Texture Of The Divine:

The Texture of the Divine Aaron W. Hughes, 2003-12-09 The Texture of the Divine explores the central role of the imagination in the shared symbolic worlds of medieval Islam and Judaism Aaron W Hughes looks closely at three interrelated texts known as the Hayy ibn Yaqzan cycle dating roughly from 1000 1200 CE to reveal the interconnections not only between Muslims and Jews but also between philosophy mysticism and literature Each of the texts is an initiatory tale recounting a journey through the ascending layers of the universe These narratives culminate in the imaginative apprehension of God in which the traveler gazes into the divine presence The tales are beautiful and poetic literary works as well as probing philosophical treatises on how the individual can know the unknowable In this groundbreaking work Hughes reveals the literary initiatory ritualistic and mystical dimensions of medieval Neoplatonism The Texture of the Divine also includes the first complete English translation of Abraham Ibn Ezra's Hay ben Meqitz Rabbi Joseph Gikatilla's Hermeneutics Elke Morlok, 2011 A revision of the author's thesis doctoral Hebrew University Jerusalem 2008 The Art of Mystical Narrative Eitan P. Fishbane, 2018 In the study of Judaism the Zohar has captivated the minds of interpreters for over seven centuries and continues to entrance readers in the modern day Yet despite these centuries of study very little attention has been devoted to the literary dimensions of the text The Art of Mystical Narrative argues that the Zohar story must be understood first and foremost as a work of the fictional imagination Reading Shakespeare in Jewish Theological Frameworks Caroline Wiesenstahl Lion, 2022-08-24 Reading Shakespeare in Jewish Theological Frameworks Shylock Beyond the Holocaust uses Jewish theology to mount a courageous new reading of a four hundred year old play The Merchant of Venice While victimhood and antisemitism have been the understandable focus of the Merchant critical history for decades Lion urges scholars performers and readers to see beyond the racism in Shakespeare's plays by recovering Shakespearean themes of potentiality and human flourishing as they emerge within the Jewish tradition itself Lion joins the race conversation in Shakespeare studies today by drawing on the intellectual history and oppression of the Jewish people borrowing from thinkers Franz Rosenzweig and Abraham Joshua Heschel as well as Hannah Arendt Walter Benjamin Jacques Derrida Emmanuel Levinas and rabbis from the Talmud to today This volume interweaves post confessional Protestant Catholic Muslim Jewish and mystical ideas with Shakespeare's poetry and opens conversations of prophecy love spirituality care and community It concludes with brief critical sketches of Antony and Cleopatra Hamlet and Macbeth to demonstrate that Shakespeare when interpreted through Jewish theological frameworks can point to post credal solutions and transformed societal paradigms of repair that encourage action and the shaping of a finer world Metaphor and Imagination in Medieval Jewish Thought Dianna Lynn Roberts-Zauderer, 2019-12-12 This book reveals how Moses ibn Ezra Judah Halevi Moses Maimonides and Shem Tov ibn Falaquera understood metaphor and imagination and their role in the way human beings describe God It demonstrates how these medieval Jewish thinkers engaged with Arabic Aristotelian psychology specifically with regard to imagination and its role in cognition Dianna Lynn Roberts Zauderer reconstructs the process by which metaphoric language is taken up by the imagination and the role of imagination in rational thought If imagination is a necessary component of thinking how is Maimonides idea of pure intellectual thought possible An examination of select passages in the Guide in both Judeo Arabic and translation shows how Maimonides attitude towards imagination develops and how translations contribute to a bifurcation of reason and imagination that does not acknowledge the nuances of the original text Finally the author shows how Falaquera s poetics forges a new direction for thinking about imagination

Identities Aaron W. Hughes,2017 Received opinion imagines Judaism and Islam as two distinct religions interacting in the centuries following the death of Muhammad in the early seventh century Tradition describes the relations between the two groups using such tropes as symbiosis In this revisionist work Aaron W Hughes instead argues that various porous and marginal groups neither fully Muslim nor fully Jewish exploited a shared terminology to make sense of their social worlds in response to the rapid process of Islamicization What emerged as normative rabbinic Judaism on the one hand and Sunni and ShiEven the spread of rabbinic Judaism especially at the hands of Saadya Gaon 882 942 CE was articulated Islamically In the so called Golden Age that emerged in places like Muslim Spain and North Africa this Islamic Judaism could still be found in the writings of luminaires such as Bahya ibn Paquda Abraham ibn Ezra Judah Halevi and Moses Maimonides Drawing on social theory comparative religion and the analysis of original sources Hughes presents a compelling case for rewriting our understanding of Jews and Muslims in their earliest centuries of interaction Not content to remain solely in the past Shared Identities examines the continued interaction of Muslims and Jews now reimagined as Palestinians and Israelis into the present

Reading St. Luke's Text and Theology: Pentecostal Voices Riku P. Tuppurainen,2019-10-16 Lukan narrative takes its readers into God s story how his salvation plan in Jesus began on the slopes of Judea and at the Sea of Galilee ending on the hill of Calvary and the Mount of Olives yet moving on and telling how the Spirit descended onto the Temple Mount empowering God s people who then began to fulfill the given mandate in the presence of the Spirit Yet readers of Luke Acts throughout the centuries have had a meandering journey as they have tried to understand the narrative s persuasion and Spirit references This book seeks to bring awareness to these challenges by some of the most respected

Colby,2025-02-01 A survey of the Muslim Jewish and Christian debates and mystical discussions about Muhammad s heavenly journey that took place in early medieval Spain This book demonstrates how Muhammad s heavenly journey as discussed throughout the eleventh and twelfth centuries in the western Mediterranean was the site both of polemical religious debates and of a rich and varied tradition of mystical commentary Out of these fertile contexts sprang two very influential sets of ascension discourses First the growth of the Perfect and Complete version of the Islamic ascension tale that spread throughout the Muslim world second the complex and multidimensional mystical interpretations of Muhammad s journey by one of the most famous Sufis of all time the Grand Master Muhyi al Din Ibn Arabi d 1240 CE This work surveys key sources of this Andalusí contemplative tradition and also includes a complete translation of one of its very earliest written texts preserved in a unique fragmentary Arabic manuscript making this important historical document accessible to scholars students and general audiences alike for the very first time

Biblical Exegesis in African Context Frederick Mawusi Amevenku,Isaac Boaheng,2021-09-07 Biblical Exegesis in African Context explores how the Church in Africa can affirm its uniqueness in terms of the African identity and experiences and at the same time remain faithful to the gospel message The volume begins with an explanation of exegesis and hermeneutics and the agenda for the rest of the book is set The second chapter deals with textual criticism which is the task of determining the originality of a biblical text In chapter three issues related to the context of the text are considered after which the volume proceeds to examine the various literary forms present in the Bible prominent among them being Narrative Law Poetry Prophecy Wisdom Literature Gospels Acts of the Apostles Epistles and Revelation The authors then dedicate the next chapter to discussions on socio rhetorical interpretation The final chapters of the book deal with matters solely related to the context of Africa this part intends to equip readers to be able to interpret the Bible from African cultural perspectives and then apply the gospel message meaningfully to the life of African Christians Chapter seven deals with the emergence and historical development of African Biblical Studies ABS noting its relevance and how Africans can benefit from it The main contention of the chapter is that Africans will better understand and apply God s word to their lives if they read the Scriptures in an African way The volume then explores how African languages can be used to derive the meaning of scripture and apply it to real life situations Here the authors contribute to the development of MTBH by developing a methodological framework for this interpretative tool The next chapter of the volume deals with mother tongue theologizing in Ghana The final chapter considers the legitimacy of female leadership in the Church within the African context through the examination of two Pauline texts This volume will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate seminary students students of Biblical Interpretation in religions departments as well as practicing pastors

Reflections on Knowledge and Language in Middle Eastern Societies Yonatan Mendel, Bruno De Nicola, Husain Qutbuddin, 2010-08-11 This book presents a collection of articles that put forward original research and significant insight regarding several key issues related to knowledge and language in Middle Eastern societies The aspects studied include the role of knowledge and language in affirming and negating political agendas and self identities within areas of conflict and tension ideas regarding the usefulness and interaction of religious and secular knowledge and the attributes that render knowledge and language especially that which is believed to be of divine origin outstanding and worthy of admiration The selection of studies has been purposefully diverse to include a variety of languages including Arabic Turkish Hebrew and Persian within multiple traditions including Hellenism Judaism Christianity and Islam while focussing on a range of periods from the classical to the mediaeval to the modern and examining a range of issues such as methods of analysing and interpreting Persian Turkish and Arabic literature literary and other attributes of the Bible and the Qur an diglossic languages the Turkish modernisation project Turkish Kurdish tensions Andalusian music Azerbaijani politics and the Israeli Palestinian conflict By underlining the substantial commonalities that exist between such seemingly different fields of research the book highlights the idea increasingly on the wane in departments of Middle Eastern Studies across many universities that a shared area of study viz the Middle East naturally and inherently entails a shared cultural historical and sociological milieu It suggests that academics who engage in different branches of research related to this area should rather than focussing singly on their own field avail substantially and meaningfully of one another s scholarship learn from each other s methodologies and collectively build upon a body of knowledge that should never be seen as dissociated
