale scholarly study This fascinating volume fills that gap concentrating on the inner Kalackaratantra and discussing the nature of human beings Household and Family Characteristics ,1992 Elmdon Jean Robin, 1980-09-04 Elmdon is a social history of a village in north west Essex between 1861 and 1964 Throughout this period the population of Elmdon which lies only fifty miles from London was comparatively small and this has enabled Jean Robin to follow the lives of individuals and families in the village in a degree of detail which can illuminate many areas not always thoroughly explored Using the records electoral rolls and other written sources as well as information obtained through anthropological techniques of interviewing carried out between 1962 and 1972 by students from the Department of Social Anthropology at the University of Cambridge she examines patterns of land ownership employment marriage social mobility and migration and analyses the effects of both local and national events on the lives of Elmdon s inhabitants over a hundred year period Proceedings ,1972 Jewish Lives and Jewish Education in the UK Helena Miller, Alex Pomson, 2024-06-30 The book explores the evolving relationships between parents and children the significance of the Jewish school in their lives how young people think about religious practices and their lives in the UK It addresses issues related to families and schooling and pays special attention to the transitions to secondary school and then to life opportunities in the following years It also uncovers the effect of these transitions on the family and of the family on those transitions The book views these phenomena through the prism of a ten year period from when research participants were eleven years old until they were twenty one drawing on a range of theoretical frameworks to help make sense of what was observed The data help clarify how Jewish schools function as both public and community based institutions and what they do and do not contribute to the lives of young people The research reported includes large scale survey data sets as well as repeated in depth interviews with parents and their children The findings have multiple implications for practitioners policy makers and researchers as they seek ways to understand and engage with families and schools This book also appeals to researchers who are interested in the development of religious and cultural identity in the context of minority groups within multicultural societies The Lost and Found, Samuel Byram Halliday, 1860 Will the Family Farm Survive in America?
