Lesbian Modernism English Elizabeth English, 2014-11-11 The first book length study to explore the importance of genre fiction for the body of literature we call lesbian modernism Elizabeth English explores the aesthetic dilemma prompted by the censorship of Radclyffe Hall's novel The Well of Loneliness in 1928 Faced with legal and financial reprisals women writers were forced to question how they might represent lesbian identity and desire Modernist experimentation has often been seen as a response to this problem but English breaks new ground by arguing that popular genre fictions offered a creative strategy against the threat of detection and punishment Her study examines a range of responses to this dilemma by offering illuminating close readings of fantasy crime and historical fictions written by both mainstream and modernist authors English introduces hitherto neglected women writers from diverse backgrounds and draws on archival material examined here for the first time to remap the topography of 1920s 1940s lesbian literature and to reevaluate the definition of lesbian modernism Key Features Rethinks the lesbian modernist project to demonstrate that genre fiction not only influenced modernist writers such as Woolf and Stein but also found its way into their ostensibly highbrow work Brings to light hitherto neglected mainstream writers working in popular genres who contributed to the lesbian modernist aesthetic Situates Katharine Burdekin within the context of lesbian modernism for the first time employing hitherto unseen archive material including letters and manuscripts Divided into three broad multi author genres fantasy historical and detective fictions the study covers popular fictions such as utopian writing the supernatural historical biography historical romance and the classic country house crime novel The Summer of Lost Things Chantele Sedgwick, 2019-06-11 New town new friends new guy and an old bucket list The past haunts the present in the newest installation in the Love Lucas universe After her dad is sentenced to prison time seventeen year old Lucy Nelson and her mother move across the country to start over in the town and farmhouse where her mother grew up Once settled Lucy is determined to keep her mind off anything real and decides to pass the time by reading a stack of her mother's childhood books which has sat in her grandmother's home for decades When Lucy finds her mom's old summer bucket list shoved between the pages of a worn copy of Anne of Green Gables she's eager to write her own list to escape her inevitable summer boredom Feeling brave she fills it with challenges she'd never normally do and also adds the one thing that her mother had never crossed off the original list Visit Susan's grave When Lucy befriends Mira and her handsome cousin Jack she begins to feel almost normal as they help check off her list When she asks her mother about Susan she refuses to talk about her As Lucy falls for Jack she yearns to tell him the truth about her dad and her old life but lies about everything instead When her friends see through the lies and her mom reaches her breaking point over questions about Susan Lucy must learn to trust her friends try to bring peace to her mother and to somehow find the courage to forgive her dad The Summer Girl a Movie Star Love Story, The Garden, 1906 Ski, 1974-10 British Film Institute Film Classics Rob White, Edward Buscombe, 2003 The Cosmopolitan, 1893 The Complete Resource
