Bertholf, Albert Gelpi, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names Imagining Persons Robert Duncan, 2017-12-15 Robert Duncan's nine lectures on Charles Olson delivered intermittently from 1961 to 1983 explore the modernist literary background and influences of Olson's influential 1950 essay Projective Verse These transcribed talks pay tribute to Olson and expand our knowledge of Duncan's vision of modernist writing Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1965 The National union catalog, 1968-1972 , 1973 Contemporary Poets Tracy Chevalier, 1991 Contains biographical entries a list of separately published books and an essay on each poet Homage to Jack Spicer, and Other Poems Thomas Francis Parkinson, 1970 Spicer biography in Summers pp 674 675 Begin Afresh Sisir Kumar Chatterjee, 2025-03-12 Begin Afresh The Evolution of Philip Larkin's Poetry offers incisive insightful and yet lucid analyses of all the individual poems contained in the four major collections of Larkin 1922 1985 It also deals with his Juvenile Poems Brunette Coleman poems those in In the Grip of Light and XX Poems as well as his last poems The book also discusses Larkin's novels and drafts It evaluates the critical opinions regarding various aspects of Larkin's poetry especially the issue of its development and shows that it may not follow a clearly identifiable linear chronological line of evolution but it does evolve in a subtle way from one phase of his career to the next The book explores how Larkin discovered his own original inimitable idiosyncratic poetic voice by truly democratising English poetry for the first time by writing accessible and pleasurable poetry and by forging a new poetic out of a philistine aesthetic which stands out as an artistic holotype It shows how Larkin restores the relation between poetry and the reading public a relation which was broken down by Modernist poets It also establishes how his poetic vision is neither optimistic nor pessimistic but realistic in that it preserves the universal human condition without moralising or philosophising The book aims to make a fresh departure in Larkin criticism and mark a new era in Larkin studies This volume
