African Cultures, Visual Arts, and the Museum Tobias Döring, 2002 From the contents Christine MATZKE Comrades in arts and arms stories of wars and watercolours from Eritrea Sabine MARSCHALL Positioning the other reception and interpretation of contemporary black South African artists Kristine ROOME The art of liberating voices contemporary South African art exhibited in New York Jonathan ZILBERG Shona sculpture and documenta 2002 reflections on exclusions The Nsukka Artists and Nigerian Contemporary Art Simon Ottenberg, 2002 Volume presents the collected papers and commentary from the symposium The Nsukka Group and the State of Nigerian Contemporary Art sponsored by the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of African Art which was held the 19 and 20 October 1997 International African Bibliography, 1997 Power and Nationalism in Modern Africa Toyin Falola, Salah M. Hassan, 2008 This book provides a forum for intellectual exchange around the connections between nationalism and power in Africa with Africa viewed as a global presence Various chapters explore aspects of the colonial order the nature of change and of agencies within a comparative perspective Power and Nationalism in Modern Africa also interrogates African modernity and how it is constructed and articulated in comparison to other modernities The chapters move from localism to globalism and through various ideas and analyses we see modern Africa in a nuanced manner a continent that is capable of accepting other cultures and traditions without losing all of its indigenous beliefs and values The book exposes the power of traditions to reshape history creating in different parts of the African diaspora the ideas to redefine lives and spaces and struggles to create a new future Africans like others have their own ideas and constructions of modernity and modernism They have as the various contributions to this volume have amply demonstrated staged modernity on their own terms and in the process recast it in their own image Humanities, 1998 NEW TRADITIONS FROM NIGERIA OTTENBERG SIMON, 1997-10-17 In response to political and social upheaval University of Nigeria artists have turned to the obscure Igbo culture Drawing on extensive interviews with the artists and analyzing their art and writings anthropologist Simon Ottenberg shows how the artists have used the symbols of a little studied tradition to celebrate their culture and create visual commentaries on their country 78 color 115 b w illustrations Cross/ing Olu Oguibe, Okwui Enwezor, 1998 This exhibition catalogue presents ten African artists who are no longer bound by old affiliations of geography and race but whose work inevitably embodies a common claim to their home continent Curated by Olu Oguibe Cross/ing includes sculpture painting drawing video electronic art installation and photography that is likely to challenge the Western viewer's expectations of African art Essays by Okwui Enwezor and Olu Oguibe The Nigerian Artist of the Millennium Daniel Olaniyan Babalola, 2004 Salvagnini 30+20 - Jubilee (1963/1993/2013) - Versione inglese Mario Marobin, 2018-04-18 When the company was founded in a basement in the Milanese district of Quarto Oggiaro in 1963 to design and construct lubrication units it is probable that even the engineer Guido Salvagnini didn't realize he was beginning a journey which would be as long and successful as that of the company which still bears his name This volume does not claim to reconstruct or retell the history of Salvagnini but is simply a series of memoirs and recollections about people who spent a long time with the company It comprises an organized collection of memory flashes from a community of men who shared a common passion for a company that was one of a kind and who were attracted and fascinated by the figure of Ing Guido who was for all of his co workers a stimulus and in his own way a master Directory of Nigerian Book Development Vincent Chukwuemeka Ike,1998 Joint Acquisitions List of Africana ,1996 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1998 John Moore John Moore,2009 Industrial landscape paintings by John Moore executed over the last three decades focus on sites from Conneaut Ohio to Waterville Maine including Coatesville Pennsylvania a locale that has inspired such American Modernists as Charles Demuth and Ralston Crawford Moore has revisited places in Coatesville and throughout the rustbelt that he painted twenty years ago and his most recent paintings depict changes that have occurred there since One of his subjects Paradise Pennsylvania 13 miles west of Coatesville is Amish farmland a place that is the rural antithesis of industrial life in America Moore is often described as one of the one of the leading realist painters of his generation and many of his paintings resemble places where he grew up While the images appear immediately recognizable the paintings are in fact partial composites based on specific sites but also incorporating formal concerns and oral history as told by individuals with ties to the regions The Thirteen Miles from Paradise catalogue is drawn from the exhibition of the same name at the Arthur Ross Gallery of the University of Pennsylvania where Moore has been Gutman Professor of Fine Arts and chair of the Department of Fine Arts since 1999 The catalogue includes contributions by Alexi Worth a senior critic in the Department of Fine Arts at the University of Pennsylvania and by Debra Bricker Balken an independent curator and writer The Geometries of Afro Asia Joan Kee,2023-04-18 How do we embark on a history of art that proceeds from the assumption of a global majority Taking as a rhetorical departure the construct of Afro Asia which doubles as both an ontological reference and an epistemological intervention this book centers the worlds Black and Asian artists initiate through their work Afro Asia breaks down delineated time into points trajectories angles magnitudes and relative positions so that temporality and chronology figure primarily as questions of geometry it asks if and how we can we be something other than what biology politics culture and economics tells us we are or must become Spanning North America Europe Asia and Africa this book challenges the institutionalization of contemporary art as a global enterprise increasingly governed by the judgments of a self selecting minority Art into Life Alexandra Kokoli,Deborah Cherry,2020-05-14 Tracey Emin has undergone an extraordinary metamorphosis from a young unknown artist into the bad girl of the Young British Art yBA movement challenging the complacency of the art establishment in both her work and her life Today she is arguably the doyenne of the British art scene and attracts more acclaim than controversy Her work is known by a wide audience yet rarely receives the critical attention it deserves In Art Into Life Essays on Tracey Emin writers from a range of art historical artistic and curatorial perspectives examine how Emin's art life and celebrity status have become inextricably intertwined This innovative collection explores Emin's intersectional identity including her Turkish Cypriot heritage ageing and sexuality reflects on her early years as an artist and debates issues of autobiography self presentation and performativity alongside the multi media exchanges of her work and the tensions between art and craft With its discussions of the central themes of Emin's art attention to key works such as My Bed and accessible theorization of her creative practice Art into Life will interest a broad readership
