BOOK JACKET Locating Chinese Women Kate Bagnall, Julia T. Martínez, 2021-03-23 This ground breaking edited collection draws together Australian historical scholarship on Chinese women their gendered migrations and their mobile lives between China and Australia It considers different aspects of women's lives both as individuals and as the wives and daughters of immigrant men While the number of Chinese women in Australia before 1950 was relatively small their presence was significant and often subject to public scrutiny Moving beyond traditional representations of women as hidden and silent this book demonstrates that Chinese Australian women in the twentieth century expressed themselves in the public eye whether through writings in photographs or in political and cultural life Their remarkable stories are often inspiring and sometimes tragic and serve to demonstrate the complexities of navigating female lives in the face of racial politics and imposed categories of gender culture and class Historians of transnational Chinese migration have come to recognize Australia as a crucial site within the Cantonese Pacific and this collection provides a new layer of gendered comparison connecting women's experiences in Australia with those in Canada the United States and New Zealand Locating Chinese Women is a path breaking book By exploring the experiences of Chinese Australian women during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the authors have opened new and compelling avenues of inquiry about the history of Chinese Australian women In this landmark work they have brilliantly recast the history of Chinese Australia Joy Damousi Australian Catholic University Locating Chinese Women breaks new ground in Australian and transnational Chinese women's history by making the lives of remarkable Chinese Australian women visible Photographs testimonies Chinese language newspapers and digitized archives help document the women's agency and activities as they navigate public lives between and within Australia and China during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Shirley Hune University of California Los Angeles and University of Washington      Chinese Women Through Chinese Eyes Li Yu-ning, 2015-07-17 The special focus of this book is the lives and experiences of women in China in the first half of the 20th century Part One Historical Interpretations presents essays by Western educated Chinese women and men on the historical role of women in a time of great social and economic upheaval Part Two Self Portraits of Women in Modern China presents the views of women who experienced life in this period through essays and autobiographies that range from women as concubines to women as factory workers from women suffering footbinding to women serving as nurses from women in traditional role in a traditional family to women as scientists and teachers      Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women Lily Xiao Hong Lee, A. D. Stefanowska, Sue Wiles, Clara Wing-chung Ho, 1998 The first biographical dictionary in any Western language devoted solely to Chinese women Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women is the product of years of research translation and writing by scores of China scholars from around the world Volume II Twentieth Century includes a far greater range of women than would have been previously possible because of the enormous amount of historical material and scholarly research that has become available recently They include scientists businesswomen sportswomen military officers writers scholars revolutionary heroines politicians musicians opera stars film stars artists educators nuns and more      The Question of Women in Chinese Feminism Tani Barlow, 2004-03-25 Barlow documents the history of woman as a category in twentieth century Chinese history tracing the question of gender through various phases in the literary career of Ding Ling a major modern Chinese writer      The Chinese Women's Movement Between State and Market Ellen R. Judd, 2002 This is the story of how the women's movement in China took advantage of the government's official efforts to position women in the rural economic reforms of the 1980s to achieve a significant and ever increasing role in China's developing turn toward a market economy which was not the state's intent      Chinese Women in a Century of Revolution, 1850-1950 Kazuko Ono, 1989 Spanning the century from the Taiping Rebellion through the establishment of the People's Republic of China this is the first comprehensive history of women in modern China Its scope is broad encompassing political economic military and cultural history and drawing upon Chinese and Japanese sources untapped by Western scholars The book presents new information on a wide range of topics the impact of Western ideas on women especially in education the importance of women in the labor force the relative independence enjoyed by some women textile workers the struggle against footbinding the influence of anarchism the participation of a women's brigade in the Revolution of 1911 the role of women in the May Fourth Movement the differences between the more assertive women of South China and the traditional women of the North in organizing for political action the involvement of peasant women in insurgency and anti Japanese struggles in the countryside and the effects of the Marriage Law of 1950 The author has contributed a new preface to this English edition and Joshua A Fogel and Susan Mann have written an introduction that places the book in the context of studies of Chinese women

Japanese sinology and women's history in general The book has extensive notes a bibliography and as an appendix a chronology of the history of women in modern China

Chinese Women and the Global Village Jan Ryan, 2003 This the first major study of Chinese women in Australia is all about global journeys and perspectives It is also a story of the various stories that connect Australia to the pathways of women of Chinese ancestry Ryan interrogates issues of ethnicity gender and identity to present the diversity of the women's lives

New Modern Chinese Women and Gender Politics Chen Ya-chen, 2014-07-11 The past century witnessed dramatic changes in the lives of modern Chinese women and gender politics Whilst some revolutionary actions to rectify the feudalist patriarchy such as foot binding and polygyny were first seen in the late Qing period the termination of the Qing Dynasty and establishment of Republican China in 1911 1912 initiated truly nation wide constitutional reform alongside increasing gender egalitarianism This book traces the radical changes in gender politics in China and the way in which the lives roles and status of Chinese women have been transformed over the last one hundred years In doing so it highlights three distinctive areas of development for modern Chinese women and gender politics first women's equal rights freedom careers and images about their modernized femininity second Chinese women's overseas experiences and accomplishments and third advances in Chinese gender politics of non heterosexuality and same sex concerns This book takes a multi disciplinary approach drawing on film history literature and personal experience As such it will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Chinese culture and society women's studies gender studies and gender politics

The Chinese Lady Lloyd Suh, 2019 Afong Moy is fourteen years old when she's brought to the United States from Guangzhou Province in 1834 Allegedly the first Chinese woman to set foot on U S soil she has been put on display for the American public as The Chinese Lady For the next half century she performs for curious white people showing them how she eats what she wears and the highlight of the event how she walks with bound feet As the decades wear on her celebrated sideshow comes to define and challenge her very sense of identity Inspired by the true story of Afong Moy's life THE CHINESE LADY is a dark poetic yet whimsical portrait of America through the eyes of a young Chinese woman

PHOENIX RISING, PIONEERING CHINESE WOMEN OF MALAYSIA Ho Tak Ming, 2015-01-01 THROUGH the centuries Chinese women have had to struggle under a load of injustices denial of education ineligibility to sit the civil service examinations and hold official posts female infanticide selling of daughters concubinage foot binding just to name a few They had largely remained silent because they did not have a voice As China descended to abject poverty in the nineteenth century the lot of Chinese women became even worse When Chinese women came to Malaysia Malaya then largely from the nineteenth century onwards the circumstances became different Under British law they were the equal of men but social conditions took some time to evolve For instance daughters were left out of inheritance until quite recently sons received preferential treatment in education and polygamy was declared illegal only in the 1930s But Chinese women became successful entrepreneurs through their own ability and through education many of them became distinguished professionals Phoenix Rising Pioneering Chinese

Women of Malaysia is the story of Chinese women who have immigrated to this country and forged independent lives different from their lives in China They have shown courage resilience and determination in improving their lives Like the phoenix the mythological bird that symbolises the Chinese woman they are set to soar to greater heights given equal opportunities and just social conditions

Chinese Women Traversing Diaspora Sharon K. Hom, 2013-07-04 The contributors to this volume were born in Beijing Shanghai and Hong Kong they have been immigrants foreign students settlers permanent residents citizens and above all travelers They are both geographic inhabitants of various overseas diaspora Chinese communities as well as figurative inhabitants of imagined heterogeneous and hybrid communities Their migratory histories are here presented as an interdisciplinary collection of texts in distinctive voices law professor journalist historian poet choreographer film scholar tai chi expert translator writer literary scholar

Chinese Women Organizing Ping-Chun Hsiung, Maria Jaschok, Cecilia Milwertz, 2020-05-26 In the process of helping women to help themselves female activists have assumed a decisive role in negotiating social and political transformations in Chinese society This is the first book that describes and analyzes the new phase of women's organizing in China which started in the 1980s and remains a vital force to the present day The political and social changes taking place in contemporary Chinese society have surprisingly received scant attention This volume enriches our understanding of the working of grassroots democracy in China by exploring women's popular organizing activities and their interaction with party state institutions By subjecting these activities to both empirical enquiry and theoretical scrutiny a rigorous analysis of the exchange dialogue negotiation and transformation among and within three groups of political actors popular women's groups religious groups and the All China Women's Federation is concisely presented to the reader This book will be of tremendous interest to students of Chinese Studies Political Science and Gender Studies alike
