A Fresh Start Linda Johnson,2009-02-28 If you have been physically abused verbally abused sexually abused raped or things that you got into on your own then you are not alone You may feel you re alone and think no one else understands or cares but there are those who do understand and do care You have to make the decision within your heart soul and mind that you are not going to allow Satan to have the victory in your life because of past hurts and pain You are a new creature in Christ if you are a born again believer So let s start fresh and begin to pray the prayers within this book and letting go of the past hurts and pain You can t go forward in the promises of God if you choose to keep the past with you forgive and let the past be just that the past Don t allow anyone to bring your past before you to cause guilt to come upon you I pray for God s strength in each one of our lives and speak the peace of God that surpasses all understanding Silhouettes of Life Barbara Feltquate,2018-08-01 Silhouettes of Life is a compilation of inspirational and whimsical poems embracing family and friends and life s experiences It expresses an appreciation and awareness of life s ups and downs and a profound belief that there is a certain amount of destiny in our own journey I am mesmerized spiritually by God s magical touch when I see magnificent sunrises and sunsets and view the timelessness of the oceans the majesty of endless mountain terrains and the glorious palette of colors only our creator could provide I celebrate all ages recognizing we participate in a universal plan I believe that deep in our souls there is goodness in everyone and that love is the most powerful weapon of mankind With the birth of grandchildren I became more introspective and reflective of my own legacy and message Class! Class! L. C. Young,2023-02-15 Sweaty palms heart palpitations and anticipating thoughts are happening as it is minutes before the school bell is about to ring to start the day Not just any day but my first day of sixth grade I can feel my heart beating like a drummer playing the drums as I walk toward Room 1218 Oh What could possibly be waiting for me once I pass through the doorframe to Miss Redd s classroom Oh What could she possibly be like What if she is not expecting me Oh What a terrible thing that would be What if I m in the wrong class Oh What a mess that would be Oh What a terrible first day of school that would be What if I can t find my desk What if I don t have anyone to eat lunch with What if I don t have anyone to walk to lunch with Would Miss Redd walk with me All these different thoughts came rushing through Geoh s mind once again as he walked to his new classroom Then as he entered the doorway he suddenly heard Hello Geoh Geoh thought to himself She knew my name without even asking me She must be a superhero Could it be Geoh s eyes immediately took notice of the many new things filling the walls of his new classroom with Miss Redd He thought to himself Oh What a year it could be Thoughts came flying through Geoh s mind like a fiery jet on a sunny blue sky day He thought just maybe that today might go his way if he would just try to do his best Maybe Room 1218 could really turn out to be the best room he s ever set foot in yet Standing at the doorway looking around and at his new classroom Geoh began to think Oh What a year it could be Oh What a year it could be But Does This Work With English Learners? Fadwa without sufficient means to support their five children The only way Fadwa could ensure her children would get an education and have any chance of success was to allow their father and stepmother to raise them in Saudi Arabia and Palestine not knowing when she would see them again She returned to the United States in search of new opportunities even removing the hijab head covering she had worn from the age of ten so she could serve in the U S Army I Still Have Hope tells the story of Fadwas loss but also of her persistent efforts to rebuild her life and have contact with her children again The Nebraska Teacher ,1917

Everything Ancient Was Once New Emalani Case, 2021-02-28 In Everything Ancient Was Once New Emalani Case explores Indigenous persistence through the concept of Kahiki a term that is at once both an ancestral homeland for K naka Maoli Hawaiians and the knowledge that there is life to be found beyond Hawai i s shores Kahiki is therefore both a symbol of ancestral connection and the potential that comes with remembering and acting upon that connection Tracing physical historical intellectual and spiritual journeys to and from Kahiki Case frames it as a place of refuge and sanctuary a place where ancient knowledge can constantly be made anew It is in Kahiki and in the sanctuary it creates that today s K naka Maoli can find safety and reprieve from the continued onslaught of settler colonial violence while confronting some of the uncomfortable and challenging realities of being Indigenous in Hawai i in the Pacific and in the world The book engages with Kahiki as a shifting term employed by K naka Maoli to explain their lives and experiences at different points in history Case argues for reactivated and reinvigorated engagements with Kahiki to support ongoing work aimed at decolonizing physical and ideological spaces and to reconnect K naka Maoli to peoples and places in the Pacific region and beyond in purposeful meaningful ways By tracing Kahiki through pivotal moments in history and critical moments in contemporary times Case demonstrates how the idea of Kahiki while not always mentioned by name was and is always full of potential Intertwining personal narrative with rigorous research and analysis Case weaves the past and the present together reflecting on ancient concepts and their continued relevance in movements to protect lands waters and oceans to fight for social justice to reexamine our responsibilities to each other across the Pacific region and to open space for continued dialogue on what it means to be Indigenous when at home and when away Everything Ancient Was Once New journeys to and from Kahiki offering readers a sanctuary for reflection deep learning and continued dreaming with the past in the present and far into the future
