The Textual Society Edwina Taborsky, 1997-01-01 Edwina Taborsky moves semiotics away from being a descriptive tool within the humanities and uses its powers of analysis on the organic and social nature of cognition The Journal of the European Society for Textual Scholarship. Wim Van Mierlo, Alexandre Fachard, 2013 This volume is the 10th issue of Variants In keeping with the mission of the European Society for Textual Scholarship the articles are richly interdisciplinary and transnational They bring to bear a wide range of topics and disciplines on the field of textual scholarship historical linguistics digital scholarly editing classical philology Dutch English Finnish and Swedish Literature publishing traditions in Japan book history cultural history and folklore The questions that are explored what texts are worth editing what is the nature of the relationship between text work document and book what is a critical digital edition all return to fundamental issues that have been at the heart of the editorial discipline for decades With refreshing insight they assess the increasingly hybrid nature of the theoretical considerations and practical methodologies employed by textual scholars while reasserting the relevance and need for producing scholarly editions whether in print or digital and continuing advanced research in bibliographical codes textual transmissions genetic dossiers the fluidity of texts and other such Subjects that connect textual scholarship with broader investigations into our nations literary culture and written heritage Text D. Literacy in School and Society Elizabetta Zuanelli Sonino, 2013-06-29 The function and notion of literacy may be considered the keystone a filigree principle underlying the educational social and cultural organization of the societies of the twentieth century It is therefore interesting to try to pinpoint the notion and its implications at the turn of the century by focusing the attention of scholars from various disciplines sociolinguistics psychology psycholinguistics and pedagogy on the subject This is the purpose of this volume which originated from an interdisciplinary meeting on trends in and problems of research on early literacy through mother tongues and or second languages held in Venice under the auspices of the University of Venice and in particular of the Seminario di Linguistica e di Didattica della Lingue and the Centro Linguistico Interfacoltà and the Municipality of Venice together with UNESCO and AILA A first far reaching question touches on the role assigned to or fulfilled by mass literacy in modern society The concept of literacy considered as a social achievement an essential component in the process of education to be institutionally prompted and controlled fluctuates between two opposite poles A polemic destructive view considers the notion and the educational practices connected with it as a potent instrument of social control a tool for social reproduction and consensus On the other side a plurifunctional constructive view considers the acquisition and maintenance of different languages via educational institutions as a concrete possibility for the defense and maintenance of cultural pluralism and identity be it social ethnic or religious
