Cruising on the Queen Elizabeth 2 Bernard M.

Patten, 2009-12-02 HMS Queen Elizabeth 2 is the most celebrated craft afloat and one of the greatest technical achievements of the 20th century. In her construction and maintenance are involved almost every science profession and trade known to civilization. On her bridge stand officers who besides being the pick of the Royal Navy have passed rigid examinations in all studies pertaining to winds, tides, currents, navigation, and the geography of the sea. For 91 days author Bernard M. Patten M.D. sailed around the world on this ultimate cruise ship. What was it like onboard this most luxurious of luxury liners? Marvelous, simply marvelous, he assures the reader with obvious enthusiasm that spills off every page. Determined to give the reader the complete QE2 experience, Patten and his wife Ethel roomed in progressively better accommodations, moving level by level from the least expensive class Mauritania 5 to the Penthouse Suite, which included their own butlers, Geoffrey and Paul. Along with the Pattens, readers will experience every deck, every restaurant, and every level of luxury that this incredible ocean liner has to offer. Whether you're a cruise buff or planning your own stay aboard this fabulous ship or just want to take a trip in your imagination on a cold rainy night, Cruising on the Queen Elizabeth 2 will provide you with interesting information, entertaining stories, and ample pleasures.

Travelers' Tales Thailand James O'Reilly, Larry Habegger, 2009-11-01 Winner of the Lowell Thomas Award for Best Travel Book, this newly designed collection paints a unique portrait of a complex and captivating land. One contributor lives as a monk for a month, gaining an inside look at monastic life. Another discovers Bangkok's riverine pleasures, a world away from its car-choked streets. Yet another finds refuge as the houseguest of an isolated tribesman. Through these engaging personal stories, readers witness how Thailand satisfies just about any traveler's hunger for the exotic, the beautiful, the thrillingly different. Writers include Pico Iyer, Norman Lewis, Diane Summers, Simon Winchester, Ian Buruma, Thalia Zepatos, and Tim Ward. The breadth and color of the collective portrait the contributors provide of Thailand is remarkable. Los Angeles Times.

In Search of Justice in Thailand's Deep South Soraya Jamjuree, 2022-09-20 Since 2004, the violent conflict between Thai Buddhists and Malay Muslims has caused more than 7,500 deaths and 13,000 injuries in the southern border provinces of Thailand This will be the first collection published in English to give voice to those who have rebounded from these profound personal tragedies to demand justice and peace The ethnic and religious separatist insurgency in the southern provinces of Thailand is complex Ninety to ninety five percent of Thai citizens are Buddhists In the southernmost provinces however Muslims are in the majority yet they are governed by the Buddhist Thai capital in the north In 2006 and 2014 the Thai government went through separate coups resulting in differing policies to address this problem in the south including a National Culture Act to promote Thai ness throughout the country In the south this has resulted in a repressive and corrupt police force and military raids on Muslim villages provoking the burning of schools and other symbols of Thai government bombings and even the killing of teachers and monks The narratives collected here primarily from women testify that although the violence has been generated from both sides of the Buddhist Muslim divide the actions undertaken by armed forces of the Thai Buddhist state including repressive violence and torture have served as a catalyst for increased Muslim insurgency These contributions reveal the fundamental problem of how a minority people can fully belong within a state that has insisted on religious cultural and linguistic homogenization Thailand in Figures ,1997
