Thailand Development Planning In Turbulent Times Asian Papers No 3:

Facets of Competitiveness Ashish Lall, 2011 The ten countries in the ASEAN region account for approximately 5% of world gross domestic product and 8% of world population and represent the most diverse group of nations in terms of the level of prosperity political system culture language and history This diversity in ASEAN not only helps us understand the notion of national competitiveness but also provides important policy lessons for both developed and developing countries This book a collection of essays provides insights on competitiveness challenges and policies It provides an excellent overview of competitiveness for a group of countries at various stages of development Written in a simple and accessible manner this book will be of interest to students researchers business executives and government officials Thailand George Abonyi, Bunyaraks Ninsananda, 1989 The Nation and Economic Growth Kunio Yoshihara, 1994 This book a comparative study of the Philippines and Thailand breaks new ground by highlighting the impact of non economic institutions and cultural kinship and political values on economic performance. The Philippines and Thailand two developing South East Asian countries which faced similar situations and problems after the Pacific War pursued divergent paths in shaping their destiny The results have been dramatic especially when we consider that postwar the Philippines per capita GNP was twice that of Thailand's but by the end of the period under study the position had reversed In examining the factors that influenced this transformation the author elucidates the response of both countries to the economic dominance of the Chinese minority and their attitude towards foreign investment He analyses their government s intervention in the market economy including a discussion of the traditions of their central banks and the role played by their military establishments He also focuses on their handling of peace and order issues include the Communist insurgency Muslim separatism military coups and serious crime culminating in a discourse on traditional values Global Change and Economic Restructuring in Southeast Asia George Abonyi, Bunyaraks Ninsananda, 1991 APEC Martin Rudner, 1993 SCOTT From the John Holmes Library Collection ASEAN Economic Bulletin ,1991 Dumb Foreigners Diana Toward a Political Economy Approach to Policy-based Lending George Abonyi,2002 Identifies a set of Lary, 1990 core concepts that reflect key political economy factors shaping the policy reform process that can assist in guiding the policy based lending PBL design process Discusses the recurring themes that constrain the effectiveness of PBL reviews from a political economy perspective the PBL experience at the Asian Development Bank ADB and elsewhere and identifies outstanding conceptual issues that would have to be tackled in the future in order to increase the likelihood of effective implementation of PBLs and to strengthen the joint capacity of developing member countries and ADB to design more effective PBL initiatives Asian Bibliography ,1992 The Fifth Tiger Robert J. Muscat, 2016-09-16 Thailand's dynamic economic development has earned it a reputation as the Fifth Tiger following on the heels of the superperforming Four Tigers South Korea Taiwan Singapore and Hong Kong This is a study of Thailand's development experience since 1955

The Political Economy of South-East Asia Garry Rodan, Kevin Hewison, Richard Robison, 1997 This study examines the political foundations and implications of the industrial and economic transformation of south east Asia in the last 20 years Discusses changing political alignments and social organisation and identifies central theoretical issues focusing on Thailand the Philippines Indonesia Singapore Malaysia and Vietnam Includes a bibliography and an index A hardback edition is also available The contributors are academics in fields such as politics and economics Rodan is a senior research fellow and Robinson is director of the Asia Research Centre at Murdoch University and Hewison is professor of Asian languages and societies at the University of New England Trade Policy and Industrialization in Turbulent Times Gerald K. Helleiner, 1994 With the relationship between trade policy and industrialization coming in for increasingly close scrutiny this book assesses how far trade policy has promoted economic growth in fourteen developing countries in the 1970s and 1980s

Trade Policy and Industrialization in Turbulent Times Gerry Helleiner, 2002-09-11 The relationship between trade policy and industrialization has provoked much controversy Can trade policy promote economic growth in developing countries Those actively working in the area are becoming increasingly sceptical about the conventional advice given by international policy advisors and organizations This volume builds upon earlier theoretical and empirical research on trade policy and industrialization but is the first cross the board attempt to review developing country experiences in this realm for twenty years The experience of fourteen developing countries in the 1970s and 1980s is assessed by the contributors each of whom have a detailed understanding of their country's recent experience Canadian Books in Print ,1997 Bibliography of Asian Studies ,1996 Southeast Asia Jonathan Rigg, 2004-08-02 The growth economies of Southeast Asia are presented by the World Bank and others as exemplars of development miracle economies to be emulated How did the region attain such status Are the other countries of Southeast Asia able to achieve such a rapid growth This book charts the development of Southeast Asia examining the economies of Vietnam Laos Cambodia and Burma alongside the established Asian market economies Drawing on case studies from across the region the author assesses poverty and ways in which the poor are identified and viewed Process and change in the rural and urban worlds are examined in detail focusing on the strengthening rural urban interaction as farmers make a living in the urban industrial sector and factories relocate into agricultural areas Giving prominence to indigenous notions of development based on Buddhism Islam and the so called Asian Way the author critically assesses the conceptual foundations of development ideas of post developmentalism and the miracle thesis In the light of the experience of one of the most vibrant regions in the world the book places emphasis on the process of modernization within wider debates of development and challenges the notion that development has been a mirage for many Living with Transition in Laos Jonathan Rigg, 2012-10-12 Laos the Lao People's Democratic and a tragedy for some Republic is one of the least understood and studied countries of Asia Its development trajectory is also one of the most interesting as it moves from state or perhaps more appropriately subsistence to market Based on extensive original research

this book assesses how economic transition and marketisation are being translated into progress or not at the local level and at the resulting impact on poverty inequality and livelihoods It concludes that the process of transition in fact contributes to the growth of poverty for some people and shows how people manage to cope in very unfavourable circumstances

International Current Awareness Services ,1992 Indexes current publications in anthropology including material too ephemeral for its parent annual the International bibliography of social and cultural anthropology and has only limited coverage of monographs Turbulence and Order in Economic Development Hazel Gray,2018 This book studies economic development in two of the world's fastest growing developing countries Tanzania and Vietnam by examining the interplay between market liberalization institutions and the distribution of power in society
