Thai Women In The Global Labor Force:

Thai Women in the Global Labor Force Mary Beth Mills, 1999 This text is an ethnographic examination of young women migrants in rural and urban Thailand The author focuses on the hundreds of thousands of young women who fill the factories and sweatshops of the Bangkok metropolis following them as they travel from the village of Baan Naa Sakae Thai

Women in the Global Labor Force Mary Beth Mills, 1999 The "Bare Life" of Thai Migrant Workmen in Singapore Pattana Kitiarsa, 2014-01-05 Transnational labor migration often begins with the dream of securing a more stable and prosperous future a chance to survive The lure of global cities as a place to attain that dream looms large within the context of rural urban migration flows This book reveals some of the complex phenomena and processes that strip bare the lives and dreams of migrant workers living abroad whose life experiences are overwhelmingly dominated by stress and suffering and diminished gendered roles The book illuminates the intimate aspects of how Thai male migrants have transcended their harsh reality while living under Singapore's strict regulations governing foreign workers Stripped bare of the powerful sociocultural economic and legal processes that govern their existence at home these men must recraft their gendered selfhoods identities and sensibilities Using personal and interpretive ethnography the book explores how popular music sports religious beliefs cultural traditions sexual desire and intimacy are refashioned by appropriating cultural and symbolic capital into new cultural experiences It also provides an extensive look at the sudden unexplained nocturnal death syndrome SUNDS among young healthy Thai construction workers in Singapore The author's in depth analyses of migrant social life and male migrant gendered identity negotiating processes provide an invaluable contribution to our understanding of labor transnationalism in the Southeast Asian context Highlights An important contribution to studies of the masculinization of migration Provides ample insight into the lived experience of migrant workers Explores an often forgotten side of labor migration that of sexual intimacy Adds a rich detailed understanding of village transnationalism Geographies of Women's Health Nancy Davis Lewis, Isabel Dyck, Sara McLafferty, 2012-11-12 This international collection explores the relationships between society place gender and health and how these play out in different parts of the world The chapters work together in examining the complex layering of social economic and political relations that frame women's health The authors demonstrate that women's health needs to be understood in place if gains are to be made in improving women's health and health care Toms and Dees Megan J. Sinnott, 2004-06-30 A vibrant growing and highly visible set of female identities has emerged in Thailand known as tom and dee A tom from tomboy refers to a masculine woman who is sexually involved with a feminine partner or dee from lady The patterning of female same sex relationships into masculine and feminine pairs coupled with the use of English derived terms to refer to them is found throughout East and Southeast Asia Have the forces of capitalism facilitated the dissemination of Western style gay and lesbian identities throughout the developing world as some theories of transnationalism suggest Is the emergence of toms and dees over the past twenty five years a sign that this has occurred in Thailand Megan Sinnott engages these issues by examining the local culture and historical context of female same sex eroticism and female masculinity in Thailand Drawing on a broad spectrum of anthropological literature Sinnott situates Thai tom and dee subculture within the global trend of increasingly hybridized sexual and gender identities

Migration, Gender and Social Justice Thanh-Dam Truong, Des Gasper, Jeff Handmaker, Sylvia I. Bergh, 2013-09-06 This book is the product of a collaborative effort involving partners from Africa Asia Europe and Latin America who were funded by the International Development Research Centre Programme on Women and Migration 2006 2011 The International Institute of Social Studies at Erasmus University Rotterdam spearheaded a project intended to distill and refine the research findings connecting them to broader literatures and interdisciplinary themes The book examines commonalities and differences in the operation of various structures of power gender class race ethnicity generation and their interactions within the institutional domains of intra national and especially inter national migration that produce context specific forms of social injustice Additional contributions have been included so as to cover issues of legal liminality and how the social construction of not only femininity but also masculinity affects all migrants and all women The resulting set of 19 detailed interconnected case studies makes a valuable contribution to reorienting our perceptions and values in the discussions and decision making concerning migration and to raising awareness of key issues in migrants rights All chapters were anonymously peer reviewed This book resulted from a series of projects funded by the International Development Research Centre IDRC Canada

The Intimate Economies of Bangkok Ara Wilson, 2004-07-19 Bangkok has been at the frontier of capitalism s drive into the global south for three decades Rapid development has profoundly altered public and private life in Thailand In her provocative study of contemporary commerce in Bangkok Ara Wilson captures the intimate effects of the global economy in this vibrant city The Intimate Economies of Bangkok is a multifaceted portrait of the intertwining of identities relationships and economics during Bangkok s boom years Using innovative case studies of women s and men s participation in a range of modern markets department stores go go bars a popular downtown mall a telecommunications company and the direct sales corporations Amway and Avon Wilson chronicles the powerful expansion of capitalist exchange into further reaches of Thai society She shows how global economies have interacted with local systems to create new kinds of lifestyles ranging from tomboys to corporate tycoons to sex workers Combining feminist theory with classic anthropological understandings of exchange this historically grounded ethnography maps the reverberations of gender sexuality and ethnicity at the hub of Bangkok s modern economy

Money Makes Us Relatives Jenny Barbara White, 2004 In the rural immigrant community of Istanbul poor women spend up to fifty hours a week producing goods for export yet deny that they actually work Money Makes Us Relatives asks why Turkish society devalues women s work concealing its existence while creating a vast pool of cheap labor for the world market Drawing on two years of ethnographic fieldwork among family producers and pieceworkers and using fascinating case studies throughout Jenny B White shows how women s paid work is viewed in terms of kinship relations of reciprocity and obligation an extension of domestic work for the family which is culturally valued but poorly compensated Whilst offering the benefits of social identity and long term security women s work also reflects global capitalism s ability to capture local cultural norms and to use these to lower production costs and create exploitative conditions This fully revised second edition includes a new introduction and conclusion updated references comparative material on women s labor elsewhere in the world and brand new material on Islam globalization gender and Turkish family life It is an important contribution to debates about women s participation in late global capitalism

Consumption, Status, and Sustainability Paul Roscoe, Cindy Isenhour, 2021-08-12 This volume addresses current concerns about the climate and environmental sustainability by exploring one of the key drivers of contemporary environmental problems the role of status competition in generating what we consume and what we throw away to the detriment of the planet Across time and space humans have pursued social status in many different ways through ritual purity singing or dancing child bearing bodily deformation even headhunting In many of the world s most consumptive societies however consumption has become closely tied to how individuals build and communicate status Given this tight link people will be reluctant to reduce consumption levels and environmental impact and forego their ability to communicate or improve their social standing Drawing on cross cultural and archaeological evidence this book asks how a stronger understanding of the links between status and consumption across time space and culture might bend the curve towards a more sustainable future

International Marriages and Marital Citizenship Asuncion Fresnoza-Flot, Gwénola Ricordeau, 2017-07-14 While marriage has lost its popularity in many developed countries and is no longer an obligatory path to family formation it has gained momentum among binational couples as states reinforce their control over human migration Focusing on the case of Southeast Asian women who have been epitomized on the global marriage market as ideal brides and wives this volume examines these women s experiences of international marriage migration and states governmentality Drawing from ethnographic research and policy analyses this book sheds light on the way many countries in Southeast Asia and beyond have redefined marriage and national belonging through their regime of marital citizenship that is a legal status granted by a state to a migrant by virtue of his her marriage to one of its citizens These regimes influence the familial and social incorporation of Southeast Asian migrant women notably their access to socio political and civic rights in their receiving countries The case studies analysed in this volume highlight these women s subjectivity and agency as they embrace resist and navigate the intricate legal and socio cultural frameworks of citizenship As such it will appeal to sociologists geographers socio legal scholars and anthropologists with interests in migration family formation intimate relations and gender

Girls of the Factory M. Laetitia Cairoli, 2011-06-01 In Morocco today the idea of female laborers is generally frowned upon Yet despite this many women are beginning to find work in factories Laetitia Cairoli spent a year in the ancient city of Fes Girls of the Factory tells the story of what life is like for working women Forced to find a factory job herself so that she could speak more intimately with working women she was able to learn firsthand why they work what working means to them and how important earning a wage is to their sense of self Cairoli conveys a general sense of the working life of women in Morocco by describing daily life inside a Moroccan sewing factory She also reveals the additional work they face inside their homes More than an ethnography this volume is also for those who want to better understand what life is like for a new generation of young women just entering the workforce

The Tapestry of Culture Maxine Weisgrau, Abraham Rosman, Paula G. Rubel, 2023-07-10 When we think about society and culture often we think of our own culture the culture in which we were raised or currently live as the default The eleventh edition of The Tapestry of Culture uses anthropological tools to translate the concepts ideas and behaviors of other cultures into language recognizable by today's students The book's comparative approach balances the history of ethnography fieldwork and anthropological with today's globalized world including the impact of climate change social movements social media and technology global health issues and shifting political landscapes New to the Eleventh Edition New Chapter 12 Global Health and Wellness examines the historical political and cultural issues that shape disease and health including inequalities in access to physical and mental health services the delivery of health care services and health intervention strategies New Chapter 11 Spaces and Places of Creative Expression explores how social media and internet technologies play a major role in how contemporary audiences view and understand creativity including music dance theater film painting and other performance styles Expanded discussion of the cultural construction of gender and sexuality as well as LGBTQ issues in activism explores gender and sexuality through queer studies and in postcolonial settings Chapter 7 New discussion of critical race theory highlights its contributions to analyzing multiple forms of racism and discrimination while providing an exploration of the challenges of multiculturalism in contexts of nationality ethnicity and political representation Chapter 14 New discussions of environmental anthropology political ecology climate change inequality social movements globalization and transnationalism highlight these contemporary issues as subjects of anthropological inquiry Chapter 1

Ethnicity, Borders, and the Grassroots Interface with the State John A. Marston, 2014-01-05 Ethnicity Borders and the Grassroots Interface with the State brings together exciting new work by anthropologists working on mainland Southeast Asia The volume honors anthropologist Charles F. Keyes and the chapters here address concepts central to Keyes' own work ethnicity religion and modernity as they can be applied to the countries of Thailand Vietnam Cambodia and Laos The volume also reflects recent scholarly interest in cross border issues as reflected both in the complexity of identity where ethnic groups extend across boundaries and in increasing cross border mobility The volume is divided into three sections The first The State and Public

Ceremony includes chapters on a ceremony of national heritage as celebrated in Vietnam and the United States Shan novice initiation near the border of Myanmar in Thailand and the restoration of the monkhood in Cambodia The second section The Grassroots Negotiation of Modernity contains chapters about the concept of sufficiency in Thai farm production the ways modernity is conceived among the Lahu in Thailand and the complexities of the Thai system of identity cards The final section Crossing Borders of State and Nation focuses on the stateless Lao population in northeastern Thailand Vietnamese migrants to Laos and Western farang men married to northeastern Thai women Contributors to the book include scholars based in Thailand Vietnam the United States Australia and Mexico The book is an invaluable reference for scholars of Southeast Asia and will also appeal to the general reader Highlights Brings together a range of new anthropological research on mainland Southeast Asia Compiled in honor of anthropologist Charles F Keyes and draws on key concepts he developed in his work Includes sections on The State and Public Ceremony The Grassroots Negotiation of Modernity and Crossing Borders of State and Nation Contributors include scholars based in Thailand Vietnam the United States Australia and Mexico

Class, Contention, and a World in Motion Winnie Lem, Pauline Gardiner Barber, 2010-07-01 Prevailing scholarship on migration tends to present migrants as the objects of history subjected to abstract global forces or to concrete forms of regulation imposed by state and supra state organizations In this volume by contrast the focus is on migrants as the subjects of history who not only react but also act to engage with and transform their worlds Using ethnographic examples from Africa Asia Europe North America and the Middle East contributors question how and why particular forms of political struggle and collective action may or indeed may not be carried forward in the context of geographic and social border crossings In doing so they bring the dynamic relationship between class gender and culture to the forefront in each distinctive migration setting

Queer Bangkok Peter A. Jackson, 2011-03-01 The Thai capital Bangkok is the unrivalled centre of the country's gay lesbian and transgender communities These communities are among the largest in Southeast Asia and indeed in the world and have a diversity social presence and historical depth that set them apart from the queer cultures of many neighbouring societies The first years of the 21st Century have marked a significant transition moment for all of Thailand's LGBT cultures with a multidimensional expansion in the geographical extent media presence economic importance political impact social standing and cultural relevance of Thai queer communities This book analyzes the roles of the market and media especially cinema and the Internet in these transformations and considers the ambiguous consequences that the growing commodification and mediatization of queer lives have had for LGBT rights in Thailand A key finding is that in the early 21st Century processes of global queering are leading to a growing Asianisation of Bangkok's queer cultures This book traces Bangkok's emergence as a central focus of an expanding regional network linking gay lesbian and transgender communities in Hong Kong Singapore Taiwan Indonesia the Philippines and other rapidly developing East and Southeast Asian societies Peter A Jackson is associate professor in the School of Culture History and Language at Australian National University The myriad faces of Thai gender sexuality culture have been an attraction for both pleasure seekers and researchers scholars activists Exploring the rapidly changing LGBT cultures and Thai queer identities the essays collected here provide insightful analyses of historical continuities as well as developing variations within the highly complex erotic economic texture of Thai society A must read for anyone in the booming field of gender sexuality studies Josephine Ho Chair Professor Center for the Study of Sexualities National Central University Taiwan

Labour, Politics and the State in Industrialising Thailand Andrew Brown, 2004-03 This book focuses on how the state has become entangled in the processes through which workers have been organized reorganized and disorganized as social and political actors in different historical periods

HIV/AIDS and the Social Consequences of Untamed Biomedicine Graham Fordham, 2014-11-13 Drawing on the case of HIV AIDS in Thailand this book examines how anthropological and other interpretative social science research has been utilized in modeling the AIDS epidemic and in the design and implementation of interventions It argues that much social science research has been complicit with the forces that generated the epidemic and with the social control agendas of the state and that as such it has increased the weight of structural violence bearing upon the afflicted The book also questions claims of Thai AIDS control success arguing that these can only be made at the cost of excluding categories such as intravenous drug users the incarcerated and homosexuals who continue to experience extraordinarily high levels of levels of HIV infection Considered deviant and undeserving these persons have deliberately been excluded from harm reduction programs Overall this work argues for the untapped potential of anthropological research in the health field a confident anthropology rooted in ethnography and a critical reflexivity Crucially it argues that in context of interdisciplinary collaborations anthropological research must refuse relegation to the status of an adjunct discipline and must be free epistemologically and methodologically from the universalizing assumptions and practices of biomedicine

The Tapestry of Culture Abraham Rosman, Paula G. Rubel, Maxine Weisgrau, 2017-01-12 The most exciting thing about anthropology is that it enables the student to become acquainted with people of different cultures The Tapestry of Culture provides the student with the basic concepts necessary to understand these different cultures while showing that cultural variations occur within certain limits Though the forces of globalization have caused cultures of the world around us to become increasingly similar the book shows that people nevertheless cling to ethnic identities and their cultural distinctiveness The tenth edition of this popular textbook incorporates new material throughout such as ethnographic examples in every chapter strengthened discussions of gender transnationalism and globalization and more To enhance the experience of both instructors and students the tenth edition is accompanied by a learning package that includes an instructor s manual with outlines key terms discussion questions lists of films and other resources and more a test bank and a companion website
