Thailand's Political Peasants Andrew Walker, 2012-08-06 When a populist movement elected Thaksin Shinawatra as prime minister of Thailand in 2001 many of the country's urban elite dismissed the outcome as just another symptom of rural corruption a traditional patronage system dominated by local strongmen pressuring their neighbors through political bullying and vote buying In Thailand's Political Peasants however Andrew Walker argues that the emergence of an entirely new socioeconomic dynamic has dramatically changed the relations of Thai peasants with the state making them a political force to be reckoned with Whereas their ancestors focused on subsistence this generation of middle income peasants seeks productive relationships with sources of state power produces cash crops and derives additional income through non agricultural work In the increasingly decentralized disaggregated country rural villagers and farmers have themselves become entrepreneurs and agents of the state at the local level while the state has changed from an extractor of taxes to a supplier of subsidies and a patron of development projects Thailand's Political Peasants provides an original provocative analysis that encourages an ethnographic rethinking of rural politics in rapidly developing countries Drawing on six years of fieldwork in Ban Tiam a rural village in northern Thailand Walker shows how analyses of peasant politics that focus primarily on rebellion resistance and evasion are becoming less useful for understanding emergent forms of political society

Interaction In The Thai Bureaucracy David F. Haas, 2019-03-13 Presenting the results of seventeen months of field research conducted entirely in the Thai language this study describes and compares the patterns of social exchange of two groups of Thai officials district level bureaucrats and physicians in a provincial hospital Dr Haas uses a unique combination of anthropological field data and survey research

Building Social Capital in Thailand Danny Unger, 1998-09-28 Between 1984 and 1994 Thailand had the most rapid economic expansion in the world This 1998 book offers an explanation of this successful record of economic growth in Thailand and in Southeast Asia more generally The book explains why Thai leaders adopted a market driven strategy from the late 1950s and also shows how the overseas Chinese in Thailand built on their community's social capital to overcome the market failures common to all developing countries Unger takes an interdisciplinary approach building on the literatures of social capital and embedded autonomy He considers the unique organization of Thai society and the impact this has had on the country's institutions and their political and economic outcomes The book includes detailed analysis of the financial and textile sectors as well as the development of heavy industries and transportation infrastructure

Patrons, Clients and Friends S. N. Eisenstadt, Luis Roniger, 1984-10-18

About interpersonal relations in society The Modern Anthropology of South-East Asia Victor King, William D. Wilder, 2020-09-10 This is a comprehensive introduction to the social and cultural anthropology of South East Asia It provides an overview of the major theoretical issues and themes which have emerged from the engagement of anthropologists with South East Asian communities a succinct historical survey and analysis of the peoples and cultures of the region Most importantly the volume reveals the vitally important role which the study of the area has occupied in the development of the concepts and methods of anthropology from the perspectives of Edmund Leach to Clifford Geertz Maurice Freedman to Claude Levi Strauss Lauriston Sharp to Melford Spiro Youth Culture and Identity in Northern Thailand Anjalee Cohen, 2020-06-02 Youth Culture and Identity in Northern Thailand examines how young people in urban Chiang Mai construct an identity at the intersection of global capitalism state ideologies and local culture Drawing on over 15 years of ethnographic research the book explores the impact of rapid urbanisation and modernisation on contemporary Thai youth focusing on conspicuous youth subcultures drug use especially methamphetamine use and violent youth gangs Anjalee Cohen shows how young Thai people construct a specific youth identity through consumerism and symbolic boundaries in particular through enduring rural urban distinctions The suggestion is that the formation of subcultures and deviant youth practices such as drug use and violence are not necessarily forms of resistance against the dominant culture nor a pathological response to dramatic social change as typically understood in academic and public discourse Rather Cohen argues that such practices are attempts to fit in and stick out in an anonymous urban environment This volume is relevant to scholars in Thai Studies Southeast Asian Studies Anthropology Sociology Urban Studies and Development Studies particularly those with an interest in youth drugs and gangs The Rational Peasant Samuel L. Popkin, 2023-11-15 Popkin develops a model of rational peasant behavior and shows how village procedures result from the self interested interactions of peasants This political economy view of peasant behavior stands in contrast to the model of a distinctive peasant moral economy in which the village community is primarily responsible for ensuring the welfare of its members Popkin develops a model of rational peasant behavior and shows how village procedures result from the self interested interactions of peasants This political economy view of peasant behavior stands in contrast to the model of a distinctive peasant moral Global Handbook of Inequality Surinder S. Jodhka, Boike Rehbein, 2024-11-19 This handbook provides the most up to date and comprehensive review of the literature on inequality It provides comprehensive overviews of the main theoretical traditions concepts dimensions methodologies and contemporary debates around inequality as well as outlines of the situation of inequality in the world regions Each entry covers the most relevant literature on the respective topic and gives an introduction to the key discussions This authoritative reference work includes contributions from established and upcoming scholars based all over the world and is truly global in perspective It serves as a first introduction to the study of a particular field or issue related to inequality The distinctive aspect of this handbook is its emphasis on the lived realities of inequality its relational and cultural aspects as well as the economic and quantitative aspects This is a must read reference volume for students researchers and professionals interested in this topic across the spectrum of the social sciences Surviving Capitalism Erik

Ringmar, 2005-08 A fresh funny and imaginative discourse on the nature of capitalism and how society has learned to cope with it The Golden Peninsula Charles F. Keyes, 1994-12-01 The Golden Peninsula Culture and Adaptation in Mainland Southeast Asia has long been recognized as the best all around introduction to the diverse cultural traditions found in Burma Thailand Laos Cambodia and Vietnam First published in 1977 it continues to offer useful insights to students and travelers to the region In five well defined and succinct chapters Professor Keyes a leading specialist in the field offers a jargon free copiously annotated synthesis of knowledge about the cultural history of tribal Theravada Buddhist and Vietnamese societies He combines analysis of traditional cultural practices with examination of cultural conflict in the colonial and post colonial periods The book remains unique in providing a detailed examination of urban life as well as of life in rural communities

Bang Chan Lauriston Sharp, Lucien M. Hanks, 2018-03-15 Bang Chan traces the changing cultural characteristics of a small Siamese village during the century and a quarter from its founding as a wilderness settlement outside Bangkok to its absorption into the urban spread of the Thai capital Rich in ethnographic detail the book sums up the major findings of a pioneering interdisciplinary research project that began in 1948 Changes in Bang Chan's social organization technology economy governance education and religion are portrayed in the context of local and national developments Of Beggars and Buddhas Katherine A. Bowie, 2017-02-21 An exploration of subversive ribald variations of the most important story in Theravada Buddhism Leadership in a Slum Alan R. Johnson, 2010-04-01 In Leadership in a Slum Johnson looks at leadership in the Thai social context from a different angle than traditional studies that measure well educated Thais on leadership scales derived in the West Seeking a cultural account of social influence processes he turns to those who have been left behind in the race to participate in a globalizing world the urban poor Using both systematic data collection and participant observation he develops a culturally preferred model as well as a set of models based in Thai concepts that reflect on the ground realities Johnson also examines the community state relationship and finds that in the face of state power that brings both development and the forces of eviction the community and its leaders are not passive in this relationship but modify reject or resist state views in their various forms He concludes by looking at the implications of his anthropological approach for those who are involved in leadership training in Thai settings and beyond This work challenges the dominance of the patron client rubric for understanding all forms of Thai leadership and offers an alternative view for understanding leadership rooted in local social systems to approaches that assume the universal applicability of leadership research findings across all cultural settings Toward a Political Economy of Development Robert H. Bates, 2023-11-15 Modern Thai Politics Clark D. Neher, The Social Evolution of Indonesia F. Tichelman, 2012-12-06 At a fairly early stage of socialism's penetration into the Afro Asian world a handful of European social democrats established an Indian Social Democratic Association ISDV They did so in a country Indonesia that was economically little developed and far away from any of the centres of European socialism and Asiatic radical nationalism The ISDV was soon able to bring its influence to bear on sections of the urban proletariat and to build up an Indonesian revolutionary movement This occurred in sharp competition with a nascent nationalist leadership and then without the usual intermediary role played by radicalizing groups of native intelligentsia In this way Dutch social democrats laid the foundations for one of the first communist parties in Asia and Africa a party which was destined to become one of the few communist mass parties of the Third World However in contrast to the major communist movements of China Vietnam this Indonesian party was to demonstrate a basic weakness successive and catastrophic defeats If we leave out Japan the only non Western country where a capitalist industrial revolution occurred we see that foreign and particularly Western minorities frequently did play a dominant role in the initial and formative phases of the socialist and workers movements of the Afro Asiatic world Development Success in Asia Pacific A.H.

Somjee,1995-08-07 Many new social and economic organizations are emerging in different parts of Asia Pacific which have skillfully adapted western capitalism to suit their own specific requirements They have also put to effective use their own social and cultural values to get the best economic results Japan used its heritage of associated living to overcome adversarial labour and management relations Singapore made use of Confucian emphasis on social discipline and respect for merit to build a meritocratic society Indonesia used its genius for eclecticism to build its own brand of social pragmatism and then used it for economic growth Thailand used the concept of merit in Theravada Buddhism to accelerate economic growth and Malaysia used its own growing pragmatism to balance conflicting ethnic demands The book examines the variety of address their respective core development issues and simultaneously register an explosive economic growth Thailand

Alexandra R. Kapur-Fic,1998 The Book Develops Two Major Themes The First Theme Attempts To Understand The Sources Of Value Orientation Of The Thai People And Their Individual And Group Behaviour To This End The Study Examines Three Major Value Systems And Their Institutions As Well As Their Mutual Relationship And Interaction As The First Value System The Study Examines The Theravada Buddhism As Founded By The Buddha Then Focuses On Its Application In Thailand On Buddhist Ethics And Morality On The Conflicts Between Some Aspects Of Buddhism And The Rapidly Changing Society And Finally On Various Movements Attempting To Reform Buddhism In That Country As The Second Major Value System The Study Examines The Role Which Animism And The Spirit Worship Play In The Daily Life Of The Thai People Their Symbolism And Their Fusion With Buddhism And Its Values And Institutions At The Grassroot Level Of The Society As The Third Value System The Study Discusses Various Theories Which Attempt To Explain The Psycho Cultural Values And Attitudes Of The Thai People How These Interact With Buddhism And Animism And How They Add Another Dimension To The Already Complex Pattern Of Social Behaviour These Three Value Systems Interact And Define The Parameters Within Which All Aspects Of The National Life Political Cultural Economic And Others Are Actualized The Second Major Theme Of The Book

Concentrates On The Position Of Women In Thailand It Begins With The Explanation Of The Attitudes Which The Buddha Himself Held Towards The Women Examines The Status Of Women In Early Buddhist Societies And Of Those Women Who Chose To Renounce The World And Join The Buddhist Order To Seek Personal Salvation As Well As The Role Of The Lay Women In A Buddhist Society At That Time The Book Then Focuses On The Position Of Women In The Thai Society Through Various Stages Of Its History And Culminates In The Discussion Of The Legal Position Of Women Today And The Attempts To Improve Their Status However In Treating The Latter Subject The Study Is Descriptive Rather Than Prescriptive Leaving It To The Thai Women Themselves To Decide Which Remedies To Pursue To Improve Their Position The Mixed Methods

Reader Vicki L. Plano Clark, John W. Creswell, 2008 In light of the dispersed nature of the mixed methods literature the editors have organized a collection of key discussions and examples of mixed methods research studies in one easy to access location This integrative collection draws from the international literature appearing across diverse research disciplines over the past thirty years
