Texts Of Power Emerging Disciplines In Colonial Bengal Perspectives In Social Sciences Series:

Texts of Power Partha Chatterjee, 1995-01-01 The contributors consider what the case of Bengal says about the workings of Western modernity in a colonial setting

Mapping an Empire Matthew H. Edney, 2024-05-31 In this fascinating history of the British surveys of India Matthew H Edney relates how imperial Britain used modern survey techniques to not only create and define the spatial image of its Empire but also to legitimate its colonialist activities There is much to be praised in this book It is an excellent history of how India came to be painted red in the nineteenth century But more importantly Mapping an Empire sets a new standard for books that examine a fundamental problem in the history of European imperialism D Graham Burnett Times Literary Supplement Mapping an Empire is undoubtedly a major contribution to the rapidly growing literature on science and empire and a work which deserves to stimulate a great deal of fresh thinking and informed research David Arnold Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History This case study offers broadly applicable insights into the relationship between ideology technology and politics Carefully read this is a tale of irony about wishful thinking and the limits of knowledge Publishers Weekly

Was Hinduism Invented? Brian K. Pennington, 2005-04-28 Pennington retells the story of Christian s and Hindu s reception of each other in early 19th century Bengal giving prominence to the power of the respective worldviews to shape the encounter and to help produce the very religions that colonialism thought it discovered

Creating the Moral Colonial Subject Deana Lee Heath, 2003 Texts of Power Partha Chatterjee, Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, 1995 Scholars from the Centre for Studies in Social Sciences in Calcutta explore the genealogy of India s contemporary intellectual modernity concentrating on Bengal the first modern province The topics include colonial and nationalist literature art politics child rearing historical memory and the mapping of Calcutta The authors apply theories from recent historical and cultural studies providing new insights into modern Indian intellectualism Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

International Studies in the Philippines Frances Antoinette Cruz, Nassef Manabilang Adiong, 2020-03-26 How can local experiences and the social transformation generated by modernity help to enrich our understanding of the international What might a version of the much discussed non Western International Relations IR look like What continuities and discontinuities from the Philippine experience in particular can be useful for understanding other post colonial polities The Philippines makes a fascinating case study of a medium sized developing post colonial multi ethnic and multi cultural state in Southeast Asia Cruz Adiong and their contributors map horizons of non Western approaches in Philippine experiences of IR rooted in the Global South and in local customs and practice Examining both theory and praxis they explore issues as diverse as pre colonial history diplomacy religion agrarian reform and the Philippines relationship with key regions in the Global South The book will appeal to researchers interested in Southeast Asian Studies and alternative perspectives on IR

Curriculum Studies in India W. Pinar, 2015-02-19 Curriculum Studies in India examines Indian scholars in dialogue regarding their intellectual life histories and subjective investments in their field With chapter introductions by William Pinar scholars explore their intellectual history and present circumstances of curriculum studies in India emphasized by their own engagement and research These works demonstrate the rapidity and scale of economic growth today and how it creates conflict dislocation inequality and echoes of a colonial past now present in globalization Pinar and his contributors conclude that historical discontinuities cultural conflict economic globalization and political tension characterize the present circumstances of curriculum studies in India

The Biopolitics of Development Sandro Mezzadra, Julian Reid, Ranabir Samaddar, 2013-12-27 This book offers an original analysis and theorization of the biopolitics of development in the postcolonial present and draws significantly from the later works of Michel Foucault on biopolitics Foucault's works have had a massive influence on postcolonial literatures particularly in political science and international relations and several authors of this book have themselves made significant contributions to that influence While Foucault's thought has been inspirational for understanding colonial biopolitics as well as governmental rationalities concerned with development his works have too often failed to inspire studies of political subjectivity Instead they have been used to stoke the myth of the inevitability of the decline of collective political subjects often describing an increasingly limited horizon of political possibilities and provoking a disenchantment with the political itself in postcolonial works and studies Working against the grain of current Foucauldian scholarship this book underlines the importance of Foucault's work for the capacity to recognize how this degraded view of political subjectivity came about particularly within the framework of the discourses and politics of development and with particular attention to the predicaments of postcolonial peoples It explores how we can use Foucault's ideas to recover the vital capacity to think and act politically at a time when fundamentally human capacities to think know and to act purposively in the world are being pathologized as expressions of the hubris and underdevelopment of postcolonial peoples Why and how it is that life in postcolonial settings has been depoliticized to such dramatic effect The immediacy of these themes will be obvious to anyone living in the South of the world But within the academy they remain heavily under addressed In thinking about what it means to read Michel Foucault today this book tackles some significant questions and problems Not simply that of how to explain the ways in which postcolonial regimes of governance have achieved the debasements of political subjectivity they have nor that of how we might better equip them with the means to suborn the life of postcolonial peoples more fully but that of how such peoples in their subjection to governance can and do resist subvert escape and defy the imposition of modes of governance which seek to remove their lives of those very capacities for resistance subversion flight and defiance

fringes of Calcutta overflowing trains carry peasant women to informal urban labor markets in a daily commute against hunger land is settled and claimed in a complex choreography of squatting and evictions such Ananya Roy contends are the distinctive spaces of a communism for the new millennium where at a moment of liberalization the hegemony of poverty is quietly reproduced An ethnography of urban development in Calcutta Roy's book explores the dynamics of class and gender in the persistence of poverty City Requiem Calcutta emphasizes how gender itself is spatialized and how gender relations are negotiated within the geopolitics of modernity and through the everyday practices of territory Thus Roy shows how urban developmentalism in its populist guise reproduces the relations of masculinist patronage and in its entrepreneurial guise seeks to reclaim a bourgeois Calcutta gentlemanly in its nostalgias In doing so her work expands the field of poverty studies by showing how a politics of poverty is also a poverty of knowledge a construction and management of social and spatial categories Contemporary Social Physics Anu Rai, Supratim Karmakar, Suman Chatterjee, Jitendra Kumar

Pandey, 2025-02-08 This volume delves into how cutting edge geospatial tools are revolutionizing social physics the quantitative study of human behavior and spatial dynamics Through real world case studies the book demonstrates how geospatial analysis is applied to pressing social and environmental challenges from migration flows and resource distribution to healthcare access crime disaster management and urban planning Readers will explore how these tools reveal the complexities of human movement socio spatial interactions and behavioral patterns The book is structured into five sections each tackling key topics at the intersection of social physics and geospatial analysis Population Dynamics and Social Behavior Examines refugee settlements migrations resource allocation and the socio spatial impacts of political violence and the COVID 19 pandemic Social Learning and Environmental Management Highlights how social learning influences agriculture healthcare and environmental management with geospatial techniques improving outcomes like riverbank stability and crop yields Spatial Heterogeneity and Social Behavior Investigates how social behavior shifts across different spatial contexts with a focus on crime inequality and pandemic response including detailed insights into Kolkata's COVID 19 management Social Physics and Sustainability Demonstrates how geospatial tools can advance sustainability efforts including waste management transportation optimization and urban planning for peri urban areas Ideal for academics researchers urban planners and policymakers this volume provides innovative methodologies to address complex social environmental and economic challenges Whether examining migration trends or advancing sustainability this book equips readers with the tools to transform how we understand human behavior and space Vernacular Medicine in Colonial India Shinjini

Das, 2019-03-14 Interrelated histories of colonial medicine market and family reveal how Western homeopathy was translated and made vernacular in colonial India Toward a Politics of The (Im)Possible Anirban Das, 2012-10 This book works at the intersection of two related yet different fields One is the heterogeneous feminist effort to question universal forms of knowing The second field follows from this conundrum how does one think of the body when s/he speaks of embodiment

Toward a Politics of the Im Possible engages the forefront of contemporary thought on the body while remaining mindful of the requirements of a feminist approach Calcutta Requiem: Gender And The Politics Of Poverty Ananya Roy,2007-09

Lyrical Movements, Historical Hauntings Geeta Patel,2002 This is one of the first books in any language on the life and work of Miraji 1912 1949 one of the major canonical Urdu poets of the 20th century Presenting close readings of some of Miraji s most compelling and challenging poems the author reconceives the relationships among nationalism gender and sexuality in Indian life Rethinking Modern European Intellectual History Darrin M. McMahon, Samuel

Moyn,2014-01-14 This volume revives the tradition of debating why and how to study ideas Showcasing the diversity and differentiation of modern European intellectual history it documents how much has changed in recent decades charting how old and new trends have affected scholarship including the history of science the history of academic disciplines the history of psychology and self international and global history and women s and gender history Shyamji Krishnavarma Harald Fischer-Tiné,2015-10-15 This book is the first critical biography on Shyamji Krishnavarma scholar journalist and national revolutionary who lived in exile outside India from 1897 to 1930 His ideas were crucial in the creation of an extremist wing of anti imperial nationalism The work delves into a fascinating range of issues such as colonialism and knowledge political violence cosmopolitanism and diaspora Lucidly written and with an insightful analysis of Krishnavarma s life and times this will greatly interest scholars and researchers of modern Indian history politics the nationalist movement as well as the informed lay reader Questions of Modernity Timothy Mitchell,1994 In his introduction to this collection of essays by constitutional experts Philip Bryden says that Canadians can be proud of their commitment to the protection of rights and liberties in the Charter Canada he believes is a better place to live then it would be otherwise Nevertheless as the essays in this book reveal the case in favour of the Charter is not simple or one sided For instance Kim Campbell minister of justice at the time of writing and Jeffrey Simpson of the Globe and Mail express concern that the Charter promotes a rights discourse that threatens to overwhelm the ordinary politics of recognizing and accommodating different interests Dean Lynn Smith of the University of British Columbia law faculty observes that the Charter rights are better understood as complementing than as supplanting traditional mechanisms The authors diverse in background and outlook reflect varying points of view but share a significant degree of consensus on issues that need to be addressed The Crossroads of Crime Writing Meghan

P. Nolan,Rebecca Martin,2024-03-05 This volume argues that we must examine the boundaries in fiction and non fiction crime writing with an awareness of and turn toward the unseen structures and spatial uncertainties that so often lead to and reflect collective fears and anxieties Drawing upon the insights and expertise of an international array of scholars the chapters within explore the interplay of the literary historical social and cultural in various modes of crime writing from the 1890s to as recent as 2017 They examine unseen structures and uncertain spaces and simultaneously provide new insights into the works of iconic authors such as Christie and iconic fictional figures like Holmes as well as underexplored subjects including Ukrainian detective fiction of the Soviet period and crime writing by a Bengali police detective at the turn of the twentieth century The breadth of coverage of both time and place is an indicator of a text in which seasoned readers advanced students and academics will find new perspectives on crime writing employing theories of cultural memory and deep mapping

The Emergence of Brand-Name Capitalism in Late Colonial India Douglas E. Haynes, 2022-09-22

This book examines the emergence of professional advertising in western India during the interwar period It explores the ways in which global manufacturers advanced a brand name capitalism among the Indian middle class by promoting the sale of global commodities during the 1920s and 1930s a time when advertising was first introduced in India as a profession and underwent critical transformations Analysing the cultural strategies both verbal and visual used by foreign businesses in their advertisements to capture urban consumers Haynes argues that the promoters of various commodities crystalized their campaigns around principles of modern conjugality He also highlights the limitations of brand name capitalism during this period examining both its inability to cultivate markets in the countryside or among the urban poor and its failure to secure middle class customers With numerous examples of illustrated advertisements taken from Indian newspapers the book discusses campaigns for male sex tonics and women s medicines hot drinks such as Ovaltine and Horlicks soaps such as Lifebuoy Lux and Sunlight cooking mediums such as Dalda and electrical household technologies By examining the formation of brand name capitalism and two key structures that accompanied it the advertising agency and the field of professional advertising this book sheds new light on the global consumer economy in interwar India and places developments in South Asia into a larger global history of consumer capitalism
