Foreign relations of the United States, 1969-1976,

V. 20: Southeast Asia, 1969-1972 , The Foreign Relations of the United States series presents the official documentary historical record of major foreign policy decisions and significant diplomatic activity of the United States Government This volume is part of a subseries of the Foreign Relations of the United States that documents the most issues in the foreign policy of Presidents Richard M Nixon and Gerald R Ford The subseries presents in multiple volumes a comprehensive documentary record of major foreign policy decisions and actions of the administrations of Presidents Nixon and Ford This specific volume documents U S policy towards three important countries in Southeast Asia Thailand the Philippines and Indonesia 1969 1972 a period when the future of Southeast Asia was a major concern of American foreign policy makers This is the last print volume to document U S policy towards Southeast Asia other than those print volumes that document the Vietnam War during the Nixon Ford administrations For the January 1973 to January 1977 period U S policy towards Southeast Asia nations other than Vietnam Laos and Cambodia is covered in an electronic only volume The decision to cover Thailand the Philippines and Indonesia for 1969 1975 in detail in this print volume was based on the fact that each country was a key ally either formally or de facto of the United States during the Vietnam war and each played a specific role during the conflict Thailand sent troops to fight in Vietnam provided bases for U S airpower in Southeast Asia and secretly provided training troops and arms to support U S backed guerilla forces in Laos The Philippines sent a 2 000 man civic action group to South Vietnam and Filipinos made up many of the administrative contractors in South Vietnam Indonesia provided key arms support to the Lon Nol government at a crucial time In addition Thailand Philippines and Indonesia were important countries in their own right with key U S military and economic assistance programs large embassies and close relations with the United States In each country the United States had a considerable interest in their government s success The chapter on Thailand the largest in the volume has the most obvious and closest associations with the Vietnam War A principal theme of this chapter is U S efforts to assure the Thais that unilateral withdrawal of U S troops in South Vietnam and a projected settlement of the war did not mean a lesser U S commitment to Thailand A second key theme of the volume is the covert military role that Thailand s military forces played in supporting the anti communist forces in Laos and the potential role they could play in supporting the Lon Nol government in Cambodia The second largest chapter in this volume documents U S policy towards the Philippines The relationship between President Ferdinand Marcos and the Nixon administration is the dominant theme of this chapter U S officials had to assure Marcos that they were neutral in the 1969 Philippines presidential elections and discourage his desire for a special channel to Washington Corruption in the Marcos government Marcos s desire to revise the constitution to his benefit and his eventual declaration of martial law in September 1972 in the face of student riots caused U S officials in Manila and Washington to assess whether he was the best man to lead the Philippines from the U S point of view Other themes that are documented in the chapter are the ones that predate the Vietnam War such as preference for Philippines exports to the United States U S benefits for Filipino veterans who served in the Second World War and U S bases in the Philippines The final chapter in the volume deals with Indonesia officially a non aligned nation but under strongman General Suharto a de factor ally of the United States The principal themes of this chapter are the question of Indonesia s international debt left over from the Sukarno years and U S support for multilateral Indonesian debt relief among international lending organizations A related theme is the amount of U S bilateral aid provided to Indonesia

Where Great Powers Meet David Shambaugh,2020-11-01 After the end of the Cold War it seemed as if Southeast Asia would remain a geopolitically stable region within the American led order for the foreseeable future In the last two decades however the re emergence of China as a major great power has called into question the geopolitical future of the region and raised the specter of renewed great power competition As the eminent China scholar David Shambaugh explains in Where Great Powers Meet the United States and China are engaged in a broad gauged and global competition for power While this competition ranges across the entire world it is centered in Asia In this book Shambaugh focuses on the critical sub region of Southeast Asia The United States and China constantly vie for position and influence across this enormously significant area and the outcome of this contest will do much to determine whether Asia leaves the American orbit after seven decades and falls into a new Chinese sphere of influence Just as importantly to the extent that there is a global power transition occurring from the US to China the fate of Southeast Asia will be a good indicator Presently both powers bring important assets to bear in their competition The United States continues to possess a depth and breadth of security ties soft power and direct investment across the region that empirically outweigh China's For its part China has more diplomatic influence much greater trade and geographic proximity In assessing the likelihood of a regional power transition Shambaugh examines how ASEAN the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and its member states maneuver and the degree to which they align with one or the other power

Where Great Powers Meet David L. Shambaugh, 2021 Where Great Powers Meet explores the global competition for power between the United States and China Focusing on Southeast Asia David Shambaugh looks at how ASEAN the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and the countries within it maneuver between the US and China and the degree to which they align with one or the other power

International Relations in Southeast Asia N Ganesan, Ramses Amer, 2010 The central theme of this book is the utility of bilateralism and multilateralism in Southeast Asia international relations The intention was to examine a sufficient number of empirical cases in the Southeast Asian region since the mid 1970s so as to establish a pattern of interactions informing a wider audience of interactions unique to the region Through these case studies we seek to identify how this pattern of interaction compares with similar experiences elsewhere vis a vis the theoretical underpinnings of multilateralism and bilateralism Consequently this book also examines the theoretical drift in international relations literature at the broadest level and the overall drift of Southeast Asian international relations between the nations themselves and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN P xv

Thailand Benjamin Zawacki, 2017-10-15 Thailand was a key ally of the United States after WWII serving as a bulwark against communism in Southeast Asia and as a base for US troops during the Vietnam War In return the US provided it with millions of dollars in military and economic aid and staunchly supported the country's various despotic regimes And yet the twenty first century has witnessed a striking reversal in Thailand's foreign relations China once a sworn enemy is becoming a valued ally to the military government In this authoritative modern history Benjamin Zawacki tells the story of Thailand's changing role in the world order Featuring major interviews with high ranking sources in Thailand and the US including deposed prime minister Thaksin Shinawatra Thailand is a fascinating insight into the inner workings of the Thai elite and their dealings with the US and China
